Looking Back And Thinking Forward Reexaminations Of Teaching And Schooling:

Looking Back and Thinking Forward Lillian Weber, 1997 This book is a forward looking rather than retrospective collection of the influential writings of Lillian Weber These essays many of which are being published here for the first time represent the mature thinking of a progressive educator who after 20 years of teaching young children initiated dramatic changes in the public schools of New York City This important text reclaims the importance of teachers being seen by themselves and by others as intelligent capable central and committed to children s growth confronts the issue of equity for minority students and shows how it can be interpreted in the approach both to curriculum and to the school s role in the community probes the meaning of educating all children and of what education should be in a democracy looks at the school teachers parents and community as elements of the ecology of the child s educative experience and offers an original approach to the question of morality in education

Crossing Boundaries Giuseppina Marsico, Koji Komatsu, Antonio Iannaccone, 2013-07-01 This book brings in the focus on the borders between different contexts that need to be crossed in the process of education Despite the considerable efforts of various groups of researchers all over the World it does not seem that traditional educational psychology has succeeded in illuminating the complex issues involved in the schoolfamily relationship From a methodological perspective there is no satisfactory explanation of the connection between representations and actual practice in educational contexts Crossing Boundaries is an invitation to cultural psychology of educational processes to overcome the limits of existing educational psychology Eemphasizing social locomotion and the dynamic processes the book try to capture the ambiguous richness of the transit from one context to another of the symbolic perspective that accompanies the dialogue between family and school of practices regulating the interstitial space between these different social systems How family and school fill occupy circulate avoid or strategically use this space in between What discourses and practices saturate this Border Zone and or cross from one side to the other Crossing Boundaries gathers contributions with the clear aim of documenting and analysing what happens at points of contact between family culture and scholastic educational culture from the perspective of everyday life This book is in itself an attempt to cross the border between the theorizing on the borders and how the outside world and the others are perceived from a certain point of view and the practices that characterize the school home interaction
