Remnants of Conquest Peter Hulme, 2000 Remnants of conquest offers a detailed account of the modern writers who have visited the Caribs descendants of the supposedly fierce tribe in the West Indies who fought against European invaders for three centuries

The Cambridge Companion to Travel Writing Peter Hulme, Tim Youngs, 2002-11-21 The Cambridge Companion to Travel Writing brings together specialists from anthropology history literary and cultural studies to offer a broad and vibrant introduction to travel writing in English between 1500 and the present This comprehensive introduction to the subject features specially commissioned contributions including six essays surveying the period s travel writing a further six focusing on geographical areas of particular interest Arabia the Amazon Tahiti Ireland Calcutta the Congo and California and three final chapters analysing some of the theoretical and cultural dimensions to this enigmatic and influential genre of writing Several invaluable tools are also provided including an extensive list of further reading and a detailed five hundred year chronology listing important events and publications This volume will be of interest to teachers and students alike

Transnational Jean Rhys Juliana Lopoukhine, Frédéric Regard, Kerry-Jane Wallart, 2020-12-10 This volume investigates the frameworks that can be applied to reading Caribbean author Jean Rhys While Wide Sargasso Sea famously displays overt forms of literary influences Jean Rhys s entire oeuvre is so fraught with connections to other texts and textual practices across geographical boundaries that her classification as a cosmopolitan modernist writer is due for reassessment Transnational Jean Rhys argues against the relative isolationism that is sometimes associated with Rhys s writing by demonstrating both how she was influenced by a wide range of foreign especially French authors and how her influence was in turn disseminated in myriad directions Including an interview with Black Atlantic novelist Caryl Phillips this collection charts new territories in the influences on of an author known for her dislike of literary coteries but whose literary communality has been underestimated

Revolutionary lives of the Red and Black Atlantic since 1917 David Featherstone, Christian Høgsbjerg, Alan Rice, 2022-04-05 Revolutionary lives of the Red and Black Atlantic brings to light the life histories of a wide range of radical figures whose political activity in relation to the black liberation struggle was profoundly shaped by the global impact and legacy of the Russian Revolution of October 1917 The volume introduces new perspectives on the intellectual trajectories of well known figures and critical activists including C L R James Paul Robeson Walter Rodney and Grace P Campbell This biographical approach brings a vivid and distinctive lens to bear on how racialised social and political worlds were negotiated and experienced by these revolutionary figures and on historic black radical engagements with left political movements in the wake of the Russian Revolution

Borders and Travellers in Early Modern Europe Thomas Betteridge, 2017-03-02 Early modern Europe was obsessed with borders and travel It found imagined and manufactured new borders for its travellers to cross It celebrated and feared borders as places or states where meanings were charged and changed In early modern Europe crossing a border could take many forms sailing to the Americas visiting a hospital or taking a trip through London s sewage system Borders were places that people lived on through and against Some were temporary like illness while others claimed to be absolute like that between the civilized world and the savage but as the chapters in this volume show to cross any of them was an exciting anxious and often a potentially dangerous act Providing a trans European interdisciplinary approach the collection focuses on three particular aspects of travel and borders change status and function To travel was to change not only humans but texts words goods and money were all in motion at this time having a profound influence on cultures societies and individuals within Europe and beyond Likewise status was not a fixed commodity and the meaning and appearance of borders varied and could simultaneously be regarded as hostile and welcoming restrictive and opportunistic according to one s personal viewpoint The volume also emphasizes the fact that borders always serve multiple functions empowering and oppressing protecting and threatening in equal measure By using these three concepts as measures by which to explore a variety of subjects Borders and Travellers in Early Modern Europe provides a fascinating new perspective from which to re assess the way in which early modern Europeans viewed themselves their neighbours and the wider world with which they were increasingly interacting ethnicity gender and sexuality health and food and emphasize the impact of Latin American and Caribbean peoples and cultures in the United States The text has been thoroughly updated for the second edition including fresh case studies and new chapters on independence neoliberalism and immigration and popular culture and the digital revolution Students are provided with a solid overview of the major contemporary trends issues and debates in the field Each chapter ends with a summary up to date recommendations for viewing films videos and websites and a comprehensive bibliography for further reading and research

Caribbean Globalizations, 1492 to the Present Day Eva Sansavior, Richard Scholar, 2015-03-02 Caribbean Globalizations explores the relations between globalization and the Caribbean since 1492 when Columbus first arrived in the region to the present day

A Regarded Self Kaiama L. Glover, 2020-12-04 In A Regarded Self Kaiama L. Glover champions unruly female protagonists who adamantly refuse the constraints of coercive communities Reading novels by Marie Chauvet Maryse Condé Ren Depestre Marlon James and Jamaica Kincaid Glover shows how these authors women characters enact practices of freedom that privilege the self in ways unmediated and unrestricted by group affiliation The women of these texts offend disturb and reorder the world around them They challenge the primacy of the community over the individual and propose provocative forms of subjecthood Highlighting the style and the stakes of these women's radical ethics of self regard Glover reframes Caribbean literary studies in ways that critique the moral principles politicized perspectives and established critical frameworks that so often govern contemporary reading practices She asks readers and critics of postcolonial literature to question their own gendered expectations and to embrace less constrictive modes of theorization

The White Man's World Bill Schwarz, 2011-10-27 The White Man's World explores ideas of the white man during the last 100 years of the British Empire Working back from Enoch Powell's Rivers of Blood speech of 1968 it discusses the racial assumptions that accompanied the founding of colonial Australia South Africa and Rhodesia colonies which were popularly known as white men's countries

Economies of Representation, 1790-2000 Leigh Dale, 2017-11-30 Although postcolonialism has emerged as one of the most significant theoretical movements in literary and cultural studies it has paid scant attention to the importance of trade and trade relations to debates about culture Focusing on the past two centuries this volume investigates the links among trade colonialism and forms of representation posing the question What is the historical or modern relationship between economic inequality and imperial patterns of representation and reading Rather than dealing exclusively with a particular industry or type of industry the contributors take up the issue of how various economies have been represented in Aboriginal art in literature by North American Caribbean Portuguese South African First Nations Australian British and Aboriginal authors and in a diverse range of writings that includes travel diaries missionary texts the findings of the Leprosy Investigation Commission early medical accounts and media representations of HIV/AIDS Examining trade in commodities as various as illicit drugs liquor bananas tourism adventure fiction and modern Aboriginal art as well as cultural exchanges in politics medicine and literature the essays reflect the widespread origins of the contributors themselves who are based throughout the English speaking world Taken as a whole this book contests the commonplace view promoted by some modern economists that trade in and of itself has a leveling effect equalising cultures places and peoples demonstrating instead the ways in which commerce has created and exacerbated differences in power

Patagonia Fernanda Peñaloza, Jason Wilson, 2010 This volume is a selection of the papers presented during the international conference Patagonia Myths and Realities organised through the Centre of Latin American Cultural Studies at the University of Manchester and held in September 2005 at the Manchester Museum Introd The Cambridge

Companion to Postcolonial Travel Writing Robert Clarke, 2018-01-11 The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Travel Writing offers readers an insight into the scope and range of perspectives that one encounters in this field of writing Encompassing a diverse range of texts and styles performances and forms postcolonial travel writing recounts journeys undertaken through places cultures and communities that are simultaneously living within through and after colonialism in its various guises The Companion is organized into three parts Part I Departures addresses key theoretical issues topics and themes Part II Performances examines a range of conventional and emerging travel performances and styles in postcolonial travel writing Part III Peripheries continues to shift the analysis of travel writing from the traditional focus on Eurocentric contexts This Companion provides a comprehensive overview of developments in the field appealing to students and teachers of travel writing and postcolonial studies Body Trade Barbara Creed, Jeanette Hoorn, 2013-12-02 Body Trade exposes myths surrounding the trade in heads cannibalism captive white women the display of indigenous people in fairs and circuses the stolen generations the comfort women and the making of the exotic erotic body This is a lively and intriguing contribution to the study of the postcolonial body West Indian intellectuals in Britain Bill Schwarz, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The first comprehensive discussion of the major Caribbean thinkers who came to Britain Written in an accessible lively style with a range of wonderful and distinguished authors Key book for thinking about the future of multicultural Britain study thus far has concentrated on Caribbean literature and how authors write back to Britain this book is the first to consider how they think back to Britain A book of the moment nothing comparable on the Caribbean influence on Britain Discusses the influence amongst others of C L R James Una Marson George Lamming Jean Rhys Claude McKay and V S Naipaul Modernism,

Space and the City Thacker Andrew Thacker, 2019-01-22 Explores the crucial role played by the city in the construction of modernism This innovative book examines the development of modernist writing in four European cities London Paris Berlin and Vienna Focusing on how literary outsiders represented various spaces in these cities it draws upon contemporary theories of affect and literary geography Particular attention is given to the transnational qualities of modernist writing by examining writers whose view of the cities considered is that of migrants exiles or strangers including Mulk Raj Anand Blaise Cendrars Bryher Joseph Conrad T S Eliot Christopher Isherwood Hope Mirrlees Naomi Mitchison Jean Rhys Sam Selvon and

Stephen Spender Key Features The first book in modernist studies to bring detailed discussion of these four cities together Breaks new ground in being the first book to bring affect theory and literary geography together in order to analyse modernism An extensive range of authors is analysed from the canonical to the previously marginal Situates the literary and filmic texts within the context of urban spaces and cultural institutions Kinship Across the Black Atlantic Gigi Adair, 2019-11-19 This book combines insights from postcolonial queer and diaspora studies to consider the meanings of kinship in contemporary black Atlantic fiction Diasporic displacement generates new understandings and new narratives of kinship An analysis of kinship is thus essential to understanding diasporic modernity at the turn of the twenty first century
