Ollie Ollie In Come Free Anne Bernard Becker, 2014-10-07 The loss of a first child sends chilling tremors through a young family The two parents try to rebuild with visions of creating a large happy Catholic family Yet the universe lurches and takes the next oldest child and yet the next just a few years apart Such devastating losses are unimaginable It is even harder to imagine coping with them in an era of emotional sterility During the 1950s and 60s there were few outward displays of mourning no understanding of the five stages of grief no support groups The Bernards had to deal with their cataclysmic losses in a way that would be acceptable to the other middle class families of the time privately and silently Ollie Ollie In Come Free explores the emotional toll unexpressed grief can have on a young child In the unfiltered voice of a child and adolescent author Anne Bernard Becker offers a touching insight into her own buried grief loneliness and survivor s guilt Back cover
