Philippine Coastal Marine Habitats at Risk ,1997      Routledge Handbook of the Environment in Southeast Asia Philip Hirsch,2016-09-13 The environment is one of the defining issues of our times and it is closely linked to questions and dilemmas surrounding economic development Southeast Asia is one of the world s most economically and demographically dynamic regions and it is also one in which a host of environmental issues raise themselves The Routledge Handbook of the Environment in Southeast Asia is a collection of 30 chapters dealing with the most significant scholarly debates in this rapidly growing field of study Structured in four main parts it gives a comprehensive regional overview of and insight into the environment in Southeast Asia Wide ranging and balanced this handbook promotes scholarly understanding of how environmental issues are dealt with from diverse theoretical perspectives It offers a detailed empirical understanding of the myriad environmental problems and challenges faced in Southeast Asia This is the first publication of its kind in this field a helpful companion for a global audience and for scholars of Southeast Asian studies from a variety of disciplines      Official Gazette Philippines,2007      Atlas of Philippine Coral Reefs ,2002      Journal of Shellfish Research ,1998

Archipelagic Studies Charting New Waters ,1998      Climate Emergency in the Philippines Kristoffer B. Berse,Juan M. Pulhin,Antonio G. M. La Viña,2024-05-18 This book provides a snapshot of the manifestations of the climate emergency in the Philippines from a wide array of disciplines including physical sciences social sciences arts and humanities management and law Researchers and faculties at the University of the Philippines contributed to this compilation where each chapter provides policymakers and the public a clear picture of why climate change must be confronted with a sense of urgency and near desperation Divided into three main parts the first one zeroes in on climate vulnerable sectors such as water food and agriculture health and coastal communities in the Philippines to introduce readers to the current pressing impacts of the climate emergency The second part presents case studies of local experiences from the country s three island regions namely Luzon Visayas and Mindanao and it situates the readers in different environments and contexts The third part features transdisciplinary responses to the climate emergency including salient challenges in relation to planning financing communication and education The concluding chapter highlights eight areas for action to tackle the climate emergency Each chapter comes with an overview and a Summary for Policymakers which provides clear guidance for action to be taken by both local and national policymakers      The risks and vulnerability of the sardine fisheries sector in the Republic of the Philippines to climate and other non-climate processes Labaria, E.C., Fernandez de la Reguera, D., Poulain, F., Siar, S., Vasconcellos, M.,2021-11-25 This publication represents the proceedings of the national workshop Risks and Vulnerability of the Sardine Fisheries Sector to Climate and other Non Climate Processes held in Quezon City Republic of the Philippines in September 2019 Chapter 1 It also presents the baseline reports compiled for the workshop      Maritime Security in East and Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling,Xin Chen,2017-04-21 This volume investigates the nature of threats facing or perceived as facing some of the key players involved in Asian maritime politics The articles in this collection present case studies on Malaysia Singapore the Philippines Thailand Japan China and Southeast Asia as a whole and focus on domestic definitions of threats and conceptualisations of security These studies map the differing understandings of danger in this region and explore how contending narratives of threats and security affect the national maritime security policy deliberations within the countries of this region Those interested in maritime security and management in Asia will find this collection an invaluable addition to the literature on this topic     Historical Dictionary of the Philippines Artemio R. Guillermo,2012 The Historical Dictionary of the Philippines Third Edition contains a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries     The World Commission on Protected Areas, 2nd Southeast Asia Regional Forum, Pakse, Lao PDR, 6-11 December 1999: Papers presented IUCN World Commission on Protected Areas.

Southeast Asia Regional Forum,2000     Southeast Asia and the Rise of Chinese and Indian Naval Power Sam Bateman,Joshua Ho,2014-06-03 This book examines the emerging maritime security scene in Southeast Asia It considers highly topical implications for the region of possible strategic competition between China and India the rising naval powers of Asia with a possible naval arms race emerging between these countries both with naval force development and operations As part of its Look East policy India has deployed naval units to the Pacific Ocean for port visits and exercises both with East Asian navies and the US Navy but India is also concerned about the possibility of the Chinese Navy operating in the Indian Ocean Even as the US India defence relationship continues to deepen the US and China are struggling to build a closer links China s and India s strategic interests overlap in this region both in maritime strategic competition or conflict which might be played out in the Bay of Bengal the Malacca and Singapore Straits and the South China Sea The sea lines of communication SLOCs through Southeast Asian waters constitute vital choke points between the Indian and Pacific Oceans carrying essential energy supplies for China and other Northeast Asian countries Any strategic competition between China and India has implications for other major maritime players in the Pacific and Indian Oceans especially Australia the Republic of Korea and Japan as well as the US This book identifies possible cooperative and confidence building measures that may contribute to enhanced relations between these two major powers and dampen down the risks associated with their strategic competition     Assessment, management and future directions for coastal fisheries in Asian countries Silvestre, G. et al,2003-12-08 In Asia the fisheries sector is important in terms of food security livelihoods and foreign exchange earnings However as in many parts of the world there are signs that capture fisheries are fully exploited or overfished Management of fisheries in the region is often hampered by lack of information on the status of fisheries in terms of biological social economic policy and governance aspects This regional project documents an alarming decline on coastal fishery resources based on historic research surveys in South and Southeast Asia Socio economic analyses and policy reviews highlight the importance of the fisheries sector but also the challenges facing it Potential interventions to improve fisheries management in the countries are outlined and defined with environmental socioeconomic and institutional objectives      Philippine Biodiversity ,1997      More Than Books Juan C. Buenrostro (Jr.),2004      Economic valuation and policy priorities for sustainable management of coral reefs Mahfuzuddin Ahmed,Chiew Kieok Chong,Herman Cesar,Herman S. J. Cesar,2004
