Race and Ethnicity J. Owens Smith, Carl E. Jackson, 1989 Multiculturalism from the Margins Dean A. Harris, 1995-10-24 So called multiculturalists have been recently targeted by journalists and scholars arguing that such apologists are the cause of contemporary cultural fragmentation racism neo segregation lowered standards and a radicalism that ignores the wishes of mainstream America This book is an introduction to some of the ideas underlying the claims multiculturalists make for diversity inclusion and complexity and is one of the first rejoinders minorities have presented to combat the onslaught Spanning the philosophical spectrum from difference to competent intercultural communication each essay represents the precipitate produced from the writer s engagement with students scholars the public at large and marginalized peoples The reader will not find in these pages a call for chaos civil war or racism None of what is here espoused can responsibly be characterized as unpatriotic or misanthropic Radical Yes Subversive Yes But also expansive sympathetic challenging and galvanizing This book is not for the faint of heart Readers looking for a demanding analysis that will provide guidance on adjudicating the claims of multiculturalists and monoculturalists will find it in this book

Handbook of Racial-cultural Psychology and Counseling: Theory and research Robert T. Carter, 2004 This two volume handbook offers a thorough treatment of the concepts and theoretical developments concerning how to apply cultural knowledge in theory and practice to various racial and cultural groups Volume One focuses on theory and research and covers acculturation language and culture social class ethical research and emerging areas of inquiry 0D0A Living together in multi-ethnic neighbourhoods Karin Peters, 2023-09-04 In Western societies such as the Netherlands people with different ethnic backgrounds live together in urban areas This book examines daily life in multi ethnic neighbourhoods and the meaning of public spaces for social integration Through observations and interviews in two Dutch cities Nijmegen and Utrecht insight is gained into the use and perception of public spaces Positive experiences in public spaces contribute to feeling at home in a multi ethnic neighbourhood Not only intense and lasting contacts but also fleeting interactions contribute to feeling at home Experience with diversity contributes to a realistic view of multiculturalism a view that is based on everyday experiences with all its positive and negative implications This however does not mean that residents do not use stereotypes or categorizations However there is a major difference between the public discourse which focuses on differences and problems and everyday encounters which are perceived as a way to experience and enjoy diversity Recommendations are that politicians should look at the everyday realities in multi ethnic neighbourhoods when discussing issues related to multi ethnic societies Repeatedly stressing the dichotomy between native and non native Dutch citizens and focusing on problems has a negative effect on the everyday lives of people because it produces and reproduces stereotyped images Integration is not only about non native Dutch residents adapting themselves to Dutch society it is also about the extent to which people from various backgrounds live together and feel at home in their neighbourhood The Politics of
