Religious Life Today : Wasted Or Worsted? ,1996 Journey To Wholeness Fr Joseph Prasad Pinto,2006 Pañca Mahābhūtas Imti Samuel Longkümer,2009 Indian Theological Studies ,1995 Current Law Index ,1986
International Books in Print ,1986 Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1986 Webster's Third New International Dictionary of the English Language, Unabridged Philip Babcock Gove,1971 Webster's Third International Dictionary of the English Language, Unabridged ,1961 A Greener Faith Roger S. Gottlieb,2006-06-15 In a time of darkening environmental prospects frightening religious fundamentalism and moribund liberalism the remarkable and historically unprecedented rise of religious environmentalism is a profound source of hope In A Greener Faith Roger S. Gottlieb chronicles the promises of this critically important movement illuminating its principal ideas leading personalities and ways of connecting care for the earth with justice for human beings He also shows how religious environmentalism breaks the customary boundaries of religious issues in political life Asserting that environmental degradation is sacrilegious sinful and an offense against God catapults religions directly into questions of social policy economic and moral priorities and the overall direction of secular society Gottlieb contends that a spiritual perspective applied to the Earth provides the environmental movement with a uniquely appropriate way to voice its dream of a sustainable and just world Equally important it helps develop a world making political agenda that far exceeds interest group politics applied to forests and toxic incinerators Rather religious environmentalism offers an all inclusive vision of what human beings are and how we should treat each other and the rest of life Gottlieb deftly analyzes the growing synthesis of the movement s religious social and political aspects as well as the challenges it faces in consumerism fundamentalism and globalization Highly engaging and passionately argued this book is an indispensable resource for people of faith environmentalists scholars and anyone who is concerned about our planet s future The Greening of Faith John E. Carroll,Paul Brockelman,2016-10-04 The recent release of Pope Francis s much discussed encyclical on the environment Laudato Si On Care for Our Common Home has reinforced environmental issues as also moral and spiritual issues This anthology twenty years ahead of the encyclical but very much in line with its agenda offers essays by fifteen philosophers theologians and environmentalists who argue for a response to ecology that recognizes the tools of science but includes a more spiritual approach one with a more humanistic holistic view based on inherent reverence toward the natural world Writers whose orientations range from Buddhism to evangelical Christianity to Catholicism to Native American beliefs explore ways to achieve this paradigm shift and suggest that the environment is not only a spiritual issue but the spiritual issue of our time Pollution and the Death of Man Francis August Schaeffer,1970 This book addresses the environmental problem which presses in upon all of us As in other problem areas confronting mankind the author points out biblical Christian guidelines which if followed would bring about substantial healing and restoration The Earth in God's Economy E. M. Conradie,2015 Ecological destruction is taking place on such a scale that it prompts the need to make sense of the world in which we live and of this moment in history This study explores the ecological significance of seeing the world as the whole household of the triune God and more specifically in terms of God's acts of house holding economy including creation salvation and eschatological consummation Series Studies in Religion and the Environment Studien zur Religion und Umwelt Vol 10 Subject Religious Studies Environmental Studies Ecology

Is It Too Late? John B. Cobb, 2021 In the fifty years since its initial publication Is It Too Late has proven its prescience in ways both significant and dire As the first book length philosophical and theological analysis of the environmental crisis this work introduced a generation to the key elements of crisis while suggesting ways that religion can be a force for hope rather than an instrument of despair Covering an ambitious range of issues from deforestation to abortion from religious views of the natural world to the need for technological innovation to avoid nature's destruction John Cobb moves deftly from philosophical to theological to scientific learning and integrates these interdisciplinary insights into a compelling vision for what he calls a new Christianity Comprehensive in scope non technical in expression and concise in length Is It Too Late provides the scholar and the student alike with a readable and compelling orientation to the philosophical and theological stakes of ecology This Fortress edition includes a new preface in which Cobb reflects on the current situation the specific promises and perils we now face and how his own thinking on matters theological and ecological has evolved in the last half century

Nature and the Environment in Contemporary Religious Contexts Thomas Donlin-Smith, Muhammad Shafiq, 2018-06-11 This collection of essays discusses the human relationship with and responsibilities toward the natural environment from the perspective of religions and the social sciences The chapters examine a variety of conditions that have contributed to the contemporary environmental crisis including abuse of power economic greed industrialization deforestation and unplanned waste management They then discuss concepts from several different religious texts and traditions that promote environmental protection as a sacred moral duty for all humanity Religious concepts such as dharma duty toward Mother Earth tikkun Olam repair of the world khalifa people as deputies of God on earth amanah the universe as a trust in human hands and paticca samuppada dependent co arising are employed to argue that all the components of the biosphere are integral to the cosmos each piece with its own value and role in the harmony of the whole The book makes it clear that religions can become more green and play a helpful role in raising our ecological consciousness and supporting preservation of the environment into the future

Visions of a New Earth Harold Coward, Daniel C. Maguire, 1999-11-04 One of the most significant topics of our time is the current eco crisis of overpopulation overconsumption often called affluenza and environmental degradation In Visions of a New Earth eight world religion scholars and two creative international economists address these linked problems by bringing religious perspective into conversation with economics They conclude that religion and other cultural forces must be mobilized to force humankind toward an epochal birthing of bio reverence Traditions discussed include Christianity Judaism Islam Buddhism Hinduism and

Chinese Native American and African religions Contributors include Nawal H Ammar Harold Coward Rita M Gross Catherine Keller Paul F Knitter David C Korten David R Loy Daniel C Maguire Alberto M Neri S J Vasudha Narayanan Jacob K Olupona Ch n fang Y and Laurie Zoloth

Life Abundant Sallie McFague, 2001 In lucid prose she offers creative discussions of how a planetary theology might approach our contemporary socioeconomic context and rethink classical topics of God and the world Christ and salvation and life in the Spirit

BOOK JACKET Inherited Land Whitney A. Bauman, Richard R. Bohannon II, Kevin J. O'Brien, 2011-08-04 Religion and ecology has arrived What was once a niche interest for a few academics concerned with environmental issues and a few environmentalists interested in religion has become an established academic field with classic texts graduate programs regular meetings at academic conferences and growing interest from other academics and the mass media Theologians ethicists sociologists and other scholars are engaged in a broad dialogue about the ways religious studies can help understand and address environmental problems including the sorts of methodological terminological and substantive debates that characterize any academic discourse This book recognizes the field that has taken shape reflects on the ways it is changing and anticipates its development in the future The essays offer analyses and reflections from emerging scholars of religion and ecology each addressing her or his own specialty in light of two questions 1 What have we inherited from the work that has come before us and 2 What inquiries concerns and conversation partners should be central to the next generation of scholarship The aim of this volume is not to lay out a single and clear path forward for the field Rather the authors critically reflect on the field from within outline some of the major issues we face in the academy and offer perspectives that will nurture continued dialogue

Postmodern Ecological Spirituality Joe Holland, 2017-06 THE CURRENT FAILURE of so many religious institutions along with the spiritual emptiness pervading late modern industrial societies can't be blamed just on secularization So many sincere people thirst for spiritual meaning yet they don't find it in failing religious institutions At the same time so many sincere people are spiritually despairing over the refusal by hyper masculine global elites of Modern Industrial Civilization to turn away from profitable but anti ecological systems which are so rapidly devastating the creative communion of life across our loving Creator's beloved planet Earth In this ground breaking book eco philosopher and Catholic theologian Joe Holland links those two challenges Principal author of the widely read text Social Analysis Linking Faith and Justice and ghostwriter for two highly praised Appalachian Pastoral Letters he insightfully explores the late modern breakdowns of both civilization and spirituality He correlates the social and ecological breakdown of Modern Industrial Civilization with the deeper cultural breakdown of Modern Psychological Spirituality which is found in both Catholic and Protestant forms as well as in other religious forms At the same time he explores the seminal emergence of Postmodern Ecological Spirituality which is already planting regenerative seeds for a future Postmodern Ecological Civilization This challenging book provides essential background for 1 understanding at the deep level the interwoven late modern global devastation of ecological societal and spiritual life and 2 seeking at the deep level the holistic postmodern global regeneration of ecological social and spiritual life which Pope Francis has called integral ecology JOE HOLLAND is Emeritus Professor of Philosophy Religion at Saint Thomas University in Miami Gardens Florida as well as President of Pax Romana Catholic Movement for Intellectual Cultural Affairs USA which is based in Washington DC He holds a Ph D from the University of Chicago Ecology and Religion John Grim, Mary Evelyn Tucker, 2014-01-02 From the Psalms in the Bible to the sacred rivers in Hinduism the natural world has been integral to the world's religions John Grim and Mary Evelyn Tucker contend that today's growing environmental challenges make the relationship ever more vital This primer explores the history of religious traditions and the environment illustrating how religious teachings and practices both promoted and at times subverted sustainability Subsequent chapters examine the emergence of religious ecology as views of nature changed in religious traditions and the ecological sciences Yet the authors argue that religion and ecology are not the province of institutions or disciplines alone They describe four fundamental aspects of religious life orienting grounding nurturing and transforming Readers then see how these phenomena are experienced in a Native American religion Orthodox Christianity Confucianism and Hinduism Ultimately Grim and Tucker argue that the engagement of religious communities is necessary if humanity is to sustain itself and the planet Students of environmental ethics theology and ecology world religions and environmental studies will receive a solid grounding in the burgeoning field of religious ecology
