Principles Of Social Structuresoutheast Asia:

Principles of Social Structure Donald Edward Brown,1976      The Modern Anthropology of South-East Asia Victor King,William D. Wilder,2020-09-10 This is a comprehensive introduction to the social and cultural anthropology of South East Asia It provides an overview of the major theoretical issues and themes which have emerged from the engagement of anthropologists with South East Asian communities a succinct historical survey and analysis of the peoples and cultures of the region Most importantly the volume reveals the vitally important role which the study of the area has occupied in the development of the concepts and methods of anthropology from the perspectives of Edmund Leach to Clifford Geertz Maurice Freedman to Claude Levi Strauss Lauriston Sharp to Melford Spiro      Origins, History and Social Structure in Brunei Darussalam Victor T. King,Stephen C. Druce,2020-10-30 This wide ranging book re evaluates in detail the early history and historiography of Brunei Darussalam the origins of the sultanate its genealogical foundations and the structure and administration of Brunei society Contributors draw on the seminal work of Donald E Brown whose major monograph on the sultanate was published in 1970 and marked the beginnings of advanced sociological anthropological and historical research on Brunei Among the key issues addressed are status systems titles and social stratification Chinese sources for the study of Brunei Malay oral and written histories and traditions the symbolism meanings and origins of coronation rituals previously unknown sources for the study of Brunei history and the processes of incorporation of minority populations into the sultanate Contributions by leading scholars of Brunei Borneo and the wider Indonesian Malay world both from within Brunei Darussalam and beyond address some central preoccupations which Brown raised and which have been the subject of continued debate in Austronesian and Southeast Asian studies A novel contribution to the study of the history of Brunei Darussalam this book will be of interest to scholars of Southeast Asian history Asian history Colonial and Imperial history and anthropology      Southeast Asia Christoph Antweiler,2004      A Theory of Indigenous Southeast Asian Urbanism Richard A. O'Connor,1983 Modern Southeast Asian urban life follows cultural lines set out by the region s early Indic cities In this indigenous urban tradition the city rules society through a division of power and elaboration of urban centered status distinctions Where earlier studies sought Western patterns in Southeast Asian cities this is the first study to interpret the region s cities wholly within their own historical cultural continuities      Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Brunei Ooi Keat Gin,Victor T. King,2022-07-29 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Brunei presents an overview of significant themes issues and challenges pertinent to Brunei Darussalam in the twenty first century Multidisciplinary in coverage the contributions cover topics relating to philology history religion language and literature geography international relations economics politics and sociocultural traditions The Handbook is structured in eight parts Foundations History Faith and Ethnicity Literature Language and Education Economics Material Culture Empowerment Chapters focus on the recent past and contemporary developments in this unique country which has remained a Malay

Muslim sultanate sustaining its religious and traditional heritage encapsulated in the national philosophy Melayu Islam Beraja MIB Malay Islamic Monarchy The MIB philosophy represents the sultanate's three pillars of social cultural political and economic sustainability and the contributors discuss this concept in relation to the notion of Malay or Malaydom the official religion of the nation state Islam and monarchy as the essential system of government This Handbook is an invaluable reference work for students of Asian and Southeast Asian Studies and researchers interested in what is demographically the smallest country within the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN

Raiding, Trading, and Feasting Laura L. Junker, 1999-09-01 As early as the first millennium A D the Philippine archipelago formed the easternmost edge of a vast network of Chinese Southeast Asian Indian and Arab traders Items procured through maritime trade became key symbols of social prestige and political power for the Philippine chiefly elite Raiding Trading and Feasting presents the first comprehensive analysis of how participation in this trade related to broader changes in the political economy of these Philippine island societies By combining archaeological evidence with historical sources Laura Junker is able to offer a more nuanced examination of the nature and evolution of Philippine maritime trading chiefdoms Most importantly she demonstrates that it is the dynamic interplay between investment in the maritime luxury goods trade and other evolving aspects of local political economies rather than foreign contacts that led to the cyclical coalescence of larger and more complex chiefdoms at various times in Philippine history A broad spectrum of historical and ethnographic sources ranging from tenth century Chinese tributary trade records to turn of the century accounts of chiefly feasts of merit highlights both the diversity and commonality in evolving chiefly economic strategies within the larger political landscape of the archipelago

The political ascendance of individual polities the emergence of more complex forms of social ranking and long term changes in chiefly economies are materially documented through a synthesis of archaeological research at sites dating from the Metal Age late first millennium B C to the colonial period The author draws on her archaeological fieldwork in the Tanjay River basin to investigate the long term dynamics of chiefly political economy in a single region Reaching beyond the Philippine archipelago this study contributes to the larger anthropological debate concerning ecological and cultural factors that shape political economy in chiefdoms and early states It attempts to address the question of why Philippine polities like early historic kingdoms elsewhere in Southeast Asia have a segmentary political structure in which political leaders are dependent on prestige goods exchanges personal charisma and ritual pageantry to maintain highly personalized power bases Raiding Trading and Feasting is a volume of impressive scholarship and substantial scope unmatched in the anthropological and historical literature It will be welcomed by Pacific and Asian historians and anthropologists and those interested in the theoretical issues of chiefdoms

Continuity and Change in Brunei Darussalam Victor T. King, Stephen C. Druce, 2020-10-29 This book analyses the processes of social and economic change in Brunei Darussalam Drawing on recent studies undertaken by both locally based scholars and senior researchers from outside the state the book explores the underlying strengths characteristics and uniqueness of Malay Islamic Monarchy in Brunei Darussalam in a historical context and examines these in an increasingly challenging regional and global environment It considers events in Brunei s recent history and current socio cultural transformations which give expression to the traumatic years of decolonisation in Southeast Asia A wide range of issues focus on foreign non Bruneian narratives of Brunei as against insider or domestic accounts of the sultanate the status of minority ethnic groups in Brunei and the concept of Brunei society as well as changes in the character and composition of the famous water village Kampong Ayer as the cultural heartland of Brunei Malay culture and the socio cultural and economic effects of the resettlement of substantial segments of the population from a life on water to a life on land A timely and very important study on Brunei Darussalam the book will be of interest to anthropologists sociologists historians geographers and area studies specialists in Southeast Asian Studies and Asian Studies The Maloh of West Kalimantan Victor T. King, 2021-12-06 Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council s international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region Ilocano Irrigation Henry T.

Lewis,2019-09-30 This volume examines some of the major factors social demographic and environmental that account for the success of communal irrigation in Ilocos Norte and by implication its absence in adjacent areas other parts of the Philippines and more widely in other parts of insular Southeast Asia However whether this explanation accounts for all the factors involved or even adequately weighs those that are here discussed is secondary to the main concern of this volume corporate groups What zanjas irrigation societies show are repeated examples of how individual farmers working in concert developed and employed corporate principles to the solution of a common goal or problem It is a kind of solution that has been widely and effectively employed in much of human history Evolution, Literature, and Film Brian Boyd,Joseph Carroll,Jonathan Gottschall,2010 Jonathan Gottschall teaches English at Washington and Jefferson College Book Jacket

Borneo and Sulawesi Ooi Keat Gin,2019-11-28 This book presents a great deal of new research findings on the history of Borneo the history of Sulawesi and the interrelationship between the two islands Some specific chapters focus on empires and colonizers including the activities of James Brooke in Sulawesi of Chinese mining communities in Borneo and of the quisling issue in immediate post war Sarawak Other chapters consider indigenous peoples and how different regimes have handled them The book is published in honour of Victor T King a leading scholar in the field of Southeast Asian studies and a final chapter discusses his contribution to scholarship in particular his views on how area studies should be approached and the implications of this for future research RETHINKING INDONESIA'S FOREIGN POLICY: Principles in Evolving

Contemporary Dynamics Fadhila Inas Pratiwi,Brian Ainnurrohman,Aldora Amadhea Wijaya,2021-11-17 Penerbit Airlangga University Press ISBN 9786024737818 This book itself consists of two chapters 1 Peace and Security 2 Political Economy and Socio Cultural There were 17 papers in total that were presented in two panels 7 papers from the peace and security chamber and 10 papers from the political economy and socio cultural chamber These 17 papers are the final version of the selected ones as they have gone through some revision process In elaborating the ideas of the paper the authors could confidently choose the language they are using either it is English or Indonesian We also add our notable speakers and

panelist Professor Mark Beeson an International Politics Professor at the University of Western Australia and I Gede Wahyu Wicaksana S IP M Si Ph D who is an International Relations Department Lecturer in Universitas Airlangga

Peasant Pedlars and Professional Traders Ulrich Mai, Helmut Buchholt, 1987 Trading in the rural areas of developing countries provides a valuable source of cash income especially for small and landless peasants In a case study of the village of Kakas in the province of North Sulawesi Indonesia the authors depict the colourful market scene of a village pasar the selling and buying strategies of traders and customers and the characteristics of supply and demand They also shed light on the often neglected non economic aspects of the pasar such as its value for local communication and its role in the formation of a new sense of local identity and solidarity By means of studies of trader households this book also scrutinizes how rural households combine petty trade with other income generating activities such as cash cropping subsistence production wage labour and even work as a civil servant The authors also show how petty trade though highly efficient may well be an indicator of underdevelopment

Routledge Handbook of the Chinese Diaspora Chee-Beng Tan, 2013-02-11 With around 40 million people worldwide the ethnic Chinese and the Chinese in diaspora form the largest diaspora in the world The economic reform of China which began in the late 1970s marked a huge phase of migration from China and the new migrants many of whom were well educated have had a major impact on the local societies and on China This is the first interdisciplinary Handbook to examine the Chinese diaspora and provides a comprehensive analysis of the processes and effects of Chinese migration under the headings of Population and distribution Mainland China and Taiwan s policies on the Chinese overseas Migration past and present Economic and political involvement Localization transnational networks and identity Education literature and media The Routledge Handbook of the Chinese Diaspora brings together a significant number of specialists from a number of diverse disciplines and covers the major areas of the study of Chinese overseas This Handbook is therefore an important and valuable reference work for students scholars and policy makers worldwide who wish to understand the global phenomena of Chinese migration transnational connections and their cultural and identity transformation

Pentoutopia Thomas Diefenbach, 2022-09-26 This book is about Pentoutopia the model of a good society It shows how a society could be how a society should be a society where everyone is as free as possible where all institutions are as democratic as possible where all people have relatively equal conditions where life is just and where systems and processes are sustainable The book illustrates comprehensively and in detail how institutions organisations the economy and society can be based on and function according to the principles of freedom democracy equality justice and sustainability Moreover it demonstrates how Pentoutopia works how its people and institutions establish and maintain a society that is not just a distant utopia but a realistic achievable and doable utopia

Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Asia and Oceania Barbara A. West, 2010-05-19 Presents an alphabetical listing of information on the peoples of Asia and Oceania including origins prehistory history culture languages and relationships to other cultures

Biodiversity and the Precautionary Principle

Rosie Cooney, Barney Dickson, 2012 Great uncertainty typically surrounds decisions and management actions in the conservation of biodiversity and natural resource management and yet there are risks of serious and irreversible harm for both biodiversity and the humans that rely on it The precautionary principle arguably underlies all international conservation efforts and promotes acting to avoid serious or irreversible environmental harm despite lack of scientific certainty as to the likelihood magnitude or cause of harm This book is the first to examine the application of the precautionary principle to biodiversity conservation and natural resource management incorporating perspectives from scientists economists lawyers and practitioners from both developing and developed countries It analyses the application and impacts of the principle in many areas including forestry invasive alien species wildlife trade protected areas and fisheries in a range of national and international contexts Particular attention is drawn to issues of equity livelihoods science and politics and the book provides guidelines for applying the precautionary principle to biodiversity conservation and natural resource management
