Reading With Deeper Eyes The Love Of Literature And The Life Of Faith:

Reading with Deeper Eyes William H. Willimon, 1998 Jenny Sockey, 2002-06-01 The Living Church, 1999

Broken Hallelujah Darren J. N. Middleton, 2007-01-01 Marking the fiftieth anniversary of Kazantzakis's death author Darren J. N. Middleton looks back on Kazantzakis's life and literary art to suggest that contrary to popular belief Kazantzakis and his views actually comport with the ideals of Christianity The Writer and the Cross Darren J. N. Middleton, 2022-07-14 Spiritually engaged readers commonly look toward fiction to better understand the depth of a faithful life and Christians are no exception Many followers of Jesus value beautifully written deftly characterized and pulse quickening literary art that seems more satisfying than dry tedious doctrinal textbooks This book surveys 12 pieces of historical fiction that feature notable Christian thinkers They include an illustrated children's book about St Irenaeus of Lyons a novel about Martin Luther's Reformation a screenplay focusing on Dietrich Bonhoeffer and even a story about Pope Francis narrated in popular manga style Rather than arcane literary analyses this book provides thoughtful and sometimes painful interviews with the authors of the covered works Most interviewees are little known or emerging writers Some have published their work with a church or denominational press others with a major publishing empire or popular print on demand platforms Storytellers reflect on their literary choices and the contexts of their writing sharing what modern Christians can learn from historical religious fiction Sermons on the Second Readings Frederick R. Harm, Paul E Robinson, Glenn W McDonald, 2002 The sermons in this anthology reaffirm the hope that is ours through Jesus Christ and challenge readers to a deeper and more intense faith relationship with the almighty The collection provides a complete set of sermons for each Sunday and major celebration throughout the Christian year based on the Second Readings from Cycle B of the Revised Common Lectionary Outstanding preachers from across the denominational spectrum draw on texts from the New Testament epistles to explore how the practical and moral concerns of the early church offer lessons for modern Christian living Each biblically grounded message confronts real issues with Christ honoring solutions that bring challenge comfort and conviction to those who look at life with the eyes of faith This is an essential resource that's useful for Fresh homiletical approaches to the lectionary texts Preaching illustrations A clearer understanding of scripture passages Adult study and discussion groups Personal devotions and Bible study on each Sunday's readings Rarely is there such a wonderful blend of the pastoral heart and the scholarly intellect Frederick Harm's sermons draw on a wide spectrum of literature from Luther to Paul Harvey from Seneca to Yogi Berra from Epicurus to John Bunyan Harm's illustrations far from being contrived or trite naturally illumine the truths of the scriptures Permeating each sermon is the deep desire to share Christ and his love with the hearer Pastors will find ample ideas and inspiration in these sermons as they seek to build their own message for the people of God Stephen A Gewecke Counselor Circuit 5 New Jersey District Lutheran Church Missouri Synod New Covenant, 1999 Teaching the Bible Mark Roncace, Patrick Gray, 2012-11-05 While books on pedagogy in a theoretical mode have proliferated in recent years there have been few that offer practical specific ideas for teaching particular biblical texts To address this need Teaching the Bible a collection of ideas and activities written by dozens of innovative college and seminary professors outlines effective classroom strategies with a focus on active learning for the new teacher and veteran professor alike It includes everything from ways to incorporate film literature art and music to classroom writing assignments and exercises for groups and individuals The book assumes an academic approach to the Bible but represents a wide range of methodological theological and ideological perspectives This volume is an indispensable resource for anyone who teaches classes on the Bible

Deep Reading Rachel B. Griffiths, Julie Ooms, Rachel M. De Smith Roberts, 2024-05-28 This book helps readers develop practices that will result in deep formative and faithful reading so they can contribute to the flourishing of their communities and cultivate their own spiritual and intellectual depth The authors present reading as a remedy for three prevalent cultural vices distraction hostility and consumerism that impact the possibility of formative reading Informed by James K A Smith's work on the spiritual power of habit Deep Reading provides resources for engaging in formative and culturally subversive reading practices that teach readers how to resist vices love virtue and desire the good Rather than emphasizing the spiritual benefits of reading specific texts such as Dante's Divine Comedy or Adventures of Huckleberry Finn the authors focus on the practice of reading itself They examine practices many teachers students and avid readers employ such as reading lists reading logs and discussion and demonstrate how such practices can be more effectively and intentionally harnessed to result in deep reading The practices apply to any work that is meant to be read deeply

Spiritual Reading Harvey Angela Lou, 2016-11-24 Spiritual Reading explores how God the Bible and the practices of reading are all connected Angela Lou Harvey investigates how the spiritual reading of the Bible takes place in our modern literate Western culture In this context a spiritual reading of the Bible is one that aims to know and love God through individual Bible reading Spiritual Reading discusses what it means to read the Bible well and looks at the role of the church as giving us guidance for reading it in this way Harvey considers these ideas vis a vis historically orientated biblical scholarship as well as reading the Bible as a classic work of Western literature With reference to the use of literature through a Christian framework in the works of C S Lewis and Alan Jacobs Harvey analyses the significance the Bible has had in shaping other literary works Drawing upon insights of theologians such as Karl Barth Henri de Lubac and Ellen F Davis Spiritual Reading suggests that a renewed understanding of faith is needed for the spiritual reading of Scripture Spiritual Reading is for the reader who wishes to gain a deeper understanding on how Scripture can better connect an individual to God
