Chance Is A Fine Thing Philip Temple,2014-10-03 A compelling and thoughtful memoir about a significant figure on New Zealand's literary and natural landscape The stories that I think worth telling are of how as a young man I left home on the other side of the world half a century ago and took the chance to become a New Zealander More of becoming a New Zealand writer now able to look back over 50 years and relate not only what happened to me of how I grew up but also something of how the country has grown and changed It is about my developing relationship with my country and some of its people As Philip Temple explains in his preface this is about his life and the country he chose to call home His memoir shows how he made this decision how he left England at a young age and how he came to explore and love this country scaling its mountains and writing its stories New Zealand has always pulled him back despite adventures overseas exploring previously unknown regions of the world sailing in exciting waters trailing through Europe and a long love affair with Berlin Despite all this New Zealand became and remains his country In an honest and remarkably diverse appraisal of his life he reveals his personal and professional relationships including his search for his father the failure of his marriage difficult times working for the Listener and his campaigning for MMP It is also a fascinating account of how he has made a living as a full time writer Compelling thoughtful and moving this is an important view of the last fifty years

White Shadows Philip Temple,2012-12-01 Mysterious and evocative tantalising and erotic this unique novel explores the qualities of love and obsession Marienbad the central European spa resort is immortalised in the romantic imagination for its legendary doomed love affairs Goethe and Ulrike von Levetzow Chopin and Marie Wodzinska Edward VII and Mizzi Pistl Franz Kafka and Felice Bauer In a Marienbad winter within its ambience of history and allusion theatre and illusion a modern pair of lovers look for the cure that eluded all their famous precursors Echoing the Le Jour et la Nuit of Alain Resnais classic movie Last Year at Marienbad they track the pristine forest snows in pursuit of answers to questions that all lovers have sought throughout history White Shadows is enormously satisfying a beautiful mood piece perfectly evoking the aimless existence of those who seek but never seem to be satisfied in a town with ever present reminders that death and decay lie in wait for the seekers Otago Daily Times

Te Moa Barney Brewster,1987 The life and death of New Zealand's unique bird Everyone knows about the moa large flightless and alas extinct But what sort of creature was the moa and how did it live Why did the moa die out and when Did any Europeans ever see one Puzzled by these intriguing questions Barney Brewster author of Antarctica Wilderness at Risk delved deep into the mystery of the moa The result of two years research Te Moa presents some surprising findings in an comprehensive coverage of children's literature from medieval chapbooks of moral instruction for children to J K Rowling's immensely popular Harry Potter books. Unlike other references, the Encyclopedia not only documents but also interprets every work, major and minor, that has played a role in the history of children's literature in the world. General essays illuminate prominent trends, themes, genres, and the traditions of children's literature in many countries. In addition, the Encyclopedia provides biographies of important writers as well as extensive coverage of illustrators with numerous examples of their work. Sociocultural developments such as the impact of toys, films, animation, the Internet, literacy, libraries, and librarians, censorship, the multicultural expansion of the field, and other issues related to the appreciation and dissemination of children's literature are also addressed. While the Encyclopedia concentrates on the tradition known best by its readership, it also covers the international development of children's literature and offers an unprecedented treatment of works from Australia, Canada, New Zealand, India, Pakistan, African countries, and other nations. Its over 800 distinguished contributors come from around the world and include such renowned scholars and writers as Gillian Avery, Peter Hunt, Klaus Doderer, Hansa Heino Ewers, Jean Perrot, Denise Escarpit, Brian Alderson, and Betsy Gould Hearne. A-Z organization, accessible writing, plentiful illustrations, cross references, bibliographies, a comprehensive index, and a systematic outline make the Encyclopedia an invaluable and easy-to-use research reference.
