The Critical Response to Musil's The Man Without Qualities Timothy J. Mehigan, 2003 Table of contents Robert Musil's 'The Man Without Qualities' Philip Payne, 1988-08-26 This is the first comprehensive study of The Man Without Qualities guides the reader towards Musil's central concerns The World as Metaphor in Robert Musil's *The Man Without Qualities Genese Grill, 2012 The first study to utilize the Klagenfurt Edition of Musil's Nachlass offers a close reading of textual variations emphasizing Musil's commitment to the artist's role in re-creating the world Robert Musil known to be a scientific and philosophical thinker was committed to aesthetics as a process of experimental creation of an ever-shifting reality Musil wanted above all to be a creative writer and obsessively engaged in almost endless deferral via variations and metaphoric possibilities in his novel project The Man without Qualities This lifelong process of writing is embodied in the unfinished novel by a recurring metaphor of self-generating de-centered circle worlds The present study analyzes this structure with reference to Musil's concepts of the utopia of the Other Condition Living and Dead Words Specific and Non-Specific Emotions Word Magic and the Still Life In contrast to most recent studies of Musil it concludes that the extratemporal metaphoric experience of the Other Condition does not fail but rather constitutes the formal and ethical core of Musil's novel The first study to utilize the newly published Klagenfurt Edition of Musil's literary remains a searchable annotated text The World as Metaphor offers a close reading of variations and text genesis shedding light not only on Musil's novel but also on larger questions about the modernist artist's role and responsibility in consciously re-creating the world Genese Grill holds a PhD in Germanic Literatures and Languages from the Graduate School and University Center of the City University of New York A Companion to the Works of Robert Musil Philip Payne, Graham Bartram, Galin Tihanov, 2007 The analyses in this title are embedded in an appreciation of the intellectual context's of Musil's writing yielding fresh insights into his artistic accomplishment and his place in the Austrian and German traditions of the 20th century

Understanding Robert Musil Allen Thiher, 2009 Deft analysis of the fiction, theater and essays of the author of The Man without Qualities In this critical introduction to the major works of Austrian modernist writer Robert Musil 1880-1942 Allen Thiher offers deft analysis of Musil's short fiction, theater and essays and his major novel The Man without Qualities Thiher maps Musil's development as a writer illustrating how his work evolved in response to catastrophic historical events such as World War I the collapse of the Austro-Hungarian Empire and Hitler's seizure of power From this historical context Thiher traces how Musil began his career by writing a prescient first novel about ideological developments in German culture and at the same time a doctoral thesis on scientific epistemology Following his service in World War I Musil began to view writing as his vocation and during this early period in his literary career he produced short fiction, plays and some of the most interesting essays on politics, ethics and literature to be published during the Weimar era In exploring these writings as well as The Man without Qualities a work left unfinished upon Musil's death in exile during World War II Thiher's study plumbs

the depths of Musil's ambition and accomplishments and presents a concise interpretation of the lasting significance of the writer's interrogations of the foundations of modern European culture The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Urban Literary Studies Jeremy Tambling, 2022-10-29 This encyclopaedia will be an indispensable resource and recourse for all who are thinking about cities and the urban and the relation of cities to literature and to ways of writing about cities Covering a vast terrain this work will include entries on theorists individual writers individual cities countries cities in relation to the arts film and music urban space pre early and modern cities concepts and movements and definitions amongst others Written by an international team of contributors this will be the first resource of its kind to pull together such a comprehensive overview of the field German Romantic Literary Theory Ernst Behler, 1993-04-22 Professor Behler provides a view of the literary work and the artistic process developed in the German Romantic period Stefan Heym Peter Hutchinson, 1992-07-09 Stefan Heym's uncompromising stance made him unpopular with a succession of political regimes The Nazis the CIA and the East German secret police all held files on him He was Hitler's youngest literary exile McCarthyism was to drive him from the USA and even in what appeared his natural home the first socialist state on German soil he was to become the country's leading dissident By continuing to compose in both English and German however he maintained an international reputation and has been translated into over twenty languages This study traces Heym's career principally by reference to his novels journalism and political essays from his earliest works All his novels are analysed the major ones in depth and English translations of all German quotations are provided Peter Hutchinson focuses particularly on Heym's battles against Stalinism and censorship and the way in which his courageous defiance of a repressive regime inspired others and paved the way for the new eastern literature of the eighties Friedrich Schiller Lesley Sharpe, 1991-06-13 Lesley Sharpe assesses Schiller's development as a dramatist poet and thinker against the background of his life The Confusions of Young Törless Robert Musil, 2014 Set in a boarding school in a remote area of the Habsburg Empire at the turn of the last century The Confusions of Young Torless is an intense study of an adolescent's psychological development as he struggles to come to terms with his conflicting emotions Through his relationship with two other boys Torless is led into sadistic and sexual encounters with a third pupil which both repel and fascinate him Estranged from everyday life Torless gradually learns to accept his experiences and describe them with analytical precision Accident Ross Hamilton, 2010-10 An accidental glance at a newspaper notice causes Rousseau to collapse under the force of a vision A car accidentally hits Giacometti and he experiences an epiphany Darwin introduces accident to the basic process of life and Freud looks to accident as the expression of unconscious desire Accident Ross Hamilton claims is the force that mak Essayism Thomas J. great novel As the utopian projection of a world in which the conditional mood is preferred to the indicative Robert Musil's ambitious novel The Man Without Qualities is widely recognized as a great example of aesthetic modernism and a profound reflection on the postmodern condition Based on the new and more inclusive English translation by Sophie Wilkins and Burton Pike this study provides the English speaking reader with a well researched commentary that situates Musil's novel in the cultural literary and scientific context of the early 20th century Revealing the novel's many philosophical underpinnings the study analyzes the intersection of theoretical reflection and aesthetic imagination essential to Musil's programmatic move beyond realism Thomas Sebastian explores Musil's background in experimental psychology which he studied under the pioneering psychologist Carl Stumpf and how it and other strains of scientific thought including that of Ernst Mach on whose philosophical ideas Musil wrote his doctoral thesis are reflected in his great novel Thomas Sebastian is Associate Professor of German at Trinity University in San Antonio Texas

Psyche and Text Henry Sussman, 1993-01-01 Sussman here explores the relevance and value of object relations theory to literature and literary studies His study of character treats literature as a medium in which important relationships to conceptualized others artifacts mentors activities and schools of thought are being worked through Although rooted in the psychoanalytical model this book is ultimately a study of character and of the conditions of subjectivity and intellectual work in the contemporary world No background in literature or psychoanalysis is necessary for its understanding and productive use Beginning his study of character with Sophocles The Antigone and Shakespeare's Othello Sussman then goes on to locate the underpinnings of twentieth century notions of the grandiose and of subjective emptiness in the Romantic exploration of the sublime Discussions of characterization in Kafka Joyce and Beckett lead to an extended reading of Musil's A Man Without Qualities To show the increasing awareness of narcissistic psychopathology in contemporary popular culture Sussman also includes readings of Citizen Kane and The Silence of the Lambs
