Plaidoyer Pour Les Intellectuels:

Plaidoyer pour les intellectuels Jean-Paul Sartre, 2020-05-28 Rethinking Intellectual History Dominick LaCapra, 1983

Dominick LaCapra calls for a new view of intellectual history one that will revitalize the importance of reading and interpreting significant texts In ten essays he reformulates the problem of the relation between the great texts of the Western tradition and their contexts Seeking to refine context into a concept useful to historical research LaCapra urges intellectual historians to learn from lessons and developments in contemporary literary criticism and philosophy fields that have undertaken a radical reassessment of the reading of texts The Figural Jew Sarah Hammerschlag, 2010-05-15 The rootless Jew wandering disconnected from history homeland and nature was often the target of early twentieth century nationalist rhetoric aimed against modern culture But following World War II a number of prominent French philosophers recast this maligned figure in positive terms and in so doing transformed postwar conceptions of politics and identity Sarah Hammerschlag explores this figure of the Jew from its prewar usage to its resuscitation by Jean Paul Sartre Emmanuel Levinas Maurice Blanchot and Jacques Derrida Sartre and Levinas idealized the Jew's rootlessness in order to rethink the foundations of political identity Blanchot and Derrida in turn used the figure of the Jew to call into question the very nature of group identification By chronicling this evolution in thinking Hammerschlag ultimately reveals how the figural Jew can function as a critical mechanism that exposes the political dangers of mythic allegiance whether couched in universalizing or particularizing terms Both an intellectual history and a philosophical argument The Figural Jew will set the agenda for all further consideration of Jewish identity modern Jewish thought and continental philosophy Intellectuals in Twentieth-Century France Jeremy Jennings, 2016-07-27 This book examines the role and place of the intellectual in twentieth century French society The essays are for the most part written by eminent French scholars and make available to the English speaking reader a growing body of research which explores the ethical and historical issues raised by the prominence of the intellectual in politics since the Dreyfus Affair The volume concludes with an examination of the contrasting and complementary roles of the French and British intellectual Absent Minds Stefan Collini, 2006 An account of the question of intellectuals in 20th century Britain this book challenges the myth that there are no real intellectuals in Britain and offers an analysis of the intellectual as a concept as well as detailed discussions of influential figures such as T S Eliot George Orwell and Edward Said Poetry Proscribed James Petterson, 2008 Th ophile de Viau gets burned again Andr Ch nier and the zero degree of revolution Charles Baudelaire's failing appeal Andr Breton contra all Decolonising the Intellectual Jane Hiddleston, 2014 This book explores the impossible dilemma facing Francophone intellectuals writing in the lead up to decolonisation How could they redefine their culture and the humanity they felt had been denied by the colonial project in terms that did not replicate the French thinking by which they were formed Women Intellectuals in Post-68 France I. women thinkers overlooking some major women intellectuals This book aims redresses this balance by studying these forgotten intellectuals creating a cultural and theoretical re evaluation of the gendered phenomenon of the public intellectual in France Sartre's Life, Times and Vision du Monde William L. Jean-Paul Sartre Jean-Pierre Boulé, 2011-05-25 Jean Paul Sartre Mind and Body Word and Deed celebrates Sartre's polyvalence with an examination of Sartrean philosophy literature and politics In four distinct yet related sections twelve scholars from three continents examine Sartre's thought writing and action over his long career Sartre and the Body reappraises Sartre's work in dialogue with other philosophers past and present including Maine de Biran Maurice Merleau Ponty and Didier Anzieu Sartre and Time offers a first hand account by Michel Contat of Sartre and Beauvoir working together and a philosophy in practice analysis by François Noudelmann Ideology and Politics uses Sartrean notions of commitment and engagement to address modern and contemporary politics including insights into Castro De Gaulle Sarkozy and Obama Finally an important but neglected episode of Sartre's life the visit that he and Beauvoir made to Japan in 1966 is narrated with verve and humour by Professor Suzuki Michihiko who first met Sartre during that visit and remained in touch subsequently Taken together these twelve chapters make a strong case for the continued relevance of Sartre today

May 68 in French Fiction and Film Margaret Attack, 1999 This is the first study of May 68 in fiction and in film It looks at the ways the events themselves were represented in narrative evaluates the impact these crucial times had on French cultural and intellectual history and offers readings of texts which were shaped by it The chosen texts concentrate upon important features of May and its aftermath the student rebellion the workers strikes the question of the intellectuals sexuality feminism the political thriller history and textuality Attention is paid to the context of the social and cultural history of the Fifth Republic to Gaullism and to the cultural politics of gauchisme The book aims to show the importance of the interplay of real and imaginary in the texts of May and the emphasis placed upon the problematic of writing and interpretation It argues that re-reading the texts of May forces a reconsideration of the existing accounts of postwar cultural history The texts of May reflect on social order on rationality logic and modes of representation and are this highly relevant to contemporary debates on modernity

François Mauriac Edward Welch, 2006 While François Mauriac's reputation as a novelist is well established it is often forgotten that fiction forms only part of his output and that in the post war years especially it was principally his activities as a journalist which kept him in the public eye His interventions in the key debates of the period helped to consolidate his position as a major intellectual alongside Jean Paul Sartre and Albert Camus This book examines the evolution of François Mauriac's career during the twentieth century and his gradual transformation from novelist to intellectual Situating Mauriac and his activities firmly in their socio cultural context it draws in particular on the insights provided by Bourdieusian sociology to explore the mechanisms and social processes which allow Mauriac to emerge as an authoritative voice of moral conscience In doing so it offers new perspective on key moments in his career from his changing fortunes as a novelist in the 1930s examined here for the first time through the prism of his reception by the influential Nouvelle Revue française to his unlikely collaboration with the then radical L'Express in the 1950s At the same time it argues that tracing Mauriac's trajectory helps to crystallise the broader changes affecting the literary and cultural landscape in France during the twentieth century

Sartre: Literature and Theory Rhiannon Goldthorpe, 1984 In this major study Rhiannon Goldthorpe takes up the challenge of Sartre's diversity in an original and provocative way Her detailed and comprehensive exploration of the relationship between the theoretical and literary works pays due attention to their characteristic complexity The discussion of La Nausée Les Mouches Huis clos Les Mains sales and Les Séquestrés d'Altona for example does not present these literary texts as mere illustrations of Sartre's theories of consciousness imagination and emotion but as subtle philosophical and linguistic investigations in their own right In addition by reference to recently published fragments from Sartre's earlier work Goldthorpe calls into question existing views of Sartre's intellectual development and provides a new history of the crucial Sartrean concept of commitment

Intellectuals and Cultural Policy Jeremy Ahearne, Oliver Bennett, 2007-06-14 Intellectuals and policy analysts might appear to inhabit two different worlds Intellectuals aspire to articulate issues of universal concern policy analysts attend to the detail of specific measures and programmes How far do these common assumptions match up to reality What happens when intellectuals engage with cultural institutions and the machinery of government And how far is cultural policy connected to a history of ideas The essays brought together here attempt to answer these questions From the English Romantics to Lenin's wife from Plato to Herbert Schiller this book offers new insights into how intellectuals from Europe Canada and North America have sought over time to assert their cultural values in public life
