One Course Two Visions A Comparison Of The Teachings Of The Circle Of:

One Course, Two Visions Robert Perry, Greg Mackie, Allen Watson, 2004-12 A Course in Miracles has emerged within our lifetime as an authoritative spiritual text Yet what does it really say In the Course s brief history two comprehensive visions have been offered each by respected teachers and organizations each based on many years of personal dedication and scholarly investigation One vision comes from Ken Wapnick and the Foundation for A Course in Miracles The other comes from Robert Perry and his colleagues at the Circle of Atonement One might assume that these visions would differ only in the details yet in fact they diverge dramatically leading to different ways of approaching understanding and living the Course These differences have naturally led to confusion for Course students The purpose of this book is to clear up that confusion It addresses how the two visions relate to each other delineating both their similarities and their differences It then goes on to explore the key differences and how they impact the Course student s life

,1923 Rethinking Language Arts Nina Zaragoza, 2013-12-02 In Rethinking Language Arts Passion and Practice Second Edition author Nina Zaragoza uses the form of letters to her students to engage pre service teachers in reevaluating teaching practices thus bringing to life a vision of an alternative classroom environment in which the teacher is the prime mover and creative leader Zaragoza discusses and explains the need for teachers to be decision makers reflective thinkers political beings and agents of social change in order to create a positive and inclusive classroom setting This book is both a critical text that deconstructs the way language arts are traditionally taught in our schools as well as a visionary text with clear no nonsense directions on how to provide much needed change in our schools

Crisis of Empire

Phil Booth, 2017-10-26 This book focuses on the attempts of three seventh century Palestinian intellectuals John Moschos Sophronius of Jerusalem and Maximus the Confessor to determine the Church s power and place during a period of profound crisis as the eastern Roman empire suffered serious reversals in the face of Persian and then Islamic expansion Through their stories Booth documents nothing less than a profound change in the very nature of the self perception of a religious society Although focused on the first half of the seventh century this book throws bright light both behind itself on the nature of the role of the holy man in late antiquity and in front of itself on the nature of the Byzantine Orthodoxy that would emerge in the middle ages and which is still central to the churches of Greece and Eastern Europe
