Smith, 1997 Robert T Smith was a Star Tribune columnist from 1968 to 1989 Funny or sad his columns always told stories worth reading This book collects the best of his work Nearly 70 of Smith s favorite and most memorable columns are collected here Front Row at the White House Helen Thomas, 1999 White House journalist for more than five decades chronicles her work covering all of the presidents since John F Kennedy Shares personal reminiscences of the U S leaders as well as of the first ladies Bestseller Religious Experience Revisited, 2016-09-07

Religious Experience Revisited explores a dilemma which has haunted the study of religion since William James Is religion rooted in experiences Is religion rooted in expressions How are experiences and expressions related The contributors to this international and interdisciplinary compilation explore the possibilities and the impossibilities of a hermeneutics of religion Combining theology and philosophy with biblical cultural historical and literary studies they examine how religious experiences and religious expressions have been entangled in the past and in the present These entanglements call for interdisciplinary conversations in which those who study experiences and those who study expressions can learn from each other in order to carve out important and instructive spaces for the study of religion Keynes and the Classics

Reconsidered James C.W. Ahlpor, 1998-03-31 Keynes and the Classics Reconsidered is a collection of scholarly work re evaluating Keynes s revolution in economic thought both in the method of macroeconomic reasoning and in policy making This book brings together mostly a younger generation of economists to revisit Keynes s interpretation of the classics and its impact on macroeconomic theory and policy There has been a considerable advance in the literature re interpreting the classics and the early neoclassical economists Most of the contributing authors have themselves been active participants in this reinterpretation The participation of Robert Clower an active participant in the Keynes versus the classics debate since the 1960s brings a particularly significant retrospective to this fresh look at the record Keynes and the Classics Reconsidered will be of interest to policy makers and economists especially those working in the areas of macro and monetary economics

The American New Woman Revisited Martha H. Patterson, 2008 In North America between 1894 and 1930 the rise of the New Woman sparked controversy on both sides of the Atlantic and around the world As she demanded a public voice as well as private fulfillment through work education and politics American journalists debated and defined her Who was she and where did she come from Was she to be celebrated as the agent of progress or reviled as a traitor to the traditional family Over time the dominant version of the American New Woman became typified as white educated and middle class the suffragist progressive reformer and bloomer wearing bicyclist By the 1920s the jazz dancing flapper epitomized her Yet she also had many other faces Bringing together a diverse range of essays from the periodical press of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Martha H Patterson shows how the New Woman differed according to region class politics race ethnicity and historical circumstance In addition to the New Woman s prevailing incarnations she appears here as a gun wielding heroine imperialist symbol assimilationist icon entrepreneur socialist anarchist thief vamp and eugenicist Together these readings redefine our understanding of the New Woman and her cultural impact The Tailor, 1908 Journal of the Executive Proceedings of the Senate of the United States of America United States. Congress. Senate, 1887 The Black Panther Party (reconsidered) Charles Earl Jones, 1998 This new collection of essays contributed by scholars and former Panthers is a ground breaking work that offers thought provoking and pertinent observations about the many facets of the Party By placing the perspectives of participants and scholars side by side Dr Jones presents an insider view and initiates a vital dialogue that is absent from most historical studies Campaign Mode Michael John Burton, Daniel M. Shea, 2003 The pressures of contemporary electioneering force political professionals into campaign mode a state of mind that merges a visceral drive to win elections with a deep seated habit of strategic thinking Wise political professionals know the basic rules of electoral strategy and how to read the political terrain Campaign Mode examines the strategic histories of five successful congressional candidates Ohio's Ted Strickland Georgia's Bob Barr California's Loretta Sanchez Tennessee's Harold Ford Jr and Pennsylvania's Rick Santorum The authors both of whom have advised major political figures combine original interviews survey data historical investigation and first hand observation of the candidates to reveal the inner workings of electoral politics They demonstrate that campaigns do matter and show readers how to think like political professionals The Myth of Ham in Nineteenth-Century American Christianity S. Johnson, 2004-12-02 This monograph is an original study of what is commonly termed the American myth of Ham It examines black and white Americans recourse to the biblical character of Ham as a cultural strategy for explaining racial origins Previous studies in the area have been restricted to associating the Hamitic idea with pro slavery arguments whereas the thesis of this project reveals a fundamental irony black American Christians who reinforced the meanings of illegitimacy by appealing to Ham as the ancestor of the race General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Congress Senate, 1887 Revisiting Italy Rebecca Butler, 2021-05-05 With the rise of mass tourism Italy became increasingly accessible to Victorian women travellers not only as a locus of artistic culture but also as a site of political enquiry Despite being outwardly denied a political voice in Britain many female tourists were conspicuous in their commitment to the Italian campaign for national independence or Risorgimento 1815-61 Revisiting Italy brings several previously unexamined travel accounts by women to light during a decisive period in this political campaign Revealing the wider currency of the Risorgimento in British literature Butler situates once popular but now marginalized writers Clotilda Stisted Janet Robertson Mary Pasqualino Selina Bunbury Margaret Dunbar and Frances Minto Elliot alongside more prominent figures the Shelley Byron circle the Brownings Florence Nightingale and the Kemble sisters Going beyond the travel book she analyses a variety of forms of travel writing including unpublished letters privately printed accounts and
