On Being Human Essays In Theological Anthropology:

On Being Human Ray S. Anderson, 2010-10-01 What does it mean to be human How does a right understanding of personhood affect decisions on critical life situations What implications does a biblical perspective on personhood have for the pastoral ministry of healing and hope In answering these questions Ray S Anderson focused on the person as determined by and sustained by the creative power of God He explored the the implications of a biblical understanding of personhood for such critical issues as human sexuality family relationships abortion and death He broke new ground in relating pastoral care and counseling to contemporary issues which challenge Christians and their understanding of the meaning of human life

Christian Perspectives on Being Human J. P. Moreland, David M. Ciochi, 2015-01-26 While there is a unity to truth from God's perspective there are nevertheless many different ways of knowing studying and defining that truth Thus the task of integration is the task of relating theology and other disciplines in such a way that one articulates and defends a comprehensive unified Christian worldview Christian Perspectives on Being Human is a vital step in that essential process of integration In this unique anthology colleagues from various departments at Biola University undertake an important multidisciplinary approach to integration J P Moreland and David Ciochi represent philosophy in this discussion Robert Saucy theology Sherwood Lingenfelter anthropology Nancy Duvall and Keith Edwards psychology Walt Russell and Scott Rae New Testament and medical ethics and Klaus Issler Christian education

On Being Christian and Human Todd H. Speidell, 2002-04-17 In the tradition of Karl Barth T F and J B Torrance and Ray Anderson this collection of essays articulates a theology of ministry based on the humanity of Christ A Christian theology of ministry it insists can be nothing less than a theology for humanity

The Faith That Moves Mountains Arisnel Mesidor, 2017-08-21 The Faith That Moves Mountains How to Have It How to Use It and How to Protect It is a Christian nonfiction book consisting of a theological reflection on Mark 11:20-25 If you feel like you have a huge and intimidating mountain standing in front of you if you feel like a huge wall prevents you from entering into your promised land if you are currently facing a situation where you feel blocked from realizing your full potential and fulfilling your God-given destiny this book is written for you The purpose of the book is to reassure you that God has not forgotten you even if it feels like so at times That you have found yourself in precarious situations at one point or another in your life is not a result of God's indifference toward you This book reminds you that even before God brought you into this world he made provisions in order for you to be able to deal with such circumstances You must never lose sight of the fact that God loves you and his plan is not for the mountains of life to remain in your way forever without you being able to do something about it In this book I will teach you about the nature of the faith that moves mountains I will try to explain the nature of that faith how to have it how to use it and how to protect it I want you to realize that you don't always have to put up with things that prevent you from moving forward in your life and toward your God-given destiny I encourage you to keep this in mind not knowing whether or not something negative is happening to you is part of how God is working in your life You need to pray and make your desire known to God As Gods servant you never need to hide your frustration from him and shy away from letting the one who loves you know what you need My prayer is that after realizing how powerful faith in God is you may put yours into good use God did not put us in this world without carefully equipping us for every challenge we would face God has not created us either as simple tools he can use whenever or for whatever he wants Rather God has made us acting beings able to do things and in fact the things which he himself does God created us in his image and has made us his associates in looking after everything he created Discover the power of faith in God and triumph over the mountains of life      Persons, Powers, and Pluralities Eric G Flett, 2012-05-31 Through an intimate conversation with the writings of Thomas F Torrance Flett articulates a Trinitarian theology of culture Torrance s work suggests that Christian assumptions in the areas of God creation and humanity had an important influence upon the development of Western scientific culture This book develops each of these areas of Torrance s thought in order to articulate a theology of culture rooted in a Christian understanding of God as triune creation as contingent and human persons as stewards created in the image of God Drawn together these three areas of Torrance s thought suggest that human culture and cultural plurality ultimately originate in the creative action of a triune God mediated through the creative activity of the human creature as it engages a contingent created order in its attempts to foster human flourishing and to bear embodied witness to its Creator The result is not only a unique contribution to the emerging secondary material on Torrance s work but also a contribution to the field of theology of culture as a systematic locus in its own right      From Stress to Well-Being Craig Ellison, 2003-06-17      God's Provision, Humanity's Need Christa L. McKirland, 2022-06-14 In a world often consumed with self sufficiency this book reminds us that humans have an innate need for the grace of God s personal presence Christa McKirland an author doing research at the intersection of Christian theology and the sciences argues for a new way of understanding the image of God that might precondition science engaged theology She makes an exegetical and theological case that human beings were created to need the presence of God in order to flourish Such a need is not a liability but our greatest human dignity Foreword by Alan J Torrance      Knowing God by Name Cherith Fee Nordling, 2010 Does women s experience matter for theological inquiry Elizabeth Johnson s premise is that it does Knowing God by name is a critical assessment and evaluation of this approach bringing Johnson into conversation with Catholic and feminist colleagues and with Karl Barth whose Trinitarian theology of experience maintains the divine creaturely distinction she challenges P 4 cover

The Oxford Handbook of Evangelical Theology Gerald R. McDermott, 2013-12 This volume surveys the state of the discipline on topics of greatest importance to evangelical theology The authors critically assess the state of the question from both classical and evangelical traditions and propose a future direction for evangelical thinking on the subject R sum de l diteur      Fully Human in Christ Todd Speidell, 2016-11-08 Thomas F Torrance s theology included a thoroughgoing albeit implicit ethic of reconciliation It focused on the personalizing and humanizing mediation of Christ in all realms of life including not only a supposed private dimension of human life but also the social historical and political structures of human society and even of the cosmos itself This book builds upon that vision of a Christian ethic radically rooted in God's grace which encompasses sustains and transforms the entire human and created order A trinitarian incarnational social ethic does not begin with our human causes projects and agendas however noble they might be but with witness to the reconciling person and work of Jesus Christ for us
