The Jewish Advocate for the Young ,1845 The Marriage of Happiness (The Revelation of Woman) - a Study in Nature. ,1930-01-01 Carl Battenstedt embodies prototypically the sense of a new beginning as well as the anxieties of early modernity He is interested in technical innovations and human progress albeit in a way which would not make him a follower of a spiritual green movement today His concept of the Marriage of Happiness which is based on the assumption of a mystical union brought about by the exchange of fluids distinguishes between the pleasure dimension of sexuality and that of reproduction and places pleasure in the service of marital bonding The phenomena he describes form the basis of present day adult nursing relationships The book suddenly became famous throughout Germany around 1900 because the secret consisted of the recommendation that the husband should drink milk from his wife s breast at least four times a day in order to bring them both happiness and a long life if not immortality The man s breastfeeding was supposed to stop the woman s period in order to limit the number of births a natural contraceptive method The Edinburgh Christian magazine ,1850
