A History of Islam in America Kambiz GhaneaBassiri, 2010-04-19 Muslims began arriving in the New World long before the rise of the Atlantic slave trade Kambiz GhaneaBassiri's fascinating book traces the history of Muslims in the United States and their different waves of immigration and conversion across five centuries through colonial and antebellum America through world wars and civil rights struggles to the contemporary era The book tells the often deeply moving stories of individual Muslims and their lives as immigrants and citizens within the broad context of the American religious experience showing how that experience has been integral to the evolution of American Muslim institutions and practices This is a unique and intelligent portrayal of a diverse religious community and its relationship with America It will serve as a strong antidote to the current politicized dichotomy between Islam and the West which has come to dominate the study of Muslims in America and further afield

Heidegger, Ontology, and the Destiny of Islam Milad Milani, 2024-08-20 Heidegger Ontology and the Destiny of Islam Thoughts and Reflections on the Nature of Islam in the World critiques Islam as a phenomenon set into motion from its beginning It is a reflective work that addresses difficult questions about Islam through familiar historical concerns and grapples with the issues that arise in that process Notably it attests to making no substantive claims about Muslims and instead keeps to the course of analysis of the phenomenon that is Islam which is taken as an assessable entity rather than a categorical construct Understood largely in light of a history of observable realities the ontological analysis of Islam reveals the general acquaintance with it to be imperfect This suggests the reality of Islam is based on a primal truth that is only partially seen The analysis then confronts two problems firstly that Islam is not what its historical story as it were proclaims and secondly that Islam is therefore not what is traditionally made out of the surviving historical narratives It is not a question of what Islam is but more critically how Islam appears in the world The Fourth Annual Conference of Islamic Economics & Islamic Finance Ghada Gomaa A.
