Marriages and Families in the 21st Century Tasha R. Howe, 2017-08-01 Marriages and Families in the 21st Century puts contemporary relationships and family structures in context for today's students Using a bioecological framework the book reveals how families are shaped by multiple influences from biological to cultural that interact with one another Chapters cover topics from parenting to gender issues within an interdisciplinary context weaving in stories visuals and examples of diverse families to dispel longstanding myths The book creates a personalized learning experience with frequent self assessments and strengths exercises while ensuring that students come to understand the research and build scientific analysis and critical thinking skills along the way Robust digital tools and resources including SAGE edge and an interactive eBook with SAGE Premium Video help readers develop a multi layered understanding of today's modern families while challenging them to re evaluate their own assumptions and experiences SAGE Premium Video included in the Interactive eBook Families Today videos boost comprehension and bolster analysis easily accessible via the interactive eBook SAGE coursepacks Our Content Tailored to Your LMS SAGE coursepacks makes it easy to import our quality instructor and student resource content into your school's learning management system LMS Intuitive and simple to use SAGE coursepacks allows you to customize course content to meet your students needs

Intimate Relationships Ralph Erber, Maureen Erber, 2016-01-08 Intimate Relationships covers both classic and current material in a concise yet thorough and rigorous manner Chapters range from attraction to love attachment to jealousy conflict to relationship dissolution all written in a warm personal and engaging voice Each chapter is organized around the major issues and relevant theories in addition to a critical evaluation about the research When appropriate the authors discuss and evaluate popular ideas about relationship processes in the context of scientific research This includes critical evaluations of evolutionary approaches to attraction victim based accounts of abuse and the separate cultures view of the sexes

Animals and Ourselves Kathy Merlock Jackson, Kathy Shepherd Stolley, Lisa Lyon Payne, 2020-10-13 The relationship between humans and animals has always been strong symbiotic and complicated Animals real and fictional have been a mainstay in the arts and entertainment figuring prominently in literature film television social media and live performances Increasingly though people are anthropomorphizing animals assigning them humanoid roles tasks and identities At the same time humans such as members of the furry culture or college mascots find pleasure in adopting animal identities and characteristics This book is the first of its kind to explore these growing phenomena across media The contributors to this collection represent various disciplines to include the arts humanities social sciences and healthcare Their essays demonstrate the various ways that human and animal lives are intertwined and constantly evolving

Family Therapy and Chronic Illness Joan Atwood, 2017-09-08 Treatment for the chronically ill has traditionally focused on physical factors and symptoms despite the fact that chronic illness also affects life in an emotional and spiritual way The approach toward treatment described in this volume addresses all aspects of a patient's life including their interpersonal experiences and relationships presenting family therapists and family physicians as part of the same treatment team This volume thus provides a foundation for understanding the role illness plays in family systems The meaning an individual gives to an illness is profoundly influenced by and influences that person's social world In turn social culture and social networks both shape and are shaped by the individual's experiences Exploring how the meaning of chronic illness is defined tells us much about the individual's interpersonal relations and the resultant meaning given to the person's illness As a consequence family therapy must be an integral part of the treatment plan for chronically ill patients Family Therapy and Chronic Illness approaches chronic illness from a leading edge perspective This approach enables therapists to listen attentively to complicated narratives Because these stories feelings and emotions are difficult to describe the clients have demanding telling tasks while therapists have demanding listening tasks This book sends an important message not just about the chronically ill but also about their families therapists and doctors and how they can work together to develop the best treatment plan possible

Ordinary Families, Special Children, Third Edition Milton Seligman, Rosalyn Benjamin Darling, 2009-02-23 This popular clinical reference and text provides a multisystems perspective on childhood disability and its effects on family life The volume examines how child family ecological and sociocultural variables intertwine to shape the ways families respond to disability and how professionals can promote coping adaptation and empowerment Accessible and engaging the book integrates theory and research with vignettes and firsthand reflections from family members

Changing Gender Relations, Changing Families Oriel Sullivan, 2006-04-27 It's common knowledge that responsibilities in the home are not divided equally between men and women Most sociological studies of this phenomenon focus on why these gender differences are so persistent persistent enough to have earned names like the dual burden and the second shift Feminists bemoan how slowly this gender gap is changing Sociologist Oriel Sullivan however focuses on the neglected topic of the processes of change discussing changing domestic gender practices on many different levels from changes in attitudes about gender equality in the home to the quantitative analysis of change in the domestic division of labor Sullivan argues that it s time to consider these issues from a longer historical perspective Changing Genders Changing Families argues for an acceptance that change is with us presents multi layered evidence for change and offers a theoretical structure that is useful for developing an account of these processes of change His newly developed theoretical approach connects the wider discussion of gender practices within the home to the interactions and negotiations that individuals engage in on a day to day basis He includes empirical evidence for change presenting findings based upon directly comparable cross national data from the mid 1960s to the late 1990s This book will appeal to readers interested in gender studies sociology and in the changing gender equity of the home LGBT Families Nancy J. Mezey, 2015 Part of the Sage Contemporary Family Perspective series this book presents a comprehensive an understanding of lesbian gay bisexual and transgender families today by drawing upon and making sense of the burgeoning scholarly literature about LGBT families from the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries The Palgrave Handbook of Reproductive Justice and Literature Beth Widmaier Capo, Laura Lazzari, 2022-09-10 This handbook offers a collection of scholarly essays that analyze questions of reproductive justice throughout its cultural representation in global literature and film It offers analysis of specific texts carefully situated in their evolving historical economic and cultural contexts Reproductive justice is taken beyond the American setting in which the theory and movement began chapters apply concepts to international realities and literatures from different countries and cultures by covering diverse genres of cultural production including film television YouTube documentaries drama short story novel memoir and self help literature Each chapter analyzes texts from within the framework of reproductive justice in an interdisciplinary way including English Japanese Italian Spanish and German language literature and culture comparative literature film South Asian fiction Canadian theatre writing gender studies Deaf studies disability studies global health and medical humanities and sociology Academics graduate students and advanced undergraduate students in Literature Gender Sexuality and Women s Studies Cultural Studies Motherhood Studies Comparative Literature History Sociology the Medical Humanities Reproductive Justice and Human Rights are the main audience of the volume
