describes the fight over two very different methods of policing community policing in which the police and the community work together and the broken windows or zero tolerance approach which aggressively polices minor infractions such as loitering to deter more serious crime Police Power and the Production of Racial Boundaries also explores the history of the area to explain how Cadillac Corning became viewed by outsiders as a violent neighborhood and how the city's first gang injunction a restraining order aimed at alleged gang members solidified this negative image As a result Mu iz shows Cadillac Corning and other sections became a test site for repressive practices that eventually spread to the rest of the city
