School Choice and Competition: Markets in the Public Interest? Philip Woods,Carl Bagley,Ron Glatter,2005-06-23

This book reports on the findings of a unique investigation into the impact of education reforms aimed at introducing more choice and competition into the school system International Journal of Educational Reform ,1998 Boletin Internacional de Bibliografia Sobre Educacion ,1997 Charter Schools Thomas Zachariaah Murphy,2002 Education is a perennially vexing issue in American life What exactly is the best system for teaching Proponents of charter schools believe that competition is the key public schools will improve if they have to compete for students Charters themselves are public schools but ones run by any group accepting the challenge of improving student performance in return for fewer regulations and tight budget restrictions In short charter schools have defined focus and clear accountability Those opposing the charter movement though claim that charter schools are divisive and distract attention from public school needs Some politicians have shown approval of charter schools as evidenced by President George W Bush s bill for funding charter programs This book aims to clear up some of the questions around charter schools and can help answer the questions surrounding the future of the American education system Pathways to Privatization in Education Joseph Murphy,1998-04-28 For a variety of reasons market oriented improvement efforts are becoming increasingly visible on the educational reform landscape In particular privatization strategies such as vouchers and contracting out are receiving considerable attention at all levels of educational governance and administration Our objective in this volume is to help the educational community develop a deeper understanding of the privatization movement in general and the major pathways to privatization in particular The Privatization of Public Education Joan Nordquist,2000 Each bibliography includes a comprehensive list of the theorist s works and critical studies of these works in English Each bibliography contains approximately 600 to 900 entries Books journal articles essays within edited books in the manner of Essay and General Literature and dissertations are included References are provided from a wide variety of disciplines and bibliographic sources The primary purpose of each bibliography is to provide access to the widely reprinted primary works in English and the critical literature in a great variety of books and journals The topical bibliographies include the authoritative works on the subject and are arranged in useful categories The lively part of the modern post modern debate is generally taking place in alternative and left journals journals always included in the literature search in the compiling of the bibliographies

Educational Accountability Kenneth A. Leithwood,Karen Edge,Doris Jantzi,1999 The Ontario Institute for Studies in Education has developed a framework for accountability in response to the following five issues who is accountable to whom for what at what level and with what consequences American Education Annual Mary Alampi,Peter M. Comeau,1998-09 This resource features original essays written by experts in the field supplemented with reprinted articles on approximately 60 of the key educational issues research and events of the previous year IJER Vol 8-N3 International Journal of Educational Reform,1999-07-01 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes Finally it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U S and the world

Decentralization and Development Partnership Fumihiko Saito,2012-12-06 Decentralization an essential pillar of institutional reform is of critical importance in developing countries particularly in regard to democratization effective development and good governance Uganda since 1986 and the start of decentralization measures under Yoweri Museveni and the National Resistance Movement has represented one of the most serious commitments in Sub Saharan Africa With the benefit of extensive fieldwork Fumihiko Saito demonstrates how conflict resolution information dissemination and encouragement of the many and varied stakeholders to form partnerships are critical to successfully bringing services closer to the people Decentralization and Development Partnerships Lessons from Uganda goes beyond theory to compare academic assumptions to the reality of decentralization implementation in modern Uganda Although the process is by no means free of difficulties Saito concludes that a win win outcome is a real possibility

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1996 Resources in Education ,2001-10 Journal of Research in Rural Education ,1998 Meeting the Challenges of Secondary Education in Latin America and East Asia

Emanuela Di Gropello,2006-01-01 In a context of increased primary school enrollment rates secondary education is appearing as the next big challenge for Latin American and East Asian countries This report seeks to undertake a detailed diagnostic of secondary education in these two regions understand some of the main constraints to the expansion and improvement of secondary education and suggest policy options to address these constraints with focus on policies that improve the mobilization and use of resources Decentralization and Infrastructure in the Global Economy Jonas

Frank,Jorge Martinez-Vazquez,2015-07-03 The subnational dimension of infrastructure has emerged as one of the greatest challenges in contemporary public finance policy and management Ensuring the efficient provision of infrastructure represents a challenge for all countries irrespective of their level of centralization or decentralization This book proposes an innovative approach for the strengthening of decentralized public investment and infrastructure management

Decentralization and Infrastructure in the Global Economy From Gaps to Solutions covers the most important aspects of infrastructure investment in a decentralized setting It discusses infrastructure gaps and the quality of subnational spending how functional responsibilities financing and equalization can be designed sector specific arrangements in high expenditure areas such as health education and roads key steps of the public investment cycle and management and analyses the political economy and corruption challenges that typically accompany decentralized infrastructure projects This book challenges some of the well accepted principles of intergovernmental fiscal relations and will be useful to researchers and practitioners of public finance policy and management
