the church is one built by an enslaved people and formed from its beginning at the center of an oppressed community's fight for personhood and freedom. Such is the central tension in the identity and mission of the Black church in the United States. For decades the Black church and Black theology have held each other at arm's length. Black theology has emphasized the role of Christian faith in addressing racism and other forms of oppression, arguing that Jesus urged his disciples to seek the freedom of all peoples. Meanwhile the Black church, even when focused on social concerns, has often emphasized personal piety rather than social protest. With the rising influence of white evangelicalism, biblical fundamentalism, and the prosperity gospel, the divide has become even more pronounced. This book traces the historical significance of the rise and development of Black theology as an important conversation partner for the Black church. Calling for honest dialogue between Black and womanist theologians and Black pastors, this fresh theological treatment demands a new look at the church's essential mission. An informative work for historians, theologians, and humanities scholars interested in debating what the Black Church needs to be doing in the 21st century. Journal of African American History. As a person who is not Black, reading this book provided a learning experience for me. I could also see this book serving as a way to spark discussion involving all ethnic groups as to how we can all as fellow Christians blend the goals of saving lost people and moving the culture toward equality for everyone. Ministry Well written and meticulously researched. The Christian Century Meyer Brothers Druggist, 1913

The Churchman, 1914 Transactions of the American Society of Sanitary and Moral Prophylaxis, American Society of Sanitary and Moral Prophylaxis, 1910 Preaching the Manifold Grace of God, Volume 2 Ronald J. Allen, 2022-07-05. Preaching the Manifold Grace of God is a two-volume work describing theologies of preaching from the historical and contemporary periods. Volume 1 focuses on historical theological families: Orthodox, Roman Catholic, Lutheran, Reformed, Anabaptist, Anglican, Episcopal, Wesleyan, Baptist, African American, Stone, Campbell, Friends, and Pentecostal. Volume 2 focuses on families that are evangelical, liberal, neo-orthodox, postliberal, existential, radical, orthodox, deconstructionist, Black liberation, womanist, Latinx liberation, Mujerista, Asian American, Asian American feminist, LGBTQAI, Indigenous, postcolonial, and process. In each case, the author describes the circumstances in which the theological family emerged, describes the purposes and characteristics of preaching from that perspective, and assesses the strengths and limitations of the approach. Ladies' Pages Noliwe M. Rooks, 2004. Noliwe M. Rooks's Ladies' Pages sheds light on the most influential African American women's magazines: Ringwood's Afro American Journal of Fashion, Half-Century Magazine for the Colored Homemaker, Tan, Confessions, Essence, and O the Oprah Magazine, and their little-known success in shaping the lives of Black women. Ladies' Pages demonstrates how these rare and thought-provoking publications contributed to the development of African American culture and the ways in which they in turn reflect important historical changes in Black communities. THE BOOK OF PROVERBS Chapters 1-15 Edward D.
