El Terrible: Life and Labor in Pueblonuevo, 1887-1939

Patricia A. Schechter, 2024-07-12 This book is a biography of Pueblonuevo del Terrible a mining town located in Andalusia Spain Based on previously unexamined sources the study paints a fresh portrait of industrial workers and their families in Córdoba province enriching our understanding of this mostly agricultural region Previous studies of laboring communities in Spain have identified radical workers miners among them as a destabilizing element due to their insurgent protest activity including lethal violence This study by contrast describes both worker activism and cross class organizing as constructive not destructive and aimed at integration into Spanish society Economically the mining zone was dominated by a French company in the Rothschild portfolio But by running their own city waging peaceful labor strikes raising a church building housing and honoring their dead residents turned a quasi colonial outpost into a pueblo worth defending and they rallied in defense of the Republic at the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War In the making of Pueblonuevo del Terrible Spanish men and women contended with the perils of mine work the jolts of industrial capitalism creeping fascism and civil war As such this book tells a village scale story of global events that defined the twentieth century

Unlawful Attacks in Combat Situations Héctor Olásolo, 2008 Death and destruction are unavoidable effects of war and combat situations The fact that people have been killed or injured or property has been destroyed should not encourage anyone to rush to the conclusion that war crimes have been committed On the contrary before reaching such a conclusion it is necessary to carefully analyze the conduct of the person causing death injury or damage in order to ascertain whether such conduct is consistent with international humanitarian law Technology law and public opinion on what is acceptable has greatly evolved since World War II The issue of civilian damage caused in combat operations has become an important topic in public opinion since Operation Desert Storm in 1991 Public pressure to limit incidental civilian damage has notably increased following the NATO aerial campaign in Kosovo in 1999 and the subsequent conflicts in Afghanistan in 2001 Iraq in 2003 and Lebanon 2006 Unlawful Attacks in Combat Situations focuses on the manner in which unlawful attacks launched during the conduct of hostilities have been dealt with in the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court the international treaty which to date deals most comprehensively with war crimes committed in international and non international armed conflicts and in the case law of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia the first international judicial body that has investigated and prosecuted crimes committed during the conduct of hostilities since World War II
