Prison Diary One Hundred And Thirteen Days 1976:

The Hidden History of South Africa's Book and Reading Cultures Archie L. Dick, 2012-01-01 The Hidden History of South Africa's Book and Reading Cultures shows how the common practice of reading can illuminate the social and political history of a culture This ground breaking study reveals resistance strategies in the reading and writing practices of South Africans strategies that have been hidden until now for political reasons relating to the country's liberation struggles By looking to records from a slave lodge women's associations army education units universities courts libraries prison departments and political groups Archie Dick exposes the key works of fiction and non fiction magazines and newspapers that were read and discussed by political activists and prisoners Uncovering the book and library schemes that elites used to regulate reading Dick exposes incidences of intellectual fraud book theft censorship and book burning Through this innovative methodology Dick aptly shows how South African readers used reading and books to resist unjust regimes and build community across South Africa's class and racial barriers South Africa and the Dream of Love to Come Brenna M. Munro, 2012 Uncovers the story of how the politics of queer sexuality have played out in the struggle for multiracial democracy in South Africa

Colonial Systems of Control Viviane Saleh-Hanna, 2008-04-18 A pioneering book on prisons in West Africa Colonial Systems of Control Criminal Justice in Nigeria is the first comprehensive presentation of life inside a West African prison Chapters by prisoners inside Kirikiri maximum security prison in Lagos Nigeria are published alongside chapters by scholars and activists While prisoners document the daily realities and struggles of life inside a Nigerian prison scholar and human rights activist Viviane Saleh Hanna provides historical political and academic contexts and analyses of the penal system in Nigeria The European penal models and institutions imported to Nigeria during colonialism are exposed as intrinsically incoherent with the community based conflict resolution principles of most African social structures and justice models This book presents the realities of imprisonment in Nigeria while contextualizing the colonial legacies that have resulted in the inhumane brutalities that are endured on a daily basis Published in English Trauma, Resistance, Reconstruction in Post-1994 South African Writing Jaspal Kaur Singh, Rajendra Chetty, 2010 The re conceptualization of South Africa as a democracy in 1994 has influenced the production and reception of texts in this nation and around the globe The literature emerging after 1994 provides a vision for reconciling the fragmented past produced by the brutality of apartheid policies and consequently shifting social relations from a traumatized past to a reconstructed future The purpose of the essays in this anthology is to explore within the literary imagination and cultural production of a post apartheid nation and its people how the trauma and violence of the past are reconciled through textual strategies What role does memory play for the remembering subject working through the trauma of a violent past Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale

DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 Colour, Class and Community - The Natal Indian Congress, 1971-1994 Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2021-11 Positions the history and inner workings of the Natal Indian Congress NIC against the canvas of the major political developments in South Africa during the 1970s and 1980s up to the first democratic elections in 1994 Following a hiatus in the 1960s the Natal Indian Congress NIC in South Africa was revived in 1971 In fascinating detail Ashwin Desai and Goolam Vahed bring the inner workings of the NIC to life against the canvas of major political developments in South Africa during the 1970s and 1980s and up to the first democratic elections in 1994 The NIC was relaunched during the rise of the Black Consciousness Movement which attracted a following among Indian university students and whose invocation of Indians as Black led to a major debate about ethnic organisations such as the NIC This debate persisted in the 1980s with the rise of the United Democratic Front and its commitment to non racialism The NIC was central to other major debates of the period most significantly the lines drawn between boycotting and participating in government created structures such as the Tri Cameral Parliament Despite threats of banning and incarceration the NIC kept attracting recruits who encouraged the development of community organisations such as students radicalised by the 1980s education boycotts and civic protests Colour Class and Community The Natal Indian Congress 1971 1994 details how some members of the NIC played dual roles as members of a legal organisation and as allies of the African National Congress underground armed struggle Drawing on varied sources including oral interviews newspaper reports and minutes of organisational meetings this in depth study tells a largely untold history challenging existing narratives around Indian cabalism and bringing the African and Indian political story into present debates about race class and nation The History of Reading S. Towheed, W. Owens, 2011-08-25 Bringing together research from a variety of countries and periods this volume introduces readers to the diverse approaches used to recover the evidence of reading through history in different societies and asks whether reading practices are always conditioned by specific local circumstances or whether broader patterns might emerge Communicating in English Daniel Allington, Barbara Mayor, 2022-10-30 Communicating in English Talk Text Technology looks at how people use spoken and written English to communicate in their everyday lives Exploring the complex relationship between communication technology and the English language this book offers the reader practical insights into the analysis of speech and writing A wide range of examples is provided ranging from text messages and domestic quarrels to the works of Shakespeare and the words of Martin Luther King This book takes a fresh look at established topics such as rhetoric language acquisition and professional communication as well as covering exciting new fields such as everyday creativity digital media and the history of the book Key theoretical concepts are introduced in an accessible manner and the reader is given an in depth
