Mary Pratt A Personal Calligraphy:

A Personal Calligraphy Mary Pratt, 2000 Mary Pratt is famous throughout Canada for her luminous paintings and prints Her 1995 exhibition The Art of Mary Pratt The Substance of Light drew record breaking crowds on its tour of Canada It also resulted in an unprecedented amount of press coverage on the biographical content of her work The accompanying book by Tom Smart sold more than 6 000 copies and made almost every best book of the year list in Canada Mary Pratt A Personal Calligraphy features Mary's own writings drawn and adapted from her personal journals the essays that she has written for numerous publications ranging from The Globe and Mail to The Glass Gazette and the lectures that she has given at many public events For the first time Mary has written her own book in her own words rather than rely on others to write about her Treating both public and private issues she writes of her childhood in Fredericton her connection to her family life in Salmonier as a young mother her decision to pursue her own career as an artist and her complicated relationship with her husband Christopher She writes about public issues the death of Joey Smallwood the 50th anniversary of Newfoundland entry into Confederation and the cod fishery She writes about the images that interest her and influence her art and the process of painting Like her paintings Pratt's writing packs a sucker punch At first it appears to be a paean to the pleasures of house and home until the more disturbing aspects subtly reveal themselves Ironing shirts become an erotic act a memory of visiting the local market with her grandmother conjures images of violence dead chickens meticulously plucked and carcasses of cattle meticulously flayed suggest rituals of sacrifice In Spring of 2001 Mary Pratt was awarded the Newfoundland and Labrador Writers Association prize for Non fiction for A Personal Calligraphy Astonishing Women Artists Heather Ball, 2007-01-01 Discover the lives of women artists from the 16th century to the present day such as the early feminist Artemisia Gentileschi the adventurous Emily Carr the flamboyant Frida Kahlo and the brilliant Georgia O'Keeffe Art and Rivalry Carol Bishop-Gwyn, 2019-10-08 The unauthorized biography of Canada's most famous artist couple and the rivalry that drove them She painted as if with pure light radiant colours making quotidian kitchen scenes come alive with sublimated drama He painted like clockwork each stroke precise and measured with exquisite care leaving no angle unchecked and no subtlety of tone unattended Some would say Mary Pratt was fire and Christopher ice And yet Newfoundland's Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera or Jackson Pollack and Lee Krasner presented their marriage as a portrait of harmony and balance But balance off the canvas rarely makes great art and the Pratts art was spectacular As a youth at Mount Allison University in New Brunswick Mary pursued her future husband a prodigious art talent and supported his determination to study painting instead of medicine They married and removed themselves to a Newfoundland outport where his painting alone provided the means to raise a family But as Mary's own talents became evident and she sought her own hours at the easel when not raising their four children and as rumours of Christopher's affair with a young model spread the Pratts harmonious exterior slowly cracked to scandal in Newfoundland and fascination across the country A marriage ended and gave way to a furious competition for dominance in Canadian art Canadian Culinary Imaginations Shelley Boyd, Dorothy Barenscott, 2022-03-30 In the twenty first century food is media it is not just on plates but in literature and on screens displayed in galleries studios and public places Canadian Culinary Imaginations provokes new conversations about the food related concepts memories emotions cultures practices and tastes that make Canada unique This collection brings together academics writers artists journalists and curators to discuss how food mediates our experiences of the nation and the world Together the contributors reveal that culinary imaginations reflect and produce the diverse bodies contexts places communities traditions and environments that Canadians inhabit as well as their personal and artistic sensibilities Arranged in four thematic sections Indigeneity and foodways urban suburban and rural environments cultural and national lineages and subversions of categories the essays in this collection indulge a growing appetite for conversations about creative engagements with food and the world at large As the essays and images in Canadian Culinary Imaginations demonstrate food is more than sustenance as language and as visual and material culture it holds the power to represent and remake the world in unexpected ways Beyond Belief Ronald R. Bernier, 2010-06-01 Beyond Belief Theoaesthetics or Just Old Time Religion explores the possible reemergence of a theological dimension to contemporary art Long estranged from symbol and sacrament contemporary artists and those who think and write about them seem to have turned once again to a vision rooted in the sacred In an era marked culturally by world weary cynicism and self conscious irony a new humanism may be emerging one which aims to move beyond fragmentation and opposition to integration and unification The aim of this book is not to propose a resurgence of religious iconography but rather to give voice to long suppressed often maligned and certainly professionally risky positions informed by and reverberating with themes of the sacred The essays included here by a range of scholars working on these issues today originated as a lively and spirited session of the 2008 College Art Association annual conference The Europa Directory of Literary Awards and Prizes Susan Leckey, 2015-12-22 A complete guide to the major awards and prizes of the literary world An invaluable source of information on awards and prizes world wide Covers over 1 000 awards and prizes Comprehensive background information on each award Extensive contact details Contents Includes internationally awarded prizes along with prestigious national awards Subject areas covered include adult and children s fiction non fiction poetry lifetime s achievement translation and drama Information is provided on the history of each award its purpose what is awarded how often the prize is awarded eligibility and restrictions the awarding organization and the most recent recipients Full contact details of the awarding organization are provided including main contact name postal address e mail and Internet address telephone and fax numbers Fully indexed by keyword awarding organization and award by subject Making Theatre Sherrill Grace, 2008 The story of Pollock s life from her family roots in New Brunswick through her pioneering years as a Canadian playwright Women's Studies Index: 2002 GK Hall, 2003 Association Journal New Moon Nora Off Our Backs Psychology Of Women Quarterly Redbook Resources for Feminist

 Construction of Self in the Work of Sharon Butala Aganetha Dyck Mary Meigs and Mary Pratt Verna Reid explores the evolving perceptions of self in the work of four Canadian women visual artists Aganetha Dyck and Mary Pratt and writers Sharon Butala and Mary Meigs All four came into prominence in middle age doing their most significant work in their mature years They along with the author are members of a transitional generation of women occupying the space between the traditional world of their mothers and the postmodern world of their daughters The multiple roles they have played are reflected in the strong autobiographical content present in their work Applying feminist and autobiographical theory Reid considers the work of Butala Dyck Meigs and Pratt in light of the influences that have shaped their senses of identity As a contemporary of her subjects Reid infuses her interviews with the four women with sensitivity and immediacy lending a unique perspective to the exploration of their lives and work Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Twenty-first-century Canadian Writers Christian Riegel, 2007 Dedicated for nearly thirty years to making literature
