Revelation Allen Daves, 2013-12 The book of Revelation offers us an interesting theological dilemma It states Rev 22 16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches Revelation also states it is the true sayings of Jesus and that it is the testimony of Christ If this is not the gospel of Jesus Christ then what is it and should we consider it accursed testimony of an angel If it is not to be considered accursed then it cannot be some other gospel message then what was already given previously However this is the conundrum for if this is the gospel message then why do so few understand it There is a possibility which few consider but is the overall thesis of this apology The reason people don't understand revelation is because they never understood what the gospel message was in the first place In that case where does that put those who claim it is not essential for salvation Do you not find it quite curious that the most Personally given NT book By Jesus himself is the least understood and given the least importance for Salvation in Christendom There are numerous preachers and bible exegetes but as Paul said I bear them record that they have a zeal of God but not according to knowledge Most who profess the name of Christ are feeding on doctrines of devils and the ignorant There are without question many qualified teachers and scholars with many years of dedication and solid education However teachers no matter how well lettered or numbered in degrees if obtained from others who are just as equally ignorant in such matters are just blind leaders of the blind And if the blind lead the blind both shall fall into the ditch

Scott Duvall, 2025-03-25 A Theology of Revelation by J Scott Duvall in Zondervan's Biblical Theology of the New Testament series provides a comprehensive look at the theology of John's Apocalypse One of only a few dedicated theologies of Revelation Duvall's book leaves no stone unturned in the study of the final book of the Christian canon of Scripture This thoroughly researched study includes an investigation into the historical framework of the book authorship date and occasion and purpose a survey of literary theological foundations genre text and canonicity grammar and symbolic language use of the Old Testament literary structure and interpretation and a full literary theological reading of the book culminating in an exploration of the book's most significant theological themes: God, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, the people of God, worship, discipleship, salvation, God's judgment of evil, and the new creation. Readers will find here a study that is clearly written, attentive to the historical literary context, with special attention given to the primary theological themes in the book. Perhaps above all, readers will have their hope in God and his amazing plan reinforced and strengthened.

Reading Revelation C. Marvin Pate, 2009-05-01 Intriguing and endlessly contentious ideas and images of apocalyptic measure come together in the book of Revelation. It is a rich and hermeneutically complicated Scripture that unsurprisingly has no universally accepted interpretation. Reading Revelation compares these four major approaches to Revelation by laying out the different interpretive translations provided by each school of thought in parallel columns. Revelation (Teach the Text Commentary Series) J. Scott Duvall, 2014-10-14 The Teach the Text Commentary Series utilizes the best of biblical scholarship to provide the information a pastor needs to communicate the text effectively. The carefully selected preaching units and focused commentary allow pastors to quickly grasp the big idea and key themes of each passage of Scripture. Each unit of the commentary includes the big idea and key themes of the passage and sections dedicated to understanding teaching and illustrating the text.

Reading Revelation Missiologically Abeneazer G. Urga, Edward L. Smither, Michael P. Naylor, 2025-10-28 Through Global Mission to God's Throne Few works on Revelation emphasize its missional element. Reading Revelation Missiologically aims to fill that gap, showing that this final book of the Bible is deeply missional, calling God's people to witness, worship, and endure in the face of suffering. As the fourth volume in the Reading Missiologically series, following Hebrews 1, Peter, and James, it highlights Revelation's call to faithfulness, perseverance through suffering, and global worship of the Lamb. Structured around the missionary motive, why, message, what, and methods, how, this volume explores Revelation's theology of mission. Revelation is replete with the theme of God's love for the nations, and it calls God's people to live as a foretaste of the coming new creation. Global voices offer fresh insights for pastors, scholars, and students. Rather than a puzzle to decode, Revelation is presented as a powerful missionary declaration.

The Street Sweeper Tim Enochs, 2010 Revelation (Baker Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament) Grant R. Osborne, 2002-11-01 The Book of Revelation contains some of the most difficult passages in Scripture. Grant Osborne's commentary on Revelation begins with a thorough introduction and the many difficulties involved in its interpretation. He also examines elements that complicate the interpretation of apocalyptic literature. As with all volumes published in the BECNT series, Revelation seeks to reach a broad audience with scholarly research from a decidedly evangelical perspective.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ Jon Scott Birch, 2022-09-21 The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy, Rev 19:10, and a prophetic perspective promotes purpose. Yet in a world swiftly growing callous, true purpose and meaning are fading. Many of Jesus' disciples today have lost their first love, which is Jesus himself, Rev 2:4. And too many souls overall miss the wonder, inspiration, and comfort gained by those who would endeavor toward fuller comprehension of the book of Revelation. Blessed are they who read and those who hear the words of this prophecy and keep those things which are written in it for the time is near Rev 1 3 Neglect of the Holy Spirit slothfulness fear and the ongoing confusion generated by competing interpretations and bad theology are the primary obstacles between an individual and the liberation to be had by reading the last book of the Bible We must not forget that while the apostle John wrote the book of Revelation its author is Jesus Christ and he is not an author of confusion but of peace 1 Cor 14 33 This commentary presents a practical discipleship based perspective toward following Jesus into the very heart of his Revelation So as the end of this clamorous age approaches may we truly hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches
