Death Dreams and Ghosts Aniela Jaffé, 2020 A collection of death dreams and ghost stories were gathered and presented to C G Jung and the author who approaches this fascinating material from the depths of her analytic experience among the Swiss who are commonly regarded as stolid unimaginative rationalistic and materialistic there are just as many ghost stories and suchlike as say in England or Ireland Indeed as I know from my own experience magic as practiced in the Middle Ages has by no means died out but still flourishes today I can recommend it to all those who know how to value things that break through the monotony of daily life with salutary effects sometimes shaking our certitudes and lending wings to the imagination from the Foreword by C G Jung We are left in the overpowering presence of a great mystery The

Bearskin Quiver Gregory McNamee, 2002 Once upon a time an Apache story tells us the trickster called Coyote killed a bear so that he could make a suitable quiver for his magical arrows You shouldn't have done that someone warned Coyote That skin will only bring you bad luck And so it has been for Coyote ever since chased by bears and humans alike In this charming collection of folktales from long ago we read of the creation of the world of the ways of animals of the beguiling Coyote of the world in which we live and other worlds that hide just beyond our sight Drawn from the oral literatures of some twenty Southwestern American Indian peoples these stories teach us about the constants of those dry places about how the clouds form in the sky how the heat rises from the ground how the animals move about from one shady spot to another and how the people once lived their lives All these stories show us as the great anthropologist Claude Lévi Strauss observed that folktales are not mere afterthoughts of literature just pleasant stories to tell around the campfire but rather valuable tools for reflection upon our own lives

Drugs, Addiction And Initiation - The Modern Search for Ritual Luigi Zoja, Luigi Zoja argues that the pervasive abuse of drugs in our society can in large part be ascribed to a resurgence of the collective need for initiation and initiatory structures a longing for something sacred underlies our culture s manic drive toward excessive consumption In a society without ritual the drug addict seeks not so much the thrill of a high as the satisfaction of an inner need for a participation mystique in the dominant religion of our times consumerism A far reaching yet incisive cultural analysis The Modern Search for Ritual is a vigorous expos drawing its methodology from history literature and anthropology as well as Analytical Psychology From its critique of drug cures based on detoxification to its discussion of the esoteric terrorist cult of the Assassins Zoja s work is a classic in the field of psycho anthropology

Picturing God Ann Ulanov, 2020 Ann Belford Ulanov submits that we have all painted our own pictures of God Most of them were formed in early childhood and now lie buried in our unconscious selves Even though we may be unaware of our images of God they play an active sometimes harmful role in our spiritual development Picturing God demonstrates the importance of confronting our unconscious selves and allowing our images of God both positive and negative to surface Such inner exploration reveals not only relevant insights about ourselves but also pulls us beyond our private pictures of God toward a truer view of the living God Picturing God shows us how to explore our unconscious selves and how this spiritual exercise can change the whole of our lives how we respond to God how we relate to others and how we view ourselves
