Racial Healing Confronting The Fear Between Blacks And Whites:

Racial Healing Harlon L. Dalton, 1996-10-01 A New York Times Notable Book of the Year Going against conventional wisdom Dalton asserts that blacks and whites need not live estranged and offers concrete proposals for what individual blacks and whites must do to bring about racial healing When discussing race Dalton suggests that blacks and whites should simply put everything on the table Own up to the tension Acknowledge the risks When someone inevitably screws up rather than beat a hasty retreat we should seize the opportunity to deepen the dialogue The unflinching honesty of Dalton's views will spark debate and controversy His vision of a truly just multicultural America provides a thought provoking hopeful view to add to the diversity of debate over race

Racial Healing Harlon L. Dalton, 2008-06-26 An anecdotal study outlines the prospect of more open and harmonious relations between African Americans and whites that explains the importance of up front communication and risk taking Reprint

The Psychology of Black Boys and Adolescents Kirkland C. Vaughans, Warren Spielberg, 2014-06-30 Drawing on personal insights and research based knowledge this important work facilitates understanding of the psychological struggles of young African American males and offers ameliorative strategies Despite examples set by successful black men in all walks of life the truth remains that a disproportionate number of black boys and young men underperform at school suffer from PTSD and too often find themselves on a pathway to jail The two volume The Psychology of Black Boys and Adolescents marks the first attempt to catalog the many psychological influences that can stack the deck against black male children and to suggest interventions Bringing together an expansive collection of new and classic research from a wide variety of disciplines this set sheds light on the complex circumstances faced by young black men in the United States Contributions by authors Kirkland Vaughans and Warren Spielberg contain insights from the groundbreaking Brotherman study conducted over a ten year period to report on the lives and psychological challenges of over a hundred African American boys and their families Among the myriad issues studied in this set are the often negative expectations of society the influence of gangs and the impact of racism and poverty Of equal importance the work explores culturally specific ways to engage families youths communities and policymakers in the development of healthy safe educated boys who will become whole and successful adults

"When Race Breaks Out" Helen Fox, 2009 When Race Breaks Out Revised Edition is a guide for instructors who want to promote more honest and informed conversations about race and racism Based on the author's personal practice and interviews with students and faculty from a variety of disciplines this book combines personal memoirs advice teaching ideas and lively stories from college classrooms A unique insider's guide to the main ideas definitions and opinions about race helps instructors answer students questions and anticipate their reactions both to the material and to each other An updated annotated bibliography of over 225 articles books and videos with recommendations for classroom use is included

America's Atonement Aaron David Gresson, 2004 How does a nation redeem itself What ideas values and strategies get mobilized in order for a nation to feel good about itself again Is such a recovery possible for an entire people America's Atonement provides one answer to these and related questions by arguing that racial pain notably white racial pain provides a metaphor for understanding a wide range of redemption aimed cultural practices ranging from the Yellow Ribbon Movement 1972-1992 to the current wave of recovery movies such as Disclosure and Forrest Gump No Partiality Douglas R. Sharp, 2002-01-01 Douglas Sharp explores the theoretical constructions of race including its psychological sociopolitical and socioeconomic dimensions Finally Sharp carefully weaves a theological model of racial reconciliation for a new humanity "I'm Not a Racist, But..." Lawrence Blum, 2015-08-01 Not all racial incidents are racist incidents Lawrence Blum says We need a more varied and nuanced moral vocabulary for talking about the arena of race We should not be faced with a choice of racism or nothing Use of the word racism is pervasive An article about the NAACP's criticism of television networks for casting too few minority actors in lead roles asks Is television a racist institution A white girl in Virginia says it is racist for her African American teacher to wear African attire Blum argues that a growing tendency to castigate as racism everything that goes wrong in the racial domain reduces the term's power to evoke moral outrage In I'm Not a Racist But Blum develops a historically grounded account of racism as the deeply morally charged notion it has become He addresses the question whether people of color can be racist defines types of racism and identifies debased and inappropriate usages of the term Though racial insensitivity racial anxiety racial ignorance and racial injustice are in his view not racism they are racial ills that should elicit moral concern Blum argues that race itself even when not serving distinct racial malfeasance is a morally destructive idea implying moral distance and unequal worth History and genetic science reveal both the avoidability and the falsity of the idea of race Blum argues that we can give up the idea of race but must recognize that racial groups historical and social experience has been shaped by having been treated as if they were races Curating Church Jacob Daniel Myers, 2018-10-02 If we are willing to shift our approach to church we will better connect with increasingly heterogeneous cultures This shifting requires curation Church leaders must learn to be curators Churches in modernity were set up to facilitate a particular kind of experience with God Church was its own protected culture In the wake of postmodernity facilitated by new forms of digital communication we are entering a new epoch in the history of the church Curators manage the tasks of connection preservation and transformation in their care for cultural artifacts and communities When someone serves as a curator they make connections between different elements in the culture preserving the best of cultural traditions and promoting fresh ways of thinking and being in the world What might this work of curation mean for us In Curating Church readers learn how curation can reorient and sharpen the ways and work of the church Curation can inform how we connect with cultures beyond the church preserve what is best in the rich history of Christian thought and expression and nurture spaces where contemporary persons may be transformed by the gospel This book helps readers to understand with new richness the church and the world and it equips them to become active in making those connections as curators with and for others The Blackwell Companion to Social Inequalities Mary

Romero, Eric Margolis, 2008-04-15 The Blackwell Companion to Social Inequalities is a first rate collection of social science scholarship on inequalities emphasizing race ethnicity class gender sexuality age and nationality Highlights themes that represent the scope and range of theoretical orientations contemporary emphases and emerging topics in the field of social inequalities Gives special attention to debates in the field developing trends and directions and interdisciplinary influences in the study of social inequalities Includes an editorial introduction and suggestions for further reading

The Case against Afrocentrism Tunde Adeleke, 2011-01-05 Postcolonial discourses on African Diaspora history and relations have traditionally focused intensely on highlighting the common experiences and links between black Africans and African Americans This is especially true of Afrocentric scholars and supporters who use Africa to construct and validate a monolithic racial and culturally essentialist worldview Publications by Afrocentric scholars such as Molefi Asante Marimba Ani Maulana Karenga and the late John Henrik Clarke have emphasized the centrality of Africa to the construction of Afrocentric essentialism In the last fifteen years however countervailing critical scholarship has challenged essentialist interpretations of Diaspora history Critics such as Stephen Howe Yaacov Shavit and Clarence Walker have questioned and refuted the intellectual and cultural underpinnings of Afrocentric essentialist ideology Tunde Adeleke deconstructs Afrocentric essentialism by illuminating and interrogating the problematic situation of Africa as the foundation of a racialized worldwide African Diaspora He attempts to fill an intellectual gap by analyzing the contradictions in Afrocentric representations of the continent These include multiple conflicting and ambivalent portraits of Africa the use of the continent as a global unifying identity for all blacks the de-emphasizing and nullification of New World acculturation and the ahistoric construction of a monolithic African Diaspora worldwide
