The Spectre of Afghanistan Amin Saikal, Kirill Nourzhanov, 2021-01-28 Aiming to connect a number of divergent perspectives on the current state of Afghanistan this book outlines the country s past and present instability and how this impacts and is conceptualised by its neighbours as well as by international heavyweights such as Russia China and the United States Given Afghanistan s extensive cross border ethnic linguistic sectarian and cultural ties with its neighbours whatever transpires in the war torn country is bound to have regional and global security implications This study focuses on the current formal and informal defensive policies the states of Central Asia may or may not have in place in the event of the Afghan situation deteriorating further or the Taliban led insurgency substantially widening their influence The book also considers the positions and policy responses of three influential actors in the region Russia China and the United States It assesses the convergence of interests between these great powers in stabilising Afghanistan and their divergence of geopolitical objectives in the region With President Donald Trump unpredictably upheaving American policy in Afghanistan an assertive Russia continuing to expand its influence across Central Asia and China seeking to have a wider economic and security role in the region this book offers a timely assessment of an internationally important topic

Reform and Regulation of Economic Institutions in Afghanistan Haroun Rahimi, 2022-10-21 Taliban's return to power in August of 2021 caused everyone to ask why the two decades of institution building in Afghanistan failed This book investigates the root causes of failed reforms in an important area of reform trade and credit institutions It explains why the efforts to reform and regulate the economic institutions in Afghanistan failed and what we can learn from their failure It draws on more than eighty interviews with Afghan merchants business leaders money dealers and government officials in five major provinces of Afghanistan to identify the barriers to access to credit and to understand the performance of formal institutions banks and their informal counterparts This book finds that Afghan merchants were often unable to benefit from the offerings of formal institutions for three reasons a highly volatile business climate uncertain contract enforcement and an unsupportive property rights system Several informal institutions have emerged that alleviate some of the credit constraints on Afghan merchants These informal institutions include risk sharing trade credit operations money dealers short term working capital loans Gerawee and Sar qufli Although these informal institutions have helped Afghan merchants survive they are unable to support economic growth This book argues that countries like Afghanistan should solve their institutional dilemma by adopting an approach which the author calls Grounded Institutional Reform Using this approach a country would formalize existing informal institutions a development that would vastly increase their effectiveness While this book focuses on credit and trade in Afghanistan the analysis of formalizing the informal can easily be extended to solve other types of economic problems in similarly situated countries This book should be of great interest to scholars policymakers and development workers in the field of law finance and development

Who is Winning the War in Afghanistan? Sayed Zia Sais,2011 Who Is Winning The War In Afghanistan A pro Communist coup the impact and aftermath of the Soviet 1978 79 invasion and 30 years of war have demolished the social life cohesion integrity solidarity trust capacity and economy of Afghanistan Millions of people have migrated to foreign countries houses and villages have been destroyed the country s economy and infrastructure has been utterly destroyed millions of young civilians and children have been deprived of education and thousands of women have been widowed The conflict in Afghanistan has also had a great impact on security economy and the political prosperity of other parts of the world The 9 11 incidents which shocked the world once again drew international attention back to the forgotten Afghanistan The Bonn conference 2001 the NATO led invasion the collapse of the Taliban regime and the promises of the international community to build a democratic Afghan government with a solid institution and strong security force created great hopes amongst the Afghan population for a better future After the fall of the Taliban regime the violence and insurgency began to increase Despite all international efforts and an increase in troop numbers from 10 000 in 2002 to around 140 000 in 2010 and the spending of 50 billion in aid the Afghan government is still weak and does not have control over the whole country the armed forces are not strong enough violence continues to rise and last year was the deadliest year in nearly nine year of war additionally the security situation across the country looks increasingly bad The lasting war has had little success in Afghanistan the pressure of insurgents increasing casualties unpopularity of war among the population of NATO led countries and enormous war costs in a worsening economic climate have caused the announcement of the withdrawal of troops by US President B Obama in 2011 and the UK Prime Minister D Cameron by 2015 This book aims to determine the answer to the question of whether the Coalition Forces are winning the war in Afghanistan
