Controversies in Digital Ethics Amber Davisson, Paul Booth, 2017-08-24 Controversies in Digital Ethics explores ethical frameworks within digital culture Through a combination of theoretical examination and specific case studies the essays in this volume provide a vigorous examination of ethics in a highly individualistic and mediated world Focusing on specific controversies privacy surveillance identity politics participatory culture the authors in this volume provide a roadmap for navigating the thorny ethical issues in new media Paul Booth and Amber Davisson bring together multiple writers working from different theoretical traditions to represent the multiplicity of ethics in the 21st century Each essay has been chosen to focus on a particular issue in contemporary ethical thinking in order to both facilitate classroom discussion and further scholarship in digital media ethics Accessible for students but with a robust analysis providing contemporary scholarship in media ethics this collection unites theory case studies and practice within one volume

Crisscrossing Communication Research Chin-Chuan Lee, 2024-10-28 Drawing on studies of international communication and late Qing and Republican newspapers this book examines the intellectual and practical development of communication from a global and historical perspective The book is organized in two parts The first part explores the domestication and fragmentation of communication studies examining how domestic communication paradigms have been transformed into refined mediocrity and how international communication is now included in discussions of modern theory Focusing on the newspapers of China

s Republican era the second part explores the history of journalism from a variety of perspectives and addresses several key research issues By exploring ways to connect theories in the humanities and social sciences bridging the gap between Eastern and Western cultures and interweaving case studies and macro level theorizing the author shows that communication analysis is necessarily dialectical specific complementary and conditional The book sheds important light on how acting locally while thinking globally can help us reconstruct the epistemological and methodological foundations of international communication The title will appeal to scholars and students in communication studies journalism and the social sciences especially those interested in international communication Encyclopedia of journalism. 6. consumers made cynical by sensationalist banners AMERICA STRIKES BACK THE TERROR OF ANTHRAX and lurid leads might be surprised to learn that in 1690 the newspaper Publick Occurrences gossiped about the sexual indiscretions of French royalty or seasoned the story of missing children by adding that barbarous Indians were lurking about before the disappearance Surprising too might be the media's steady adherence to if continual tugging at its philosophical and ethical moorings These 39 essays written and edited by the nation's leading professors of journalism cover the theory and practice of print radio and TV news reporting Politics and partisanship press and the government gender and the press corps presidential coverage war reportage technology and news gathering sensationalism each subject is treated individually Appropriate for interested lay persons students professors and reporters Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here National Police Gazette and the Making of the Modern American Man, 1879-1906

G. Reel, 2006-04-03 This book analyzes the National Police Gazette the racy New York City tabloid that gained an audience among men and boys of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Looking at how images of sex crime and sports reflected and shaped masculinities during this watershed era this book amounts to a story of what it meant to be an American man at the beginning of the American Century The Inequality of COVID-19 Eric E. Otenyo, Lisa J.

Hardy, 2021-10-14 The Inequality of COVID 19 Immediate Health Communication Governance and Response in Four Indigenous Regions explores the use of information communication technologies ICTs and longer term guidelines directives and general policy initiatives The cases document implications of the failure of various governments to establish robust policies to mitigate the spread of COVID 19 in a sample of advanced and low income countries Because the global institutions charged with managing the COVID 19 crisis did not work in harmony the results have been devastating The four Indigenous communities selected were the Navajo of the southwest United States Siddi people in India Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples of Australia and the Maasai in East Africa Although these are all diverse communities spread across different continents their base economic oppression and survival from colonial violence is a common denominator in hypothesizing the public health management outcomes However the research reveals that national leadership and other incoherent pandemic mitigation policies account for a significant amount of the devastation caused in these communities Explores examples of pandemic mitigation practices in indigenous communities Provides case studies of importance of ICTs in health care in 21st century pandemic management protocols Presents real policy data collected from different continents from early days through the first year of the global pandemic University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.
