Robert Smithson Robert Smithson, 1982 Robert Smithson Robert Hobbs, 1982 Robert Smithson Robert Smithson, Eugenie Tsai, Cornelia H. Butler, Thomas E. Crow, Alexander Alberro, Museum of Contemporary Art (Los Angeles, Calif.), Moira Roth, Whitney Museum of American Art, 2004 This catalogue is the major study of Smithson 1938-1973 who is most renowned as an early earthworks artist and creator of Spiral Jetty a 1 500 foot rock coil dramatically situated in the Great Salt Lake Robert Smithson, 1982 Robert Smithson Unearthed Eugenie Tsai, Robert Smithson, 1991 Robert Smithson Unearthed Drawings Collages Writings the first full survey of this artist's work reevaluates its larger resonance and its place in the historical development of recent art Eugenie Tsai's representation of the work of Smithson expands our understanding of his achievement Looking beyond the Minimalist structures and the earthworks for which she is best known she explores his intellectual and aesthetic roots his early imaginings and discovers a richer range of personal affect in Smithson's art than we had been led to expect Robert Smithson Ann Reynolds, 2004-10-01 An examination of the interplay between cultural context and artistic practice in the work of Robert Smithson Robert Smithson 1938-1973 produced his best known work during the 1960s and early 1970s a period in which the boundaries of the art world and the objectives of art making were questioned perhaps more consistently and thoroughly than any time before or since In Robert Smithson Ann Reynolds elucidates the complexity of Smithson's work and thought by placing them in their historical context a context greatly enhanced by the vast archival materials that Smithson's widow Nancy Holt donated to the Archives of American Art in 1987 The archive provides Reynolds with the remnants of Smithson's working life magazines postcards from other artists notebooks and perhaps most important his library from which she reconstructs the physical and conceptual world that Smithson inhabited Reynolds explores the relation of Smithson's art making thinking about art making writing and interaction with other artists to the articulated ideology and discreet assumptions that determined the parameters of artistic practice of the time A central focus of Reynolds's analysis is Smithson's fascination with the blind spots at the center of established ways of seeing and thinking about culture For Smithson New Jersey was such a blind spot and he returned there again and again alone and with fellow artists to make art that through its location alone undermined assumptions about what and more important where art should be For those who guarded the integrity of the established art world New Jersey was elsewhere but for Smithson elsewheres were the defining if often forgotten locations on the map of contemporary culture

Anywhere or Not at All Peter Osborne, 2013-06-04 A new reading of the philosophy of contemporary art by the author of The Politics of Time Contemporary art is the object of inflated and widely divergent claims But what kind of discourse can open it up effectively to critical analysis Anywhere or Not at All is a major philosophical intervention in art theory that challenges the terms of established positions through a new approach at once philosophical historical social and art critical Developing the position that contemporary art is postconceptual art the book progresses through a dual series of conceptual constructions and interpretations of particular works to assess the art from a number of perspectives contemporaneity and its global context art against aesthetic the Romantic pre history of conceptual art the multiplicity of modernisms transcategoriality conceptual abstraction photographic ontology digitalization and the institutional and existential complexities of art space and art time Anywhere or Not at All maps out the conceptual space for an art that is both critical and contemporary in the era of global capitalism Winner of the 2014 Annual Book Prize of the Association for the Study of the Arts of the Present USA

Art History as Social Praxis David Craven, 2017-08-21 Art History as Social Praxis The Collected Writings of David Craven brings together more than thirty essays that chart the development of Craven's voice as an unorthodox Marxist who applied historical materialism to the study of modern art This book demonstrates the range and versatility of David Craven's praxis as a democratic socialist art historian who assessed the essential role the visual arts play in imagining more just and equitable societies The essays collected here reveal Craven's lifelong commitment to exposing interstices between western and non western cultures by researching the reciprocating influences between First and Third World artists critics and historians

Urban Maps Richard Brook, Nick Dunn, 2016-12-05 This book concerns the city and the devices that define the urban environment by their presence representation or interpretation The texts offer an interdisciplinary discourse and critique of the complex systems artifacts interventions and evidences that can inform our understanding of urban territories on surfaces in the margins or within voids The diverse media of arts practices as well as commercial branding are used to explore narratives that reveal latent characteristics of urban situations that conventional architectural inquiry is unable to do The subjects covered are presented within a wider framework of urban theory into which are embedded case study examples that outline the practices processes and interpretations of each theme The chapters provide a contemporary reading of urban socio cultural conditions using mapping as a lens to explore and communicate the social phenomena and lived experiences of the dynamic and temporal city Mapping is developed as a form of critical instrumentality to expose record and contribute to the understanding of the singular essences of space place and networks by thematic cognitive and experiential modes of investigation
