School Law In Changing Times:

Contract Law in Changing Times Normann Witzleb, 2022-12-30 This collection of essays provides a rich and contemporary discussion of the principle of pacta sunt servanda This principle which requires that valid agreements are to be honoured is a cornerstone of contract law Focusing on contributions from Asia this book shows that despite its natural and universal appeal the pacta sunt servanda principle is neither absolute nor immutable Exceptions to the binding force of contract must be available in limited circumstances to avoid hardship and unfairness This book offers readers new comparative perspectives on the appropriate balance between contractual certainty and flexibility in an era of social instability Expert authors mostly from East and Southeast Asia explore when their domestic legal systems allow exceptions from the binding force of contracts Doctrines discussed include impossibility frustration change of circumstance force majeure illegality as well as rights of withdrawal Other chapters consider the importance of the pacta principle in international law The challenges posed by the COVID 19 pandemic feature strongly in the majority of contributions

School Health Education in Changing Times Deana Leahy, Lisette Burrows, Louise McCuaig, Jan Wright, Dawn Penney, 2015-09-16 This book explores the complex nexus of discourses principles and practices within which educators mobilise school based health education Through an interrogation of the ideas informing particular models and approaches to health education the authors provide critical insights into the principles and practices underpinning approaches to health education policy curriculum pedagogy and assessment Drawing on extensive literature and research the book explores and considers what health education can and should do Chapters examine the extent to which health education past and present has attended to the needs and interests of young people in school environments as well as assess common pedagogical approaches and whether the outcomes tally with expectations By considering the problems in teaching health education curriculum making health education pedagogies and porous classrooms the book offers a knowledge base from which educators can consider how theories and models can sit together to shape curriculum and influence practice School Health Education in Changing Times will be of key interest to postgraduate students researchers and academics in the field of health education It will also be a valuable resource for teacher educators current teachers and those on professional development courses who want to navigate the moral minefield surrounding health education

Changing Times In Teacher Education Marvin F. Wideen, Peter P. Grimmett, 2013-05-13 Pressures for reform in teacher education have begun to take on the same sense of urgency as school reform Those faculties of education who have been strong advocates for change in the schools now find themselves the subject of similar pressures from governmental policy makers Attempts at change have taken place in many different countries and jurisdictions around the world This book details through a series of international vignettes how teachers are responding to the changing times and social contexts in which they do their work The authors hold the view that changes are inevitable in teacher education but what is not clear is who will control the changes and whether the end result will actually improve the preparation of teachers The theme of the book is that the reform of teacher education should be informed by intelligent debate and that any attempt to restructure teacher preparation should result from a careful reconceptualisation of its purposes and processes      The Primary School in Changing Times Tony

Townsend, 2002-09-11 Following substantial changes throughout the Australian education system primary schools are no longer in the protected position of having a regulated flow of clients a pre determined curriculum and marginal levels of staff development Recent moves have brought new or increased responsibilities for all schools in areas such as curriculum and policy development staff development monitoring and assessment the use of new technologies resource allocation This book seeks to review the impact of this change on Australian primary schools on the people who are involved with them and the issues they face Primary education is being re structured throughout the world and therefore these issues are of great interest and relevance to educators worldwide      The Corporate Contract in Changing Times Steven Davidoff

Solomon, Randall Stuart Thomas, 2019-03-08 Over the past few decades significant changes have occurred across capital markets Shareholder activists have become more prominent institutional investors have begun to wield more power and intermediaries like investment advisory firms have greatly increased their influence These changes to the economic environment in which corporations operate have outpaced changes in basic corporate law and left corporations uncertain of how to respond to the new dynamics and adhere to their fiduciary duties to stockholders With The Corporate Contract in Changing Times Steven Davidoff Solomon and Randall Stuart Thomas bring together leading corporate law scholars judges and lawyers from top corporate law firms to explore what needs to change and what has prevented reform thus far Among the topics addressed are how the law could be adapted to the reality that activist hedge funds pose a more serious threat to corporations than the hostile takeovers and how statutory laws such as the rules governing appraisal rights could be reviewed in the wake of appraisal arbitrage Together the contributors surface promising paths forward for future corporate law and public policy      Changing Schools for Changing Times Kerry J. Kennedy, 2005 This book a statement of genuine concern on the state of the school curriculum in Hong Kong by a veteran educator forms a comprehensive account of current curriculum development implementation and interpretation Kennedy invites the reader to critically examine how local and global issues influence the way the Hong Kong curriculum has been constructed Against this theoretical background he maintains a clear practical focus on present policies of the educational authority and suggests a new curriculum in various fields This book sheds light on recent pressure for curriculum change and reform in Hong Kong offering fresh insights to those concerned with the state of education in both Hong Kong and cities around the world      Changing Times Jenny

Carlyon, Diana Morrow, 2014-02-01 From the golden weather of postwar economic growth through the globalization economic challenges and protest of the 1960s and 1970s to the free market revolution and new immigrants of the 1980s and 1990s and beyond this account the most complete and comprehensive history of New Zealand since 1945 illustrates the chronological and social history of the country with the engaging stories of real individuals and their experiences Leading historians Jennifer Carlyon and Diana Morrow discuss in great depth New Zealand's move toward nuclear free status its embrace of a small state free market ideology and the seeming rejection of its citizens of a society known for the worship of averages Stories of pirate radio in Auckland's Hauraki Gulf the first DC8 jets landing at Mangere airport feminists liberating pubs public protests over the closing of post offices and indigenous language nests vividly demonstrate how a postwar society famous around the world for its dull conformity became one of the most ethnically economically and socially diverse countries on earth
