response to two paradoxical socio political phenomena whose convergence is shaping the experience and conceptualization of ethnic Chinese in Indonesia On the one hand the economic technological and cultural forces of colonialism and globalization have created conditions for the formation of ethnic Chinese capitalists while on the other the state generated identity and identification constituted the discourses of othering the ethnic Chinese as foreign minority Broken Links, Enduring Ties Linda Seligmann, 2013-10-02 Family making in America is in a state of flux the ways people compose their families is changing including those who choose to adopt Broken Links Enduring Ties is a groundbreaking comparative investigation of transnational and interracial adoptions in America Linda Seligmann uncovers the impact of these adoptions over the last twenty years on the ideologies and cultural assumptions that Americans hold about families and how they are constituted Seligmann explores whether or not new kinds of families and communities are emerging as a result of these adoptions providing a compelling narrative on how adoptive families thrive and struggle to create lasting ties Seligmann observed and interviewed numerous adoptive parents and children non adoptive families religious figures teachers and administrators and adoption brokers The book uncovers that adoption once wholly stigmatized is now often embraced either as a romanticized mission of rescue or conversely as simply one among multiple ways to make a family
