The American Prison Francis T. Cullen, Mary K. Stohr, 2014 For the first time in four decades prison populations are declining and politicians have reached the consensus that mass imprisonment is no longer sustainable At this unique moment in the history of corrections the opportunity has emerged to discuss in meaningful ways how best to shape efforts to control crime and to intervene effectively with offenders The American Prison Imagining a Different Future by Francis T Cullen Cheryl Lero Johnson and Mary K Stohr pulls together established correctional scholars to imagine what this prison future might entail Each scholar uses his or her expertise to craft in an accessible way for students to read a blueprint for how to create a new penology along a particular theme For example one contributor writes about how to use existing research expertise to create a prison that is therapeutic and another provides insight on how to create a feminist prison In the final chapter the editors pull together the lessons learned in a cohesive comprehensive essay The English Prison Health System After a Decade of Austerity, 2010-2020 Nasrul Ismail, 2022-11-21 Austerity has reconfigured and scaled back the governance and delivery of public services and negatively affected society s most vulnerable groups This book opens up the closed world of English prisons to examine its impact on prison health governance and healthcare delivery It argues that austerity has been a decade long large scale political experiment that has caused debt to balloon eroded the prison health system and perpetuated a cycle of punishment resulting in sicker prisoners In short austerity has violated prisoners human rights Drawing on interviews and data from existing longitudinal and economic analyses the book demonstrates how austerity has resulted in high rates of recidivism diminished what remains of the welfare state and increased inequality and punitiveness Despite a decade of failure there is a marked political reluctance to dispense with austerity and the governmental juggernaut continues to produce the same result As the spectre of recession increases caused in part by Brexit and COVID 19 these failures are ever more perilous This book blends the interdisciplinary perspectives of criminology public health sociology law social policy politics and economics to enable greater understanding of the impact of austerity on health governance prison healthcare the prison workforce and prisoners health and safety It challenges current policy practice and thinking and is a must read for anyone who wants to reflect on how the political economic structure can affect the governance and delivery of healthcare services in marginalised settings beyond prisons and indeed beyond England

Towards the Development of the International Penal System Róisín Mulgrew, 2013-07-11 Based on extensive empirical research this groundbreaking book describes and analyses existing systems for enforcing sentences of imprisonment imposed by international criminal courts and makes recommendations for the strategic and structural development of the international penal system In particular it advocates a resocialisation focused international penal policy delivered using restorative justice modalities post conviction and the creation of an accountable international prison system Singly or combined these developments will contribute to the institutionalisation of the international penal system and enhance the international nature of the sanction the international control over the way international punishment is enforced and the equal treatment of international prisoners These developments will also help to ensure that international punishment is principled and progressive and implemented in a humane and effective system Prisons 2000 Peter Francis, Roger Matthews, 1996-07-13 A collection of original articles from a number of the world's leading authorities on imprisonment The aim of the book is to review the current state of imprisonment around the world and to look at possible future developments The underlying theme of the book is that imprisonment is undergoing a significant change in a number of different countries and that there are important lessons which can be learned from the analysis of these changes At the same time this book is perceived as a state of the art collection which provides an informed and comprehensive analysis of the major aspects of imprisonment Consequently the book should be of interest to a wide ranging international audience of academic researchers and policy makers as well as students Privatising Criminal Justice Christopher Hamerton, Sue Hobbs, 2022-09-30 Privatising Criminal Justice explores the social cultural and political context of privatisation in the criminal justice sector In recent years the criminal justice sector has made various strategic partnerships with the private sector exemplified by initiatives within the police the prison system and offender services. This has seen unprecedented growth in the past 30 years and a veritable explosion under the tenure of the coalition government in the UK This book highlights key areas of domestic and global concern and illustrates with detailed case studies of important developments It connects the study of criminology and criminal justice to the wider study of public policy government institutions and political decision making In doing so Privatising Criminal Justice provides a theoretical and practical framework for evaluating collaborative public and private sector response to social problems at the beginning of the twenty first century An accessible and compelling read this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology criminal justice sociology and politics and all those interested in how privatisation has shaped the contemporary criminal justice system Harsh Punishment Sandy Cook, Susanne Davies, 1999-12-22 A pioneering collection of personal accounts from criminal justice scholars practitioners and activists and from current and former prisoners themselves Correctional Ethics John Kleinig, 2017-07-05 Correctional Ethics gathers the most prominent contributions to this burgeoning field ranging from the philosophy of punishment through to ethical appraisals of incarceration the professional responsibilities of prison personnel and formative work in restorative justice In addition it provides an annotated research agenda to help shape the development of a comprehensive correctional ethic For those working in correctional ethics this collection provides an essential resource Engendering Resistance: Agency and Power in Women's Prisons Mary Bosworth, 2017-03-02 This book explores how power is negotiated in women's prisons Drawing on fieldwork conducted in three penal establishments in England it analyses how women manage the restrictions of imprisonment and the manner in which they attempt to resist institutional control It is proposed that power is negotiated on a private individual level as women often resist the institution simply by trying to maintain an image of control over their own lives However their image of themselves as active reasoning agents is undermined by institutional regimes which encourage traditional passive feminine behaviour at the same time as they deny the women their identities and responsibilities as mothers wives girlfriends and sisters Femininity is therefore both the form and the goal of women s imprisonment Yet paradoxically femininity also offers the possibility of resistance because women manage to rebel by appropriating and changing aspects of it Punishment in Disguise Kelly Hannah-Moffat, 2001-01-01 A look at some current forms of penal governance in Canadian federal women's prisons and a suggestion that the prison system itself given its primary functions of custody and punishment is consistent in thwarting attempts at progressive reform Corrections in the Community Edward J. Latessa, Paula Smith, 2015-03-27 Corrections in the Community Sixth Edition examines the current state of community corrections and proposes an evidence based approach to making programs more effective As the U S prison system approaches meltdown options like probation parole alternative sentencing and both residential and non residential programs in the community continue to grow in importance This text provides a solid foundation and includes the most salient information available on the broad and dynamic subject of community corrections Authors Latessa and Smith organize and evaluate the latest data on the assessment of offender risk need responsivity and successful methods that continue to improve community supervision and its effects on different types of clients from the mentally ill to juveniles This book provides students with a thorough understanding of the theoretical and practical aspects of community corrections and prepares them to evaluate and strengthen these crucial programs This sixth edition includes a new chapter on specialty drug and other problem solving courts Now found in every state these specialty courts represent a new way to deal with some of the problems that face our citizens be it substance abuse or reentry to the community from prison Chapters contain key terms boxed material review questions and recommended readings and a glossary is provided to clarify important concepts

Older Women in the Criminal Justice System Azrini Wahidin, 2004 What is life like for the women who grow old behind bars Azrini Wahidin examines in depth the experiences and needs of this overlooked group Illuminating reading for all those working in the prison services probation and the courts Older Women in the Criminal Justice System offers a rare view of what happens to women who grow old in prison Women and Punishment Pat Carlen, 2013-05-13 In the last decade there has been growing international concern about the increasing numbers of women in prison the effects that imprisonment has on their children the realisation that gaoled women have different criminal profiles and rehabilitative needs to male prisoners and the seeming intractability of the associated problems In response there has been an overarching policy concern in many countries to fashion and co ordinate gender specific policies towards female offenders which aim both to slow down the rate of their offending and or imprisonment and also to engender flexible programmes which will reduce the time spent in custody and or away from their young children The major objective of this book is to describe and analyse contemporary opportunities for and barriers to both the reduction of female prison populations and the reduction of the pain of those women who continue to be imprisoned It assesses the most important recent attempts to reduce both women s imprisonment and the damage it does identifying and analyzing cross jurisdiction and gender specific lessons to be learned and the unexpected consequences of some of the reform strategies This book brings together leading scholars and practitioners in the field providing a critique of the reform initiatives which have taken place and a much needed theorization of cross national policy in this area It will be essential reading for all with an interest in prisons and prison reform

Contrasting Prisoners' Rights Liora Lazarus, 2004 This work aims to provoke reflection on the English conception and treatment of prisoners rights through juxtaposition with prisoners rights in Germany The systems are compared and placed against a wider social background and the methodological problems of comparative law are considered Criminology Sean O'Toole, Simon Eyland, 2005 Corrections criminology Sean O Toole and Simon Eyland World correctional population trends and issues Mike Bartlett Prison populations in Australia Kyleigh Heggie Australian coomunity corrections population trends and issues David Daley Prisonography Sources of knowledge and perspectives about prisons Lucien Lombard Commissions of inquiry and penal reform David Brown Security in correctional systems Ron Woodham Privatisation in the corrections industry Sean O Toole Human rights in corrections practice Brian Tkachuk and Eileen Skinnider Good corrections implications for leadership and organisational performance Ole Ingstrup Inspecting prisons Richard Harding Causes and prevention of violence in prisons Ross Homel and Carleen Thompson The over representation of indigenous persons in custody Bill Anscomb Risk and responsibilities in women's prisons Pat Carlen Managing an ageing prison population John Dawes Prisoner health Michael Levy Tony Butler Tony Falconer Managing mentally ill offenders released from jail the US experience Dale Sechrest and Don Josi Offenders with drug and alcohol dependencies Maria Kevin A framework for minimising the incidence of self harm in prison Greg Dear Beyond what works a retrospective of Robert Martinson's famous article Rick Sarre Bridging the gap between prison and the community post release support and supervision Stuart Ross Prison industries in a time of science based prison programming Judy McHutchison The effect of post release housing on prisoner re integration into the community Eileen Baldry Ethics and the role of the correctional officer Anna Grant Measuring prisons and their moral performance Alison Liebling Professionalising the correctional officer the US perspective Don A josi and Dale K Sechrest Human resources analysis of the Australian corrections industry Sean O Toole Towards crime prevention David Biles What future for the prison Paul Wilson A Comprehensive Study of Female Offenders Martin Guevara Urbina, 2008 Few empirical studies have focused on women in prison In the last few years though a number of studies have demonstrated that there are fundamental differences between male and female prisoners in an ever changing penal system Consequently there has been a need for more comprehensive studies of female offenders for three primary reasons 1 imperative research gaps remain to be bridged 2 the female prison experience is not constant and 3 prison rates for female offenders especially minority offenders have increased considerably in the last few years A central goal of this book then is to provide a balance to the existing literature and research on female prisoners in the United States and to an extent abroad focusing primarily on female offenders and using data gathered from the Wisconsin Department of Corrections The book utilizes a comprehensive investigative approach by equating the experience of female offenders by the totality of circumstances within an historical institutional political and ideological context The critical objective is to offer an inclusive analysis of the things that are considered by female inmates to be the most significant before during and after their incarceration as a way of better understanding the reasons that lead to their first incarceration as well as subsequent incarcerations By reading this book the reader will have a greater understanding of the many challenges facing female inmates as well as the relationship between inmates correctional officers and by extension society in general Also provided is a series of policy recommendations throughout the book particularly in the concluding chapter and epilogue Criminal Justice Systems Richard J. Terrill, 2015-10-30 World Criminal Justice Systems Ninth Edition provides an understanding of major world criminal justice systems by discussing and comparing the systems of six of the world s countries each representative of a different type of legal system An additional chapter on Islamic law uses three examples to illustrate the range of practice within Sharia Political historical organizational procedural and critical issues confronting the justice systems are explained and analyzed Each chapter contains material on government police judiciary law corrections juvenile justice and other critical issues The ninth edition features an introduction directing students to the resources they need to understand comparative criminal justice theory and methodology The chapter on Russia includes consideration of the turmoil in post Soviet successor states and the final chapter on Islamic law examines the current status of criminal justice systems in the Middle East European Anti-Discrimination and the Politics of Citizenship C. Bertossi, 2006-11-28 This book looks at transformations in citizenship politics in the EU Member States It argues that the anti discrimination agenda in the Treaty of Amsterdam has affected traditional patterns of national integration of ethnic minorities and migrants in Europe Comparing France and Britain it also looks at religious factors and Islam in Europe Black Women's Experiences of Criminal Justice Ruth Chigwada-Bailey, 2003 A personal discourse on the multiple disadvantages of people who are black women and from the margins of society Drugs, Prisons and Policy-Making K. Duke, 2003-10-14 In this fascinating new work Karen Duke explores the conflicts and contradictory pressures in the development of prison drugs policy in Britain from 1980 to the present Based on interviews with key policy actors and documentary analysis it explores how policy networks around drug issues in prisons have attempted to contain the contradictions between treatment and punishment and how their activities have been shaped by the ways in which the drugs issue is framed the roles of research evidence and knowledge and the impact of wider social political policy and institutional contexts Mass Imprisonment David Garland, 2001-05-15 The quite extraordinary phenomenon of mass imprisonment in the USA needs above all to be identified David Garland and his excellent range of criminological contributors go well beyond this by showing how to start thinking and arguing about what these unprecedented statistics might mean for all modern societies Professor Stan Cohen Department of Sociology LSE This major new volume of papers by leading criminologists sociologists and historians sets out what is known about the political and penological causes of the phenomenon of mass imprisonment Mass imprisonment American style involves the penal segregation of large numbers of the poor and minorities Imprisonment has become a central institution for the social control of the urban poor Other countries are now looking to the USA to see what should be learned from this massive and controversial social experiment This book describes mass imprisonment s impact upon crime upon the minority communities most affected upon social policy and more broadly upon national culture This is a book that all penologists and policy makers should read
