Mission From Zeus:

Mission from Zeus Daniel Fingerioth, 2000-01-01 When Zeus orders Hercules on a mission to bring back the horns of the Minotaur the fate of the Olympian gods depends on his success so Hercules eager for his father's love and approval embarks on a perilous journey armed with weapons specially crafted

Experiencing Hektor Lynn Kozak, 2016-12-01 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched At the Iliad's climax the great Trojan hero Hektor falls at the hands of Achilles But who is Hektor He has resonated with audiences as a tragic hero great warrior loyal husband and father protector of a doomed city Yet never has a major work sought to discover how these different aspects of Hektor's character accumulate over the course of the narrative to create the devastating effect of his death This book documents the experience of Hektor through the Iliad's serial narrative Drawing on diverse tools from narratology to cognitive science but with a special focus on film character television poetics and performance practice it examines how the mechanics of serial narrative construct the character of Hektor How do we experience Hektor as the performer makes his way through the epic How does the juxtaposition of scenes in multiple storylines contribute to character How does the narrative work to manipulate our emotional response How does our relationship to Hektor change over the course of the performance Lynn Kozak demonstrates this novel approach through a careful scene by scene breakdown and analysis of the Iliad focusing especially on Hektor In doing so she challenges and destabilises popular and scholarly assumptions about both ancient epic and the Iliad's other hero

Mission and Context Jione Havea, 2020-06-30 Mission is contrived from and performed over lived contexts but the visions that guide and drive mission are oftentimes blinded by power position protection and plenitude This collection visits those matters with queering attention to the shadows that empires cast over the contexts of mission and to the collusion and complicity of Christians and churches with empires past as in the case of Rome and present as in the case of the United States of America In the interests of those in mission fields who survived but continue to agonize under the burdens of empires the contributors to this work dare to re-vision the course and cause of mission Writing from minoritized settings in Africa Asia the Americas and Oceania the authors interweave the principles and practices of mission with the opportunities in decolonial theology and hermeneutics minoritized and migrant Christologies repatriation and the courage to get up and get out indigenous insights and wisdom mission archives stories of resistance and endurance in zones of contact and violence restless souls and returning spirits and life centered spiritual encounter In Mission and Context as with previous volumes in this series empires do not have the final word nor are they the final world
