Studi tassiani ,2003 Il lamento di Olimpia et canzone (Venice, 1567) Stefano Rossetti,2017-01-01 Stefano Rossetti d ca 1584 was a Savoyard composer associated with the Medici family in Florence His expressive experimental style and penchant for multipartite forms and large vocal ensembles might assure him a prominent place in the history of the Italian madrigal but because of the incomplete survival of his music and patchy biography his life and works remain under explored Among his incomplete works is Il lamento di Olimpia et canzone Venice 1567 which lacks the Alto partbook The print opens and closes with multipartite cycles a vast lament from Ariosto s epic poem Orlando furioso and a canzone in praise of Isabella de Medici to whom the publication is dedicated Between them is a setting of Petrarch s Non al suo amante Canzoniere no 52 which adumbrates the canzone thematically Il lamento di Olimpia et canzone has often been cited in the secondary literature in connection with Isabella de Medici and its monumental scale has been noted by music historians Detailed discussion of the music however has been hampered by the lack of a modern edition due no doubt to its incomplete state By providing a reconstruction of the missing voices the present edition fills this lacuna making these works available to scholars and performers for the first time Frühneuzeit-Info ,2000 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001
