New Directions Anthology Of Classical Chinese Poetry:

The New Directions Anthology of Classical Chinese Poetry Eliot Weinberger, 2003 Provides translations of more than two hundred fifty poems by over forty poets from early anonymous poetry through the Tang and Song dynasties Classical Chinese Poetry David Hinton, 2014-06-10 A magisterial book of nearly five hundred poems from some of history's greatest Chinese poets translated and edited by a renowned poet and scholar New Republic The Chinese poetic tradition is the largest and longest continuous tradition in world literature This rich and far reaching anthology of nearly five hundred poems provides a comprehensive account of its first three millennia 1500 BCE to 1200 CE the period during which virtually all its landmark developments took place Unlike earlier anthologies of Chinese poetry Hinton's book focuses on a relatively small number of poets providing selections that are large enough to recreate each as a fully realized and unique voice New introductions to each poet's work provide a readable history told for the first time as a series of poetic innovations forged by a series of master poets David Hinton has lured into English a new manner of hearing the great poets of that long glory of China's classical age His achievement is another echo of the original and a gift to our language W S Merwin A World History of Chinese Literature Yingjin Zhang, 2023-07-25 Providing a broad introduction to the area A World History of Chinese Literature maps the field of Chinese literature across its various worlds looking both within at the world of Chinese literature its history linguistic cultural local and regional specificities and without at the way Chinese literature has circulated throughout the world The thematic focus allows for a broad number of key categories such as authors genres genders regions as well as innovative explorations of new topics and issues such as inter arts performativity and transmediation The sections cover the circulation and reception of China in world literature as well as the worlds of Chinese literature across the globe Borders oceans and rainforests Comparative literary genres Translingual writers and scholars Gender configurations Translation and transmediation With a focus on the twentieth and twenty first century this collection intervenes in current debates on global Chinese literature Sinophone and Sinoscript studies and the production and reception of literary works by ethnic Chinese in non Sinitic languages as well as Anglophone literature inspired by Chinese literary tradition It will be of interest to anyone working on or studying Chinese literature language and culture as well as world literatures in relation to China Reading the Past Across Space and Time Brenda Deen Schildgen, Ralph Hexter, 2017-03-02 Featuring leading scholars in their fields this book examines receptions of ancient and early modern literary works from around the world China Japan Ancient Maya Ancient Mediterranean Ancient India Ancient Mesopotamia that have circulated globally across time and space from East to West North to South South to West Beginning with the premise of an enduring and revered cultural past the essays go on to show how the circulation of literature through translation and other forms of reception in fact long predates modern global society the idea of national literary canons have existed just over a hundred years and emerged with the idea of national educational curricula Highlighting the relationship of culture and politics in which canons are created translated promulgated and preserved this book argues that such nationally defined curricula were challenged by critics and writers in the wake of the Second World War

A Cultural History Of Classical Chinese Gardens Yi Wang, 2015-03-01 Gardens are a type of landscape art created by the hands of human beings Chinese gardens are not only one of China's traditional cultural treasures but they are also a unique charm of human cultural heritage Literati gardens occupy an essential position among Chinese gardens one of the three major genres of gardens in the world The reason why literati gardens occupy an important position in classical Chinese gardens and even in the entire system of traditional Chinese culture and art lies in their exquisite architecture exotic flowers and whimsical stones available for the exploration and appreciation of the literati More significantly gardens have provided a venue of daily life academic writings artistic creation social gatherings and other cultural activities for ancient Chinese scholars Consequently a wealth of traditional Chinese cultural factors is embedded in the intricate art of landscape architecture The constant integration and interaction of traditional Chinese culture and gardens have in turn nurtured a unique Chinese garden culture Chinese gardens are a critical embodiment of Chinese culture distinctly exemplifying the ancient Chinese patriarchal system the cosmology the personality ideal and other cultural elements The evolution of the cultural history of Chinese gardens is in harmony with the overall process of the Chinese cultural history This book describes the major genres the characteristics and the formation of classical Chinese gardens as well as the relationship between classical Chinese gardens and classical Chinese culture and arts in a more succinct plain language The publisher believes that this book will certainly provide the reader with an authentic and comprehensive overview of the Chinese garden culture Published by SCPG Publishing Corporation and distributed by World Scientific for all markets except China

Reading Poetry Tom Furniss, Michael Bath, 2022-04-06 Reading Poetry offers a comprehensive and accessible guide to the art of reading poetry Discussing more than 200 poems by more than 100 writers ranging from ancient Greece and China to the twenty first century the book introduces readers to the skills and the critical and theoretical awareness that enable them to read poetry with enjoyment and insight This third edition has been significantly updated in response to current developments in poetry and poetic criticism and includes many new examples and exercises new chapters on world poetry and eco poetry and a greater emphasis throughout on American poetry including the impact traditional Chinese poetry has had on modern American poetry The seventeen carefully staged chapters constitute a complete apprenticeship in reading poetry leading readers from specific features of form and figurative language to larger concerns with genre intertextuality Caribbean poetry world poetry and the role poetry can play in response to the ecological crisis The workshop exercises at the end of each chapter together with an extensive glossary of poetic and critical terms and the number and range of poems analysed and discussed 122 of which are quoted in full make Reading Poetry suitable for individual study or as a comprehensive self contained textbook for university and college classes

The Chinese Written Character as a Medium for Poetry Ernest Fenollosa, Ezra

Pound, Jonathan Stalling, Lucas Klein, 2009-08-25 First published in 1919 by Ezra Pound Ernest Fenollosa's essay on the Chinese written language has become one of the most often quoted statements in the history of American poetics As edited by Pound it presents a powerful conception of language that continues to shape our poetic and stylistic preferences the idea that poems consist primarily of images the idea that the sentence form with active verb mirrors relations of natural force But previous editions of the essay represent Pound's understanding it is fair to say his appropriation of the text Fenollosa's manuscripts in the Beinecke Library of Yale University allow us to see this essay in a different light as a document of early sustained cultural interchange between North America and East Asia Pound's editing of the essay obscured two important features here restored to view Fenollosa's encounter with Tendai Buddhism and Buddhist ontology and his concern with the dimension of sound in Chinese poetry This book is the definitive critical edition of Fenollosa's important work After a substantial Introduction the text as edited by Pound is presented together with his notes and plates At the heart of the edition is the first full publication of the essay as Fenollosa wrote it accompanied by the many diagrams characters and notes Fenollosa and Pound scrawled on the verso pages Pound's deletions insertions and alterations to Fenollosa's sometimes ornate prose are meticulously captured enabling readers to follow the quasi dialogue between Fenollosa and his posthumous editor Earlier drafts and related talks reveal the development of Fenollosa's ideas about culture poetry and translation Copious multilingual annotation is an important feature of the edition This masterfully edited book will be an essential resource for scholars and poets and a starting point for a renewed discussion of the multiple sources of American modernist poetry

Reading Medieval Chinese Poetry, 2014-11-20 Nine renowned sinologists present a range of studies that display the riches of medieval Chinese verse in varied guises All major verse forms including shi fu and ci are examined with a special focus on poetry's negotiation with tradition and historical context Dozens of previously untranslated works are here rendered in English for the first time and readers will enter a literary culture that was deeply infused with imperatives of wit learning and empathy Among the diverse topics met with in this volume are metaphysical poetry as a medium of social exchange the place of ruins in Chinese poetry the reality and imaginary of frontier borderlands the enigma of misattribution and how a 19th century Frenchwoman discovered Tang poetry for the Western world Contributors include Timothy Wai Keung Chan Robert Joe Cutter Ronald Egan David R Knechtges Paul W Kroll Stephen Owen Wendy Swartz Ding Xiang Warner and Pauline Yu

Brian Castro's Fiction, A History of Aging in Qing China Clara Wing-chung Ho, 2025-05-24 This book examines the history of aging and old age during the Qing dynasty a pivotal period marked by rapid population growth that resulted in the largest elderly population in imperial China Drawing on previously overlooked first person accounts from the extensive collections authored by Qing men and women it offers an overview of the self curated collective aging journeys of several hundreds of elders By centering the voices of individuals reflecting on their aging experiences this book delves into the personal narratives from both genders rediscovering their aging journeys revealing their subjectively constructed emotional landscapes and giving a voice to the elderly individuals of the past The chapters closely analyze how the elderly in Qing China articulated their aging process channeling their joys challenges and frustrations in later life History is not the monopoly of a single gender class race or age group without representations of the elderly history remains incomplete This book seeks to restore the elderly to the historical narrative and invites further discussion on Chinese historical gerontology as an emerging subfield In addition to appealing to general readers interested in contemporary demographic issues from a historical perspective this book will engage students and researchers of history historical gerontology aging studies gender studies cultural studies sociology psychology and Asian studies      Scotland and China

,2025-02-20 This volume written by young and established scholars surveys the role of China in Scottish literature and the translation and reception of Scottish literature in China Part 1 considers how the image of China has been constructed by Scottish writers Topics include the translation of classical and contemporary Chinese literature into both Scots and English and orientalist tropes in Scottish fiction Part 2 discusses how Chinese translators over a turbulent century have rendered into Chinese the work of writers from Robert Burns to David Greig It also shows how commercial success in today s China can shape a writer s career      Chinese Songs in a French Key Pauline Yu,2025-08-19 In early 1867 a book of poems stunned the French literary world Titled The Book of Jade it featured Chinese calligraphy and named ancient Chinese poets as sources leaving readers uncertain whether the collection was a translation or a French author s invention Though the book was published under a pseudonym the author was quickly recognized as Judith Gautier the young daughter of a prominent writer Resembling neither contemporary French verse nor any conventional translation of the day The Book of Jade opened the eyes of readers throughout Europe to classical Chinese poetry Chinese Songs in a French Key tells the extraordinary story of the birth rebirth and rich afterlife of The Book of Jade Pauline Yu traces the research and creative process behind the book including Gautier s collaboration with a Chinese refugee known as Tin Tun Ling She shows through juxtapositions with original Chinese texts how Gautier s imaginative strategies conveyed core elements of Chinese poetry to a European audience Yu explores how the work s influence reverberated across French letters Anglo American modernist poetry and the international history of translation The story also unfolds within Gautier s network of luminaries such as Victor Hugo Richard Wagner and John Singer Sargent and against the backdrop of France s discovery of China through scholarship and plunder Drawing attention to Gautier s audacity and accomplishments this deeply researched and elegantly written book provides new perspectives on the surprising routes cultural transmission can take      Cold Mountain Poems Anjiang Hu,2023-07-28
