Matters Of The Spirit Human Holy And Otherwise:

Matters of the Spirit Danny McKenzie,1998 Summa Theologiae, Prima Pars: Volume 3, Human Beings and God's Governance of Creation, QQ 75-119 Thomas Aquinas,Thomas de Vio Cajetan,2023-06-23 This book is an introduction to three questions on love according to St Thomas Aquinas Summa Theologiae I II qq 26 28 These three questions reflect on the nature of love q 26 the causes of love q 27 and the effects of love q 28 It is thus an introduction to the entire phenomenon of love both as a bodily passion and an act of the will The purpose is to present the Thomistic and broadly scholastic account of human and divine love from a philosophical and theological perspective It aims to be a theological and philosophical study of the topic useful both for a graduate professional audience as part of an undergraduate or graduate course and perhaps for the educated reader The thesis of the book is that contrary to contemporary conceptions not all loves are created equal Some loves perfect us and some loves corrupt us The worth of a love depends on its object and end St Thomas thus presents an objective and teleological account of human and divine love that is of philosophical and theological interest The method is broadly exegetical presenting a careful reading of the text and supplying the philosophical and theological background which the text of Aquinas assumes The scope of the work is limited to three questions ST I II qq 26 28 References to interpretative disputes of Aquinas and references to further resources in the secondary literature will be mostly limited to the footnotes making the body of the text accessible to more readers Star of the West ,1916 First Corinthians, 2nd Ed. material being empathy the logic of the cross and the meaning of suffering The question of the human being is asked in light of divine being by harnessing the fertile tension between the methods of phenomenology and metaphysics Stein spurs us on to a rendezvous with the stream of perennial philosophy that has watered the landscape of thought since conscious time began In the end the meaning of human being is thrown into sharp relief against the darkness of all that is not authentically human

Animals in Heaven? Terry Martin, 2024-09-26 Christians of all traditions have often puzzled with the question Do dogs go to heaven Drawing on Catholic teaching and on his long pastoral experience as a parish priest Terry Martin expands that concept to consider wider issues around all animals domesticated and free living and why they are here Within a context of Christian faith he seeks to understand the place of animals in God's complex creation and the relationship that human beings have for good or ill with those animals More than that he looks at the big questions which so many ask about who under God animals are and what meaning if any animal lives have from a Catholic Christian perspective

Richard Hooker and his Early Doctrine of Justification Corneliu C. Simut, 2019-10-01 Richard Hooker and his Early Doctrine of Justification explores the doctrine of justification the doctrine of faith and grace and the doctrine of Scripture and use of reason in the early theology of Richard Hooker In order to prove that Hooker was a Protestant Reformed theologian Simu concentrates on Hooker's doctrine of justification as reflected in his Learned Discourse of Justification which is the most important work of his early theology Unlike previous books on Hooker which use primarily the theology of Luther and Calvin to draw conclusions this book brings together quotations and ideas from the works of Luther Melancthon Zwingli Bucer Calvin and Beza to show that Hooker was a Protestant Reformed theologian Simu also discusses the theological context of Hooker's career by offering an analysis of the doctrine of justification in the theology of John Jewel John Whitgift Hooker's patrons and Thomas Cartwright and Walter Travers Hooker's Puritan opponents

Irenaeus of Lyons and the Theology of the Holy Spirit Anthony Briggman, 2012-01-12 Irenaeus theology of the Holy Spirit is often highly regarded amongst theologians today but that regard is not universal nor has an adequate volume of literature supported it This study provides a detailed examination of certain principal often distinctive aspects of Irenaeus pneumatology In contrast to those who have suggested Irenaeus held a weak conception of the person and work of the Holy Spirit Anthony Briggman demonstrates that Irenaeus combined Second Temple Jewish traditions of the spirit with New Testament theology to produce the most complex Jewish Christian pneumatology of the early church In so doing Irenaeus moved beyond his contemporaries by being the first author following the New Testament writings to construct a theological account in which binitarian logic did not diminish either the identity or activity of the Holy Spirit That is to say he was the first to support his Trinitarian convictions by means of Trinitarian logic Briggman advances the narrative that locates early Christian pneumatologies in the context of Jewish traditions regarding the spirit In particular he argues that the appropriation and repudiation of Second Temple Jewish forms of thought explain three moments in the development of Christian theology First the existence of a rudimentary pneumatology correlating to the earliest stage of Trinitarian theology in which a Trinitarian confession is accompanied by binitarian orientation logic such as in the thought of Justin Martyr Second the development of a sophisticated pneumatology correlating to a mature second century Trinitarian theology in which a Trinitarian confession is accompanied by Trinitarian logic This second moment is visible in Irenaeus thought which eschewed Jewish traditions that often hindered theological accounts of his near contemporaries such as Justin while adopting and adapting Jewish traditions that enabled him to strengthen and clarify his own understanding of the Holy Spirit Third the return to a rudimentary account of the Spirit at the turn of the third century when theologians such as Tertullian Origen and Novatian repudiated Jewish traditions integral to Irenaeus account of the Holy Spirit
