Laura Marcus, 2024-02-15 Drawing on extensive archival research Rhythmical Subjects shows the ways in which literature dance music the visual arts and architecture drew from and fed into the realms of social and anthropological thought

Transformations Roger Fry, 1926 Vogue for Russia Caroline Maclean, 2015-01-20 Explores the influence of Russian aesthetics on British modernists In what ways was the British fascination with Russian arts politics and people linked to a renewed interest in the unseen How did ideas of Russianness and the Russian soul prompted by the arrival of the Ballets Russes and the rise of revolutionary ideals attach themselves to the existing British fashion for theosophy vitalism and occultism In answering these questions this study is the first to explore the overlap between Slavophilia and mysticism between 1900 and 1930 in Britain The main Russian characters that emerge are Fedor Dostoevsky Boris Anrep Vasily Kandinsky Petr Ouspensky and Sergei Eisenstein The British modernists include Roger Fry Virginia Woolf Mary Butts John Middleton Murry Michael Sadleir and Katherine Mansfield Key Features Draws on unpublished archive material as well as on periodicals exhibition catalogues reviews diaries fiction and the visual arts Addresses the omission in modernist studies of the importance of Russian aesthetics and Russian discourses of the occult to British modernism Challenges the dominant Western European and transatlantic focus in modernist studies and provides an original contribution to our understanding of new global modernisms Combines literary studies with aesthetics modernist history the history of modern esotericism film history periodical studies and science studies The Outline of Knowledge: The romance of the arts, by F. criticism in its artistic and historical context ABM ,1989 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 Graphic Modernism Art Institute of Chicago,2003 This exhibition catalog highlights a recent gift of works on paper to the Art Institute of Chicago from the Gecht family longtime Chicago collectors The catalog comprises 135 drawings prints and sculptures from the collection all of which embody a broad definition of Modernism The book spans two centuries and contains artists such as Cezanne and Van Gogh as well as Mark Rothko and Philip Guston Toulouse Lautrec Matisse and Picasso form the backbone of the collection with nearly 30 works of art apiece Suzanne Folds McCullagh curator of prints drawings Art Inst of Chicago provides a short introductory essay that tracks the evolution of the collection Authored by a bevy of contributors the well written entries maintain a consistent tone and quality and strike a good balance between biographical information and interpretations of the work of art itself While the Gecht collection is certainly quite a boon for the institute it is not comprehensive enough in itself to make the catalog essential for all art libraries It does however belong on library shelves with strong modern art and graphics collections Kraig A Binkowski Delaware Art Museum Wilmington 135 colour illustrations New York Magazine ,1987-12-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Mondrian's Philosophy of Visual Rhythm Eiichi Tosaki,2017-11-15 This volume investigates the meaning of visual rhythm through Piet Mondrian s unique approach to understanding rhythm in the compositional structure of painting drawing reference from philosophy aesthetics and Zen culture Its innovation lies in its reappraisal of a forgotten definition of rhythm as stasis or composition which can be traced back to ancient Greek thought This conception of rhythm the book argues can be demonstrated in terms of pictorial strategy through analysis of East Asian painting and calligraphy with which Greek thought on rhythm has identifiable commonalities The book demonstrates how these ideas about rhythm draw together various threads of intellectual development in the visual arts that cross disparate aesthetic cultural practices As an icon of early 20th Century Modernism Mondrian s neoplasticism is a serious painterly and philosophical achievement In his painting Mondrian was deeply influenced by Theosophy which took its influence from Eastern aesthetics particularly East Asian and Indian thought However Mondrian s approach to visual rhythm was so idiosyncratic that his contribution to studies of visual rhythm is often under recognized This volume shows that a close inspection of Mondrian's own writing thinking and painting has much to tell scholars about how to understand a long forgotten aspect of visual rhythm Rodin's famous criticism of photography athlete in motion is forever frozen can be applied to Muybridge's zoopraxiscope the Futurists' rendition of stroboscopic images and Duchamp's Nude Descending a Staircase Through a comparative study between Mondrian's painting and these seminal works this volume initiates a new convention for the cognition of the surface of painting as visual rhythm Mondrian's simultaneous emphasis on the static and the rhythmic is hardly fodder for a publicist Eiichi Tosaki has taken on the challenge of elucidating Mondrian's theories of rhythm and particularly his conception of static rhythm The result is a tour de force that will forever alter the reader's encounter with the works of Mondrian Prof Kathleen Higgins Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People, 1914 The Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine, 1913 The Connoisseur, 1988 The Life and Death of Images Diarmuid Costello, Dominic Willsdon, 2008 The 1990s witnessed a return to aesthetics but one that stressed the independent claims of beauty in reaction to its perceived suppression by ethical and political imperatives Beauty however is just one aspect of the aesthetic In recent years increasing attention has been paid to the ways in which aesthetics and ethics are intertwined In The Life and Death of Images some of the world's leading cultural thinkers engage in dialogue with one another concerning this beta new gamma aesthetics In provocative and accessible fashion they demonstrate its relevance to a range of disciplines including analytic and continental philosophy art history theory and practice cultural history and visual culture rhetoric and comparative literature The Fauve Landscape Judi Freeman, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Royal Academy of Arts (Great Britain), 1990 This text is devoted to the colourful landscapes produced during the Fauvist period of 1904-1908 An essay on the emergence of the Fauve landscape is followed by four essays devoted to individual sites and such topics as Fauvism's impact on tourism and politics Another essay concentrates on the critical landscape in essence the critics' reception of these paintings Matisse Braque Derain Vlaminck Dufy Marquet Manguin and Friesz are represented with examples of their works Russia in Britain, 1880-1940 Rebecca Beasley, Philip Ross Bullock, 2013-09-26 Russia in Britain explores the extent of British fascination with Russian and Soviet culture from the 1880s up to the Soviet Union's entry into the Second World War Matisse's War Peter Everett, 2010-12-15 At seventy Henri Matisse is a trim clean old gentleman with a passion for naked women He is UN MONSTRE SACRE who depicts with passion and conviction only what he takes pleasure in only what he chooses to see He is art personified If there were no Matisse there would be no art as such He has purged everything from his painting except anxieties concerning structure and colour his struggle is with these alone MATISSE'S WAR is a minutely researched yet fictional account of Matisse's life during the years 1939-1945 It is also a superb portrait of the lives of the major French artists and writers under the German occupation Louis Aragon Malraux Picasso and Bonnard all appear prominently in the narrative Critical Readings in Impressionism and Post-Impressionism Mary Tompkins Lewis, 2007-03-15 The essays in this wide ranging text capture the theoretical range and scholarly rigor of criticism that has fundamentally transformed the study of French Impressionist and Post Impressionist art Radical Art and the Formation of the Avant-Garde David Cottington, 2022-03-08

An authoritative re definition of the social cultural and visual history of the emergence of the avant garde in Paris and London Over the past fifty years the term avant garde has come to shape discussions of European culture and modernity ubiquitously taken for granted but rarely defined This ground breaking book develops an original and searching methodology that fundamentally reconfigures the social cultural and visual context of the emergence of the artistic avant garde in Paris and London before 1915 bringing the material history of its formation into clearer and more detailed focus than ever before Drawing on a wealth of disciplinary evidence from socio economics to histories of sexuality bohemia consumerism politics and popular culture David Cottington explores the different models of cultural collectivity in and presumed hierarchies between these two focal cities while identifying points of ideological influence and difference between them He reveals the avant garde to be at once complicit with resistant to and a product of the modernizing forces of professionalization challenging the conventional wisdom on this moment of cultural formation and offering the means to reset the terms of avant garde studies ,
