New Greenland:

Phasing Out the Colonial Status of Greenland, 1945-54 Jens Elo Rytter, 2010 With the Constitution of 1953 the colonial status of Greenland came to an end and Greenlanders were granted equal rights as citizens within the Danish realm In 1954 this new arrangement was supported by the UN General Assembly The decision to change Greenland's status was conditioned both by internal and external circumstances In the UN context Danes increasingly felt the strain of being a colonial power and they feared the possibility of future UN interference in Greenlandic affairs Greenland's Stolen

Indigenous Children Helene Thiesen, 2022-11-10 In this book author Helene Thiesen recounts her experience of being removed from her family in Greenland as a young Inuk child to be re educated in Denmark and an orphanage in Greenland The practice of forcible assimilation of Indigenous children into colonial societies through education has echoes in North America and Australasia and the painful legacy of these practices remains under acknowledged In this poignant book Helene recounts in detail the process of being taken from her family in 1951 aged seven along with twenty one other children in the attempt to re make them into model Danish citizens in a social experiment led by the Danish government and Save the Children Denmark When the children returned to Greenland a year and a half later they were sent to live in a Danish Red Cross orphanage where they were forbidden to speak their native languages and were compelled to adopt Danish language culture and customs With a detailed introductory analysis from Dr Stephen James Minton who also provides the translation Helene's account serves as a compelling and powerful testimony of a devastating colonial experiment Richly illustrated with forty photos to help to situate the reader this book provides an invaluable case study for researchers and students in the fields of Indigenous Studies Critical Pedagogy and Education Psychology European History and Cultural Studies

Meddelelser Om Grønland, 1915 Colonialism in Greenland Søren Rud, 2017-08-08 This book explores how the Danish authorities governed the colonized population in Greenland in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Two competing narratives of colonialism dominate in Greenland as well as Denmark One narrative portrays the Danish colonial project as ruthless and brutal extraction of a vulnerable indigenous people the other narrative emphasizes almost exclusively the benevolent aspects of Danish rule in Greenland Rather than siding with one of these narratives this book investigates actual practices of colonial governance in Greenland with an outlook to the extensive international scholarship on colonialism and post colonialism The chapters address the intimate connections between the establishment of an ethnographic discourse and the colonial techniques of governance in Greenland Thereby the book provides important nuances to the understanding of the historical relationship between Denmark and Greenland and links this historical trajectory to the present negotiations of Greenlandic identity Denmark-Greenland in the Twentieth Century Axel Kjær Sørensen, 2007-11-05 This book traces Danish Greenlandic relations in the period 1900-2000 The main trend is the development from a colonial situation in 1900 with a state owned company running nearly all business to an open economy with steadily growing self government for

Greenland short of full independence The Danish policy can be described as benevolent but financially the budget was tight until after the second World War the philosophy being that Denmark should neither lose nor gain After the war there was heavy investment to bring Greenland nearer to standards of living comparable to Denmark and substantial subsidies were given make that happen The Greenlanders attitude towards Denmark developed along lines familiar from other examples of decolonisation The first phase of accepting the coloniser was long over now seeking equality with the coloniser was the main aim in their endeavours From 1911 two provincial councils voiced speaking the Greenlanders views and their political influence steadily grew In 1953 Greenland got representation in the Danish parliament The third phase of doing without the coloniser began in the early 1970s when Greenlanders sought home rule status obtained in 1979 In the following twenty years the Home Rule Authority gradually took over nearly all lawmaking and administration and from 2004 a committee has explored ways of giving Greenland a more independent voice in foreign affairs In 2003 the ultimate goal was declared to be full independence
