Face of the Spirits Etnografisch Museum (Antwerp, Belgium),1993 Face of the Spirits Etnografisch Museum (Antwerp, Belgium),1993 African Masks from the Barbier-Mueller Collection, Geneva Iris Hahner-Herzog,Maria Kecskési,László Vajda,2002 African Masks surveys 248 of the finest examples of masks from the Barbier Mueller Collection of which 100 are reproduced in stunning color illustrations Leading scholars on African art describe the masks historical and religious functions and their symbolic significance Historical Dictionary of the Democratic Republic of the Congo Emizet Francois Kisangani,2016-11-18 This book looks at 55 years of independence over eight decades of colonial rule and earlier kingdoms and groups that shared the Congolese territory This fourth edition highlights new developments and the increasing importance of the DRC in the Great Lakes Region and Africa in particular as well as its important role in the international environment This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of the Democratic Republic of the Congo contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Democratic Republic of the Congo African Art Alexandre Marc,1998-01-01 African artistic expression has helped to construct culture form social identity and support spiritual communication The choice of the World Bank s African collection for a catalogue stems from the recognition by many art experts that the Bank is home to a rich and valuable collection that deserves to be better known by staff representatives from member countries and the public at large The book displays African art from past to present African art at the World Bank and African art and society Speaking of Objects Constantine Petridis,2020-11-10 A lavishly illustrated selection of highlights from the Art Institute of Chicago s extraordinary collection of the arts of Africa Featuring a selection of more than 75 works of traditional African art in the Art Institute of Chicago s collection this stunning volume includes objects in a wide variety of media from regions across the continent Essays and catalogue entries by leading art historians and anthropologists attend closely to the meanings and materials of the works themselves in addition to fleshing out original contexts These experts also underscore the ways in which provenance and collection history are important to understanding how we view such objects today Celebrating the Art Institute s collection of traditional African art as one of the oldest and most diverse in the United States this is a fresh and engaging look at current research into the arts of Africa as well as the potential of future scholarship Masks John W. Nunley,Cara McCarty,John Emigh,Lesley K. Ferris,1999-10 John Emigh and Lesley K Ferris explore the role of masks in theater whose roots lie in ritual performance Cara McCarty looks at the ways in which masks are featured in the medium of film as well But these artistic examples are not the only masks found in industrial societies McCarty also discusses the proliferation of masks for physical protection in areas such as military combat sports competitions and space exploration BOOK JACKET Playful Performers David Binkley,2017-07-28 African children

develop aesthetic sensibilities at an early age roughly from four to fourteen years By the time they become full fledged adolescents they may have had up to ten years experience with various art forms masking music costuming dancing and performance Aesthetic learning is vital to their maturation The contributors to this volume argue that the idea that learning the aesthetics of a culture only occurs after maturity is false as is the idea that children wearing masks is only play and is not to be taken seriously Playful Performers is a study of children s masquerades in Africa The contributors describe specific cases of young children s masking in the areas of west central and southern Africa which also happen to be the major areas of adult masquerading The volume reveals the considerable creativity and ingenuity that children exhibit in preparing costumes masks and musical instruments and in playing music dancing singing and acting The book includes over 50 pages of black and white photographs which illustrate and elaborate upon the authors main points The editors describe general categories of children s masquerades In each of the three masking categories children s relationships to their parents and other adults differ from a close relationship to some independence to almost complete independence No other major work has covered this aspect of African children at this age level The book offers a challenging perspective on young children seeing them as active agents in their own culture rather than passive recipients of culture as taught by parents and other elders It will be interesting reading for anthropologists art historians educators and African studies specialists alike

The Leopard, the Lion, and the Cock Matthew Stanard, 2019-04-15 Thought provoking reflection on culture colonialism and the remainders of empire in Belgium after 1960 The degree to which the late colonial era affected Europe has been long underappreciated and only recently have European countries started to acknowledge not having come to terms with decolonisation In Belgium the past two decades have witnessed a growing awareness of the controversial episodes in the country s colonial past This volume examines the long term effects and legacies of the colonial era on Belgium after 1960 the year the Congo gained its independence and calls into question memories of the colonial past by focusing on the meaning and place of colonial monuments in public space The book foregrounds the enduring presence of empire in everyday Belgian life in the form of permanent colonial markers in bronze and stone lieux de m moire of the country s history of overseas expansion By means of photographs and explanations of major pro colonial memorials as well as several obscure ones the book reveals the surprising degree to which Belgium became infused with a colonialist spirit during the colonial era Another key component of the analysis is an account of the varied ways in which both Dutch and French speaking Belgians approached the colonial past after 1960 treating memorials variously as objects of veneration with indifference or as symbols to be attacked or torn down The book provides a thought provoking reflection on culture colonialism and the remainders of empire in Belgium after 1960
