National Parks Americas Best Idea:

The National Parks Dayton Duncan, Ken Burns, 2009-09-08 The companion volume to the twelve hour PBS series from the acclaimed filmmaker behind The Civil War Baseball and The War America's national parks spring from an idea as radical as the Declaration of Independence that the nation's most magnificent and sacred places should be preserved not for royalty or the rich but for everyone In this evocative and lavishly illustrated narrative Ken Burns and Dayton Duncan delve into the history of the park idea from the first sighting by white men in 1851 of the valley that would become Yosemite and the creation of the world's first national park at Yellowstone in 1872 through the most recent additions to a system that now encompasses nearly four hundred sites and 84 million acres The authors recount the adventures mythmaking and intense political battles behind the evolution of the park system and the enduring ideals that fostered its growth They capture the importance and splendors of the individual parks from Haleakala in Hawaii to Acadia in Maine from Denali in Alaska to the Everglades in Florida from Glacier in Montana to Big Bend in Texas And they introduce us to a diverse cast of compelling characters both unsung heroes and famous figures such as John Muir Theodore Roosevelt and Ansel Adams who have been transformed by these special places and committed themselves to saving them from destruction so that the rest of us could be transformed as well The National Parks is a glorious celebration of an essential expression of American democracy

The National Parks Dayton Duncan, 2016 In this evocative and lavishly illustrated narrative Ken Burns and Dayton Duncan delve into the history of the park idea from the first sighting by white men in 1851 of the valley that would become Yosemite and the creation of the world's first national park at Yellowstone in 1872 through the most recent additions to a system that now encompasses nearly four hundred sites and 84 million acres The National Parks , National Parks , 2005 National Parks Alfred Runte, 2010-04-16 In this lavishly illustrated book well known environmental historian

Alfred Runte a prominent figure on the Ken Burns documentary The National Parks America's Best Idea tells the highly engaging story of the development of our national parks from the first national park Yellowstone to the more recent decision to set aside vast tracts of Alaska for preservation Our National Parks Ed Lewis (environmental writer.), Henry P. Kendall Foundation, 1998 The National Parks Ken Burns, In 1851 word spreads across the country of a beautiful area of California's Yosemite Valley attracting visitors who wish to exploit the land's scenery for commercial gain and those who wish to keep it pristine Among the latter is a Scottish born wanderer named John Muir for whom protecting the land becomes a spiritual calling In 1864 Congress passes an act that protects Yosemite from commercial development for public use resort and recreation The first time in world history that any government has put forth this idea and hands control of the land to California Meanwhile a wonderland in the northwest corner of the Wyoming territory attracts visitors to its bizarre landscape of geysers mud pots and sulfur pits In 1872 Congress passes an act to protect this land as well Since it is located in a territory rather than a state it becomes America's first national park Yellowstone National Parks , 2009 The flagship publication of the National Parks Conservation Association National Parks Magazine circ 340 000 fosters an appreciation of the natural and historic treasures found in the national parks educates readers about the need to preserve those resources and illustrates how member contributions drive our organization s park protection efforts National Parks Magazine uses images and language to convey our country s history and natural landscapes from Acadia to Zion from Denali to the Everglades and the 387 other park units in between

The National Parks Ken Burns, By the end of the 19th century widespread industrialization has left many Americans worried about whether the country once a vast wilderness will have any pristine land left At the same time poachers in the parks are rampant and visitors think nothing of littering or carving their names near iconic sites like Old Faithful Congress has yet to establish clear judicial authority or appropriations for the protection of the parks This sparks a conservation movement by organizations such as the Sierra Club led by John Muir the Audubon Society led by George Bird Grinnell and the Boone and Crockett Club led by Theodore Roosevelt The movement fails however to stop San Francisco from building the Hetch Hetchy dam at Yosemite flooding Muir's mountain temple and leaving him broken hearted before he dies

Requiem for America's Best Idea Michael J. Yochim, 2022-03-15 In his enthusiastic explorations and fervent writing Michael J Yochim was to Yellowstone what Muir was to Yosemite Other times his writing is like that of Edward Abbey full of passion for the natural world and anger at those who are abusing it writes foreword contributor William R Lowry In 2013 Yochim was diagnosed with ALS Lou Gehrig's disease While fighting the disease he wrote Requiem for America's Best Idea The book establishes a unique parallel between Yochim's personal struggle with a terminal illness and the impact climate change is having on the national parks the treasured wilderness that he loved and to which he dedicated his life Yochim explains how climate change is already impacting the vegetation wildlife and the natural conditions in Olympic Grand Canyon Glacier Yellowstone and Yosemite National Parks A poignant and thought provoking work Requiem for America's Best Idea investigates the interactions between people and nature and the world that can inspire and destroy them
