Beginning her endurance riding career at the age of seven, Blakeley writes about the years of training and teamwork required to win the most challenging and famous 100-mile horse race in the world aboard a horse she had originally acquired for free off of Craigslist. Blakeley places readers on the ride with her so that they can experience the thrill of the most exciting horse endurance race in existence. Blakeley and Goober survive narrow mountain trails winding through the Sierra Nevadas containing over 19,000 feet of elevation gain, three steep, grueling canyons, crossing the shoulder-high American River riding at night with only the light of the moon to guide them, temperatures that soared over 115 degrees, and most excitingly, the final neck-and-neck sprint to the finish against a four-time Tevis Cup champion and world-class competitor. After 100 miles of some of the most rugged mountain trails in the world, when Blakeley and Goober cross the finish line just a few feet ahead of their competition, and Blakeley becomes the youngest woman in history to win the Tevis Cup, a lifetime of hard work that began when the author started training as a small child and who had long dreamed of winning the Tevis Cup was finally rewarded.
