Watermarks Leslie A. Geddes, 2020-08-25 An exploration of depictions and use of water within Renaissance Italy and especially in the work of polymath Leonardo da Vinci Both a practical necessity and a powerful symbol water presents one of the most challenging problems in visual art due to its formlessness clarity and mutability In Renaissance Italy it was a nearly inexhaustible subject of inquiry for artists engineers and architects alike it represented an element to be productively harnessed and a force of untamed nature Watermarks places the depiction and use of water within an intellectual history of early modern Italy examining the parallel technological and aesthetic challenges of mastering water and the scientific and artistic practices that emerged in response to them Focusing primarily on the wide ranging work of Leonardo da Vinci 1452 1519 at once an artist scientist and inventor Leslie Geddes shows how the deployment of artistic media such as ink and watercolor closely correlated with the engineering challenges of controlling water in the natural world For da Vinci and his peers she argues drawing was an essential form of visual thinking Geddes analyses a wide range of da Vinci s subject matter including machine drawings water management schemes and depictions of the natural landscape and demonstrates how drawing as an intellectual practice a form of scientific investigation and a visual representation constituted a distinct mode of problem solving integral to his understanding of the natural environment Throughout Geddes draws important connections between works by da Vinci that have long been overlooked the artistic and engineering practices of his day and critical questions about the nature of seeing and depicting the almost unseeable during the early modern period The Drawings of Filippino Lippi and His Circle George R. Goldner, Filippino Lippi, Carmen Bambach, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1997 Energetic incisive spontaneous and expressive the drawings of Filippino Lippi 1457 58 1504 are among the most original and creative of the Italian Renaissance Leonardo and the Last Supper Ross King, 2012-08-30 For more than five centuries The Last Supper has been an artistic religious and cultural icon The art historian Kenneth Clark called it the keystone of European art and for a century after its creation it was regarded as nothing less than a miraculous image And yet there is a very human story behind this artistic miracle Ross King's Leonardo and the Last Supper is both a biography of one of the most famous works of art ever painted and a record of Leonardo da Vinci's last five years in Milan

Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re-examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens Flemish 1577-1640 in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547-1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600-08 this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter-long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens's early practice of drawing Focusing on Rubens's Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children Los Angeles Getty Museum and Kneeling Man Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen these close-looking case studies demonstrate Rubens's commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens's intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age
