On Max Horkheimer:

On Max Horkheimer Seyla Benhabib, Wolfgang Bonss, John McCole, 1993 This collection of essays by German and American scholars will help familiarize English speaking readers with the most important results of this recent work and in conjunction with a companion volume of Horkheimer's essays Between Philosophy and Social Science should provide a much fuller and deeper picture of his role in the history of modern social theory Max Horkheimer 1895-1973 one of the founders of critical theory and a sometime colleague of Herbert Marcuse Theodor Adorno and Walter Benjamin has become a subject of renewed attention and appreciation in Germany in the last decade This collection of essays by German and American scholars will help familiarize English speaking readers with the most important results of this recent work and in conjunction with a companion volume of Horkheimer's essays Between Philosophy and Social Science should provide a much fuller and deeper picture of his role in the history of modern social theory Critical Theory Max Horkheimer, 1972-01-01 These essays written in the 1930s and 1940s represent a first selection in English from the major work of the founder of the famous Institute for Social Research in Frankfurt Horkheimer's writings are essential to an understanding of the intellectual background of the New Left and the too much current social philosophical thought including the work of Herbert Marcuse Apart from their historical significance and even from their scholarly eminence these essays contain an immediate relevance only now becoming fully recognized Max Horkheimer Joan Nordquist, 1990 A bibliography of books and articles by and about Max Horkheimer Eclipse of Reason Max Horkheimer, 2020-06-03 In his most important work Eclipse of Reason Max Horkheimer surveys and demonstrates the gradual ascendancy of Reason in Western philosophy its eventual total application to all spheres of life and what he considers its present reified domination Max Horkheimer and the Foundations of the Frankfurt School John Abromeit, 2011-10-10 This book is the first comprehensive intellectual biography of Max Horkheimer during the early and middle phases of his life 1895-1941 Drawing on unexamined new sources John Abromeit describes the critical details of Horkheimer's intellectual development This study recovers and reconstructs the model of early Critical Theory that guided the work of the Institute for Social Research in the 1930s Horkheimer is remembered primarily as the co-author of Dialectic of Enlightenment which he wrote with Theodor W Adorno in the early 1940s But few people realize that Horkheimer and Adorno did not begin working together seriously until the late 1930s or that the model of Critical Theory developed by Horkheimer and Erich Fromm in the late 1920s and early 1930s differs in crucial ways from Dialectic of Enlightenment Abromeit highlights the ways in which Horkheimer's early Critical Theory remains relevant to contemporary theoretical discussions in a wide variety of fields The Frankfurt School, 2011 Originally published New York Wiley c1977 A Life in Letters Max Horkheimer, 2007-01-01 These letters show how Horkheimer's thought was influenced by and engaged with the historical events of the twentieth century particularly the Holocaust and the Vietnam War The letters trace the trajectory of his thought from an early optimism about the possibility of revolutionary change to a critique of orthodox Marxism as his faith in revolution was replaced by a commitment to the transformative power of education Dialectic of Enlightenment Max Horkheimer,Theodor W. Adorno,Gunzelin Noeri,2002 This celebrated work is the keystone of the thought of the Frankfurt School It is a wide ranging philosophical and psychological critique of the Western categories of reason and nature from Homer to Nietzsche Towards a New Manifesto Theodor Adorno,Max Horkheimer,2019-03-12 Theodor Adorno and Max Horkheimer wrote the central text of critical theory Dialectic of Enlightenment a measured critique of the Enlightenment reason that they argued had resulted in fascism and totalitarianism Towards a New Manifesto shows the two philosophers in a uniquely spirited and free flowing exchange of ideas This book is a record of their discussions over three weeks in the spring of 1956 recorded with a view to the production of a contemporary version of The Communist Manifesto A philosophical jam session in which the two thinkers improvise freely often wildly on central themes of their work theory and practice labor and leisure domination and freedom in a political register found nowhere else in their writing Amid a careening flux of arguments aphorisms and asides in which the trenchant alternates with the reckless the playful with the ingenuous positions are swapped and contradictions unheeded without any compulsion for consistency A thrilling example of philosophy in action and a compelling map of a possible passage to a new world

Dialectic of Enlightenment Max Horkheimer,Theodor W Adorno,2002-03-27 This new translation of the Frankfurt School s seminal text includes textual variants and discussion of the work s influence on Critical Theory Dialectic of Enlightenment is undoubtedly the most influential publication of the Frankfurt School of Critical Theory Written during the Second World War and circulated privately it appeared in a printed edition in Amsterdam in 1947 What we had set out to do the authors write in the Preface was nothing less than to explain why humanity instead of entering a truly human state is sinking into a new kind of barbarism Yet the work goes far beyond a mere critique of contemporary events Theodor Adorno and Max Horkheimer trace a wide arch that connects the birth of Western history and of subjectivity itself to the most threatening experiences of the present The various analyses concern such phenomena as the detachment of science from practical life formalized morality the manipulative nature of entertainment culture and a paranoid behavioral structure expressed in aggressive anti-Semitism that marks the limits of enlightenment Adorno and Horkheimer see the self destruction of Western reason as grounded in a historical and fateful dialectic between the domination of external nature and society They show why the National Socialist terror was not an aberration of modern history but was rooted deeply in the fundamental characteristics of Western civilization

On the Relevance of Max Horkheimer Gerhard Schweppenhäuser,2025-03-26 The book provides a comprehensive and knowledgeable introduction to the work of Max Horkheimer and contributes to the updating of his theoretical approaches The Frankfurt School Zoltan Tarr,2017-07-12 The Frankfurt School refers to a school of neo Marxist interdisciplinary social theory particular established at the Institute for Social Research at the University of Frankfurt Germany in 1923 Tarr s investigation focuses on three key issues The first is the Frankfurt School s original program of providing a general theory of modern capitalist society The second is the claim to represent a continuation of the original Marxian theory through the school's Critical Theory The third is the scientific validity of Critical Theory in light of the generally accepted canons of the natural and social sciences Tarr proposes that in the last analysis Critical Theory is simply another existentialist philosophy As such it is a specific expression of certain socio-historical conditions and of the situation of a particular social group the marginal Jewish bourgeois intelligentsia of Central Europe This European Jewish contribution became apparent after the great metaphysical impulse of the pre-Socratic and Platonic Aristotelian philosophies had run their respective courses Both philosophies represented philosophical schools of ethics and both wanted to help man take up a defense against the storms of passions and fate It was from these ancient sources that the Frankfurt School emerged The Frankfurt School derived its impetus in the twentieth century in which Tarr claims a shift occurred from the ontological to the subjective realm This in turn led to deep changes in philosophical theory and practice which led to a more psychologically oriented mode of social thought This in-depth study covers the entire career of the Frankfurt School's Critical Theory from 1923 to 1974 It does so by applying the same standards of criticism to its primary doctrines as it turned on other theories but with a keen sense of balance and fairness Between Philosophy and Social Science Max Horkheimer, 1993 These essays reveal another side of Horkheimer focusing on his remarkable contributions to critical theory in the 1930s Max Horkheimer and the Foundations of the Frankfurt School Assistant Professor of History John Abromeit, 2014-05-14 This book provides an intellectual biography of Max Horkheimer during the early and middle phases of his life and analyzes his model of early Critical Theory The Frankfurt School Zoltan Tar, 2011

Frankfurt School J. M. Bernstein, 1994 The Frankfurt School refers to the members associated with the Institut für Sozialforschung Institute for Social Research which was founded in Frankfurt in 1923 The work of this group is generally agreed to have been a landmark in twentieth-century social science It is of seminal importance in our understanding of culture progress politics production consumption and method This set of six volumes provides a full picture of the School by examining the important developments that have occurred since the deaths of the original core of Frankfurt scholars All the major figures Adorno Horkheimer Marcuse Benjamin are represented In particular the important post-war work of Jürgen Habermas is fully assessed The collection also covers the work of many of the minor figures associated with the School who have been unfairly neglected in the past resulting in the most complete survey and guide to the oeuvre of the Frankfurt School The Frankfurt School Zoltán Tar, 1985 Critique of Instrumental Reason Max Horkheimer, 2014-09-24 These essays written between 1949 and 1967 focus on a single theme the triumph in the twentieth century of the state bureaucratic apparatus and instrumental reason and the concomitant liquidation of the individual and the basic social institutions and relationships associated with the individual For Nonconformism: Max Horkheimer and Friedrich Pollock Nicola Emery, 2022-11-14 Subject of numerous interpretations and studies the vicissitudes of the famous Frankfurt Institute for
