Luc Tuymans Luc Tuymans, 2001 Luc Tuymans Philippe Pirotte, Robert Storr, 2001 Luc Tuymans Robert Storr, Philippe Pirotte, Jan Hoet, 2001 Luc Tuymans Eva Meyer-Hermann, 2017-01-01 Belgian painter Luc Tuymans b 1958 has over the course of his remarkable career created a distinctive vernacular and is widely credited with having contributed to the revival of painting in the 1990s This second volume in a planned three volume catalogue raisonné of Tuymans's paintings surveys nearly two hundred works featuring some of his most iconic canvases including from his seminal exhibition Mwana Kitoko Beautiful White Man 2000 derived from the fraught history of Belgian colonial rule of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and The Secretary of State 2005 a portrayal of Condoleezza Rice which conjures the history of racial and sexual prejudice in the United States Brilliant color reproductions of each painting from this period are accompanied by an illustrated chronology with archival images and installation views of the works in the volume This catalogue raisonné is a testament to Tuymans's persistent assertion of the relevance and importance of painting a conviction that he maintains even in today's digital world Luc Tuymans Luc Tuymans, 2009 Published on the occasion of an exhibition held at Wexner Center for the Arts Columbus Ohio and four other institutions between Sept 17 2009 and May 8 2011 The Leopard, the Lion, and the Cock Matthew Stanard, 2019-04-15 Thought provoking reflection on culture colonialism and the remainders of empire in Belgium after 1960 The degree to which the late colonial era affected Europe has been long underappreciated and only recently have European countries started to acknowledge not having come to terms with decolonisation In Belgium the past two decades have witnessed a growing awareness of the controversial episodes in the country's colonial past This volume examines the long term effects and legacies of the colonial era on Belgium after 1960 the year the Congo gained its independence and calls into question memories of the colonial past by focusing on the meaning and place of colonial monuments in public space The book foregrounds the enduring presence of empire in everyday Belgian life in the form of permanent colonial markers in bronze and stone lieux de mémoire of the country's history of overseas expansion By means of photographs and explanations of major pro colonial memorials as well as several obscure ones the book reveals the surprising degree to which Belgium became infused with a colonialist spirit during the colonial era Another key component of the analysis is an account of the varied ways in which both Dutch and French speaking Belgians approached the colonial past after 1960 treating memorials variously as objects of veneration with indifference or as symbols to be attacked or torn down The book provides a thought provoking reflection on culture colonialism and the remainders of empire in Belgium after 1960 Colonial Legacies Gabriella Nugent, 2021-12-15 In Colonial Legacies Gabriella Nugent examines a generation of contemporary artists born or based in the Congo whose lens based art attends to the afterlives and mutations of Belgian colonialism in postcolonial Congo Focusing on three artists and one artist collective Nugent analyses artworks produced by Sammy Baloji Michèle Magma Georges Senga and Kongo Astronauts each of whom offers a different perspective onto this history gleaned from their own experiences In their photography and video art these artists rework existent images and redress archival absences making visible people and events occluded from dominant narratives Their artworks are shown to offer a re reading of the colonial and immediate post independence past blurring the lines of historical and speculative knowledge documentary and fiction Nugent demonstrates how their practices create a new type of visual record for the future one that attests to the ramifications of colonialism across time

Europe after Empire Elizabeth Buettner, 2016-03-24 A pioneering comparative history of European decolonization from the formal ending of empires to the postcolonial European present

Decolonising Europe? Berny Sèbe, Matthew G. Stanard, 2020-04-01 Decolonising Europe Popular Responses to the End of Empire offers a new paradigm to understand decolonisation in Europe by showing how it was fundamentally a fluid process of fluxes and refluxes involving not only transfers of populations ideas and sociocultural practices across continents but also complex intra European dynamics at a time of political convergence following the Treaty of Rome Decolonisation was neither a process of sudden rapid changes to European cultures nor one of cultural inertia but a development marked by fluidity movement and dynamism Rather than being a static process where Europe's former metropolises and their peoples at home reacted to the end of empire out there decolonisation translated into new realities for Europe's cultures societies and politics as flows ebbs fluxes and cultural refluxes reshaped both former colonies and former metropolises The volume's contributors set out a carefully crafted panorama of decolonisation's sequels in European popular culture by means of in depth studies of specific cases and media analysing the interwoven meaning momentum memory material culture and migration patterns of the end of empire across eight major European countries The revised meaning of decolonisation that emerges will challenge scholars in several fields and the panorama of new research in the book charts paths for new investigations The question mark in the title asks not only how European cultures experienced the end of empire but also the extent to which this is still a work in progress

After Modern Art David Hopkins, 2018 A beautifully illustrated new edition of this pioneering study of art since 1945 Focussing mainly on the relationship between American and European Art this book offers an up to date introduction to the major artists and movements of recent years
