Men and Masculinities in Contemporary China Geng Song, Derek Hird, 2013-11-07. In Men and Masculinities in Contemporary China, Geng Song and Derek Hird offer an account of Chinese masculinities in media discourse and everyday life, covering masculinities on television, in lifestyle magazines, in cyberspace, at work, at leisure, and at home. No other work covers the forms and practices of men and masculinities in contemporary China so comprehensively. Through carefully exploring the global, regional, and local influences on men and representations of men in postmillennial China, Song and Hird show that Chinese masculinity is anything but monolithic. They reveal a complex, shifting plurality of men and masculinities, from stay-at-home internet geeks to karaoke singing relationship-building businessmen, which contest and consolidate conventional notions of masculinity in multiple ways.
