Burkholder, David Cramer, 2012-04-04 Anabaptists have often felt suspicious of American evangelicalism and in turn evangelicals have found various reasons to dismiss the Anabaptist witness Yet at various points in the past as well as the present evangelicals and Anabaptists have found ample reason for conversation and much to appreciate about each other The Activist Impulse represents the first book length examination of the complex relationship between evangelicalism and Anabaptism in the past thirty years It brings established experts and new voices together in an effort to explore the historical and theological intersection of these two rich traditions Each of the essays provides fresh insight on at least one characteristic that both evangelicals and Anabaptists share an impulse to engage society through the pursuit of active Christian witness Eastern Mennonite University Donald B. Kraybill, 2017-09-14 In this unique educational history Donald B Kraybill traces the sociocultural transformation of Eastern Mennonite University from a fledgling separatist school founded by white rural Germanic Mennonites into a world engaged institution populated by many faith traditions cultures and nationalities The founding of Eastern Mennonite School later Eastern Mennonite University in 1917 came at a pivotal time for the Mennonite community Industrialization and scientific discovery were rapidly changing the world and the increasing availability of secular education offered tempting alternatives that threatened the Mennonite way of life In response the Eastern Mennonites founded a school that would uphold the principles of plainness and simplicity where youth could learn the Bible and develop skills that would help advance the church In the latter half of the twentieth century the university s identity evolved from separatism to social engagement in the face of churning moral tides and accelerating technology EMU now defines its mission in terms of service peacebuilding and community Comprehensive and well told by a leading scholar of Anabaptist and Pietist studies this social history of Eastern Mennonite University reveals how the school has mediated modernity while remaining consistently Mennonite A must have for anyone affiliated with EMU it will appeal especially to sociologists and historians of Anabaptist and Pietist studies and higher education Mennocostals Martin William Mittelstadt, Brian K. Participating Witness Anthony G. Siegrist, 2013-08-21 At a time when the fractious legacy of the Protestant Reformation is coming under new scrutiny Anthony Siegrist explores the implications of ecumenism for believers baptism Writing from within the tradition of the Radical Reformation he challenges dominant ecclesiological assumptions and argues that this central practice needs to be reconstrued Siegrist works constructively to develop a concrete account of believers baptism that attends closely to the dynamics of divine initiation Siegrist deliberately stretches the traditional Anabaptist conversation to include not just expected voices like Yoder and Marpeck but also luminaries from the broader Christian tradition Barth Bonhoeffer and a variety of ancient sources are creatively engaged The intent of Participating Witness is eminently practical but its argumentation is carried out with theological rigor

Hutterite Songs Helen Martens, 2002 This innovative study explores the remarkable four hundred year old tradition of

Hutterite songs The author traces the origins of Hutterites sacred songs from the time the earliest Anabaptists began writing them These songs have been aurally orally transmitted and sung in unison since that time The primary song book of the Hutterites Die Lieder der Hutterischen Br der contains words to songs primarily by Hutterites which were written to a variety of melodies The melodies range from medieval liturgical chant court songs sacred and secular folk songs to the hymns emanating from the various churches after the Reformation Many of these melodies are being sung today only by the Hutterites This study begun in the 1960s captures a tradition which is now being threatened by the fact that many Hutterites are beginning to sing four part music of the classical tradition and to play musical instruments as well as furthering their education outside of the colonies
