Lord And The General Din Of The World:

The Lord and the General Din of the World Jane Mead, 1996 Selected by Philip Levine as the winner of the 1995 Kathryn A Morton Prize in Poetry Last Call Sarah Gorham, Jeffrey Skinner, 1997 Groundbreaking anthology of poetry on substance abuse and recovery To the Wren Jane Mead, 2019-10-21 Mead wrote clean spare often elegiac lines The New York Times This massive collection houses Mead's life's work seven books spanning twenty seven years Follow chronologically through decades and become captivated by heartfelt musings on loss madness danger grief isolation and self identity Her poems explore spaces we often try to ignore and finds a comfortable middleground Mead candidly and openly weaves together pain and joy until it meshes into glimpses of humanity House of Poured-out Waters Jane Mead, 2001 In House of Poured Out Waters Jane Mead's substantial new collection she continues to grapple with a world both personal and cultural Poised in the slender moment between too early and too late between the difficult past and the unimaginable future Mead's poems remind us that the old debates about fate and free will nature and nurture are also matters of personal urgency More than anything it is her spiritual dimension that offers Mead a way into the future but that way must be paved image by image with the world before her Simultaneously conversational and lyrical these fearless poems extend the possibilities of narrative verse The Ecopoetry Anthology Ann Fisher-Wirth, Laura Gray Street, 2013-02-12 Definitive and daring The Ecopoetry Anthology is the authoritative collection of contemporary American poetry about nature and the environment in all its glory and challenge From praise to lament the work covers the range of human response to an increasingly complex and often disturbing natural world and inquires of our human place in a vastness beyond the human To establish the antecedents of today's writing The Ecopoetry Anthology presents a historical section that includes poetry written from roughly the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century Iconic American poets like Walt Whitman and Emily Dickinson are followed by more modern poets like Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams Ezra Pound and even more recent foundational work by poets like Theodore Roethke Elizabeth Bishop Robert Hayden and Muriel Rukeyser With subtle discernment the editors portray our country's rich heritage and dramatic range of writing about the natural world around us

Unbeknownst Julie Hanson, 2011-03-15 Julie Hanson's award winning collection Unbeknownst gives us plainspoken poems of unstoppable candor They are astonished and sobered by the incoming data they are funny they are psychologically accurate and beautifully made Hanson's is a mind interested in human responsibility to ourselves and to each other and unhappy about the disappointments that are bound to transpire We've been like gods our powers wasted These poems are lonely with spiritual longing and wise with remorse for all that cannot last The Kindergarten begins All their lives they've waited for the yellow bus to come for them then moves directly to the present reality Now it's February and the mat is wet Settings and events are local and familiar never more exotic than a yoga session at the Y one of several instances where the body is central to the report and to the net result I slip in and fold behind the wheel into the driver's seat like a thin young
