Anthony Trollope,2016-01-05 MRS BAGGETT Mr William Whittlestaff was strolling very slowly up and down the long walk at his country seat in Hampshire thinking of the contents of a letter which he held crushed up within his trousers pocket He always breakfasted exactly at nine and the letters were supposed to be brought to him at a quarter past The postman was really due at his hall door at a quarter before nine but though he had lived in the same house for above fifteen years and though he was a man very anxious to get his letters he had never yet learned the truth about them He was satisfied in his ignorance with 9 15 a m but on this occasion the post boy as usual was ten minutes after that time Mr Whittlestaff had got through his second cup of tea and was stranded in his chair having nothing to do with the empty cup and plates before him for the space of two minutes and consequently when he had sent some terrible message out to the post boy and then had read the one epistle which had arrived on this morning he thus liberated his mind I'll be whipped if I will have anything to do with her But this must not be taken as indicating the actual state of his mind but simply the condition of anger to which he had been reduced by the post boy If any one were to explain to him afterwards that he had so expressed himself on a subject of such importance he would have declared of himself that he certainly deserved to be whipped himself In order that he might in truth make up his mind on the subject he went out with his hat and stick into the long walk and there thought out the matter to its conclusion The letter which he held in his pocket ran as follows St Tawell's Norwich February 18 MY DEAR MR WHITTLESTAFF Poor Mrs Lawrie has gone at last She died this morning at seven o'clock and poor Mary is altogether alone in the world I have asked her to come in among us for a few days at any rate till the funeral shall be over But she has refused knowing I suppose how crowded and how small our house is What is she to do You know all the circumstances much better than I do She says herself that she had always been intended for a governess

and that she will of course follow out the intention which had been fixed on between her and her father before his death But it is a most weary prospect especially for one who has received no direct education for the purpose She has devoted herself for the last twelve months to Mrs Lawrie as though she had been her mother You did not like Mrs Lawrie nor did I nor indeed did poor Mary love her very dearly But she at any rate did her duty by her step mother I know that in regard to actual money you will be generous enough but do turn the matter over in your mind and endeavour to think of some future for the poor girl Yours very faithfully Emma King An Old Man's Love Anthony Trollope,1884 Love , Stranger than Fiction LC Giroux,2015-07-31 Psst I ve got a secret and I want to share it If you join my reader s group I ll send you Pay Back the second book in my Lovers and Other Strangers series and the Lovers and Other Strangers series The Short Stories free To sign up all you have to do is go to my website You can find all of my books listed there along with longer excerpts Hope to see you soon Love was for other people Wren Frey has watched her brother and her best friend get married and live happily ever after For her and her daughter she knows that day will never come Other people he can trust it s himself he can t Ian Wills spent half his life fighting in the marines as a vice principal the battles are different but the victories are more personal This friends to lovers story shows sometimes the sweetest rewards come to those that need them most Redhawk's Heart Aimée Thurlo,1999 Redhawk s Heart by Aimee Thurlo released on Jan 25 1999 is available now for purchase
