Prisoners Work And Vocational Training:

Prisoners' Work and Vocational Training Frances H. Simon, 2005-09 Employing a balance of qualitative and quantitative data including first hand accounts from UK prisons gathered during field research to make Prisoners Work and Vocational Training is an invaluable book in the study of work in prisons Prisons, Education, and Work John Braithwaite, 1980

S. Army, Army, DOD, The United States Army, AR 190 47 06 15 2006 THE ARMY CORRECTIONS SYSTEM Survival Ebooks The Prison Gordon Hawkins, 1976 Despite lethal explosions of violence from within and critical assaults from without it seems certain that prisons will continue to exist for the foreseeable future Gordon Hawkins argues that certain key issues which attend the use of imprisonment as a penal method must be dealt with realistically Beginning with a discussion of the ideology of imprisonment and the principal lines of criticism directed at it Hawkins examines such issues as the prisonization hypothesis the theory that prisons serve as a training ground for criminals the role of the prison guard work in prisons and the use of prisoners as research subjects for medical experiments He also deals with the prisoners rights movement and its implications for the future of prison administration Hawkins not only makes specific recommendations for reform he also carefully appraises the barriers which obstruct their implementation Hawkins devotes a large portion of this relatively short book to a discussion of some of the really crucial policy activities that tend to stifle meaningful reform and then goes on to tell how at least some of these policies can be altered The book concludes with a chapter devoted to a discussion of impediments to change that should be required reading for all serious students of penology Choice Hawkins has added a much needed down to earth analysis of prison This is not a pessimistic book It is a realistic book It avoids the pitfall of utopian and single factor solutions to an extremely complex problem Graeme R Newman Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science Gender, Criminalization, Imprisonment and Human Rights in Southeast Asia Andrew M. Jefferson, Samantha Jeffries, 2022-03-29 This volume contains two Open Access Chapters This volume features contributions from activist scholars grappling to understand and alleviate the compound sufferings of women and LGBTIQ persons as they encounter criminal justice systems in Southeast Asia Rehabilitation of Prisoners Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Home Affairs Committee, 2005 The Committee's report examines the rehabilitation of offenders looking in particular at the effectiveness of prisons in reducing re offending through rehabilitation given the problems of overcrowded conditions Issues discussed include recent government initiatives the provision and adequacy of education vocational training and paid work programmes offending behaviour and cognitive skills programmes mental healthcare provision and drug treatment services and rehabilitation issues related to certain groups of prisoners such as remand and short term prisoners women young offenders minority ethnic and religious groups The Committee argues that the best way of reducing re offending is to ensure that prisoners on their release have the ability to get into work and a home to go to and it explores ways of delivering an effective rehabilitation strategy which reintegrates offenders into society by providing opportunities and assistance which address the differing needs of prisoners and their backgrounds

Long-Term Imprisonment and Human Rights Kirstin Drenkhahn, Manuela Dudeck, Frieder Dünkel, 2014-07-11 Prisons and imprisonment have become a commonplace topic in popular culture as the setting and rationale for fiction and documentaries and most people seem to have a clear notion of what it is like in prison ranging from the idea of the prison cell as a cosy nook with fast internet access to that of a dungeon with a hard bed and a diet of bread and water But what is prison really like Do prisoners have the same rights as everyone else What are the similarities and differences between prisons in different European countries This book answers all of these questions whilst also presenting cutting edge research on the living conditions of long term prisoners in Europe and considering whether these conditions meet international human rights standards Bringing together leading experts in the field with comprehensive coverage of the issues in Belgium Croatia Denmark England Finland France Germany Lithuania Poland Spain and Sweden this book offers the first comparative study on the subject Whereas past research in this area has concentrated on the Anglo American experience this book offers a truly comparative European approach and pays due attention to the differences in prison systems between the post Soviet countries and continental Europe This book will be key reading for academics and students of criminology criminal justice and penology and will also be of interest to students and practitioners of law The Northern Ireland Prison Service Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Northern Ireland Affairs Committee,2007-12-13 Northern Ireland Prison Service First report of session 2007 08 Vol 2 Oral and written Evidence Federal Probation ,1972 Releasing Prisoners, Redeeming Communities Anthony C. Thompson,2009-03 In the middle of the first decade of the twenty first century African Americans made up approximately twelve percent of the United States population but close to forty percent of the United States prison population Now in the latter half of the decade the nation is in the midst of the largest multi year discharge of prisoners in its history In Releasing Prisoners Redeeming Communities Anthony C Thompson discusses what is likely to happen to these ex offenders and why For Thompson any discussion of ex offender reentry is de facto a question of race After laying out the statistics he identifies the ways in which media and politics have contributed to the problem especially through stereotyping and racial bias Well aware of the potential consequences if this country fails to act Thompson offers concrete realizable ideas of how our policies could and should change Nordic Prison Education Erlendur S.
