Private Collection of the Teachings of the Masters Athena Hamilton,1998      The Gongkar Lamdre: Masters in Khyenluk Style □□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□,Mathias Fermer,2024-04-01 Tibetan text by Losal Dondup Gongkar Choede English text by Mathias Fermer University of Vienna Austria Dehradun Gongkar Choede Monastery 2024 Tibetan and English 312 mm x 252 mm 216 illustrations appendices A D      The Taoists of Peking, 1800-1949 Vincent Goossaert,2020-03-23 By looking at the activities of Taoist clerics in Peking this book explores the workings of religion as a profession in one Chinese city during a period of dramatic modernization The author focuses on ordinary religious professionals most of whom remained obscure temple employees Although almost forgotten they were all major actors in urban religious and cultural life The clerics at the heart of this study spent their time training disciples practicing and teaching self cultivation performing rituals and managing temples Vincent Goossaert shows that these Taoists were neither the socially despised illiterates dismissed in so many studies nor otherworldly ascetics but active participants in the religious economy of the city In exploring exactly what their crucial role was he addresses the day to day life of modern Chinese religion from the perspective of ordinary religious specialists This approach highlights the social processes institutions and networks that transmit religious knowledge and mediate between prestigious religious traditions and the people in the street In modern Chinese religion the Taoists are such key actors Without them Taoist ritual and Taoist self cultivation are just empty words      Bonsai Master Class Craig Coussins,2006 Join the contemporary artists around the world who are refining and developing the ancient art of bonsai Find out about state of the art tools invented by Ken Moore See how Rob Clausen uses latex and fiberglass to create dramatic groupings of trees on a rock base Explore the breakthrough methods of Singapore s bonsai masters with inspiring examples of the results Covering both basic and advanced techniques and illustrated with step by step photographs taken over months Bonsai Master Class is designed to guide the reader on an artistic journey It provides expert tips throughout on buying bonsai seasonal care horticultural requirements for different climates and distinctive ways to display the results      Money in the Air Gail Feigenbaum,Sandra van Ginhoven,Edward Sterrett,2024-06-25 This volume explores the crucial role of art dealers in creating a transatlantic art market in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries There was money in the air ever so much money wrote Henry James in 1907 reflecting on the American appetite for art acquisitions Indeed collectors such as Henry Clay Frick and Andrew W Mellon are credited with bringing noteworthy European art to the United States with their collections forming the backbone of major American museums today But what of the dealers who possessed the expertise in art and recognized the potential of developing a new market model on both sides of the Atlantic Money in the Air investigates the often overlooked role of these dealers in creating an international art world Contributors examine the histories of wellknown international firms like Duveen Brothers M Knoedler Co and Goupil Cie and their relationships with American clients as well as accounts of other remarkable dealers active in the transatlantic art market Drawing on dealer archives scholars reveal compelling findings including previously unknown partnerships and systems of cooperation This volume offers new perspectives on the development of art collections that formed the core of American art museums such as the National Gallery of Art the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Frick Collection From an Antique Land Anne MacLeod, 2012-11-05 This book looks at visual images as an alternative and undervalued source of evidence for ideas about the Scottish Gaidhealtachd in the period 1700 1880 Illustrated with 100 plates it brings together many little known and previously unrelated images Addressing the textual bias inherent in Scottish historical studies the book examines a broad range of maps plans paintings drawings sketches and printed images arguing that the concept of antiquity was the single most powerful influence driving the visual representation of the Highlands and Islands from 1700 to 1880 and indeed beyond Successive chapters look at archaeological ethnological and geological motives for visualising the Highlands and at the bias in favour of antiquity which resulted from the spread of these intellectual influences into the fine arts The book concludes that the shadow of time which hallmarked visual representations of the region resulted in a preservationist mentality which has had powerful repercussions for approaches to Highland issues down to the present day The book will appeal to historians art historians cultural geographers and the general reader interested in Highland history and culture "The Concept of the 'Master' in Art Education in Britain and Ireland, 1770 to the Present " Matthew C. Potter, 2017-07-05 A novel investigation into art pedagogy and constructions of national identities in Britain and Ireland this collection explores the student master relationship in case studies ranging chronologically from 1770 to 2013 and geographically over the national art schools of England Ireland Scotland and Wales Essays explore the manner in which the Old Masters were deployed in education fuelled the individual creativity of art teachers and students were used as a rhetorical tool for promoting cultural projects in the core and periphery of the British Isles and united as well as divided opinions in response to changing expectations in discourse on art and education Case studies examined in this book include the sophisticated tradition of academic inquiry of establishment figures like Joshua Reynolds and Frederic Leighton as well as examples of radical reform undertaken by key individuals in the history of art education such as Edward Poynter and William Coldstream The role of Modern Masters like William Orpen Augustus John Gwen John and Jeff Wall is also discussed along with the need for students and teachers to master the realm of art theory in their studio based learning environments and the ultimate pedagogical repercussions of postmodern assaults on the academic bastions of the Old Masters Heavenly Masters Vincent Goossaert, 2021-12-15 The book is on the shortlist of ICAS Book Prize 2023 Humanities The origins of modern Daoism can be traced to the Church of the Heavenly Master Tianshidao reputedly established by the formidable Zhang Daoling In 142 CE according to Daoist tradition Zhang was visited by the Lord on High who named him his vicar on Earth with the title Heavenly Master The dispensation articulated an eschatological vision of saving initiates the pure those destined to become immortals by enforcing a strict moral code Under evolving forms Tianshidao has remained central to Chinese society and

Daoist priests have upheld their spiritual allegiance to Zhang their now divinized founder This book tells the story of the longue dur e evolution of the Heavenly Master leadership and institution Later hagiography credits Zhang Daoling s great grandson putatively the fourth Heavenly Master with settling the family at Longhushan Dragon and Tiger Mountain in time his descendants down to the present contested sixty fifth Heavenly Master living in Taiwan made the extraordinary claim of being able to transmit hereditarily the function of the Heavenly Master and the power to grant salvation Over the next twelve centuries the Zhangs turned Longhushan into a major holy site and a household name in the Chinese world and constructed a large administrative center for the bureaucratic management of Chinese society They gradually built the Heavenly Master institution which included a sacred site a patriarchal line of successive Heavenly Masters wielding vast monopolistic powers to ordain humans and gods a Zhang lineage that nurtured talent and accumulated wealth and a bureaucratic apparatus comprised of temples training centers and a clerical hierarchy So well designed was this institution that it remained stable for more than a millennium far outlasting the longest dynasties and had ramifications for every city and village in imperial China In this ambitious work Vincent Goossaert traces the Heavenly Master bureaucracy from medieval times to the modern Chinese nation state as well as its expansion His in depth portraits of influential Heavenly Masters are skillfully embedded in a large scale analysis of the institution and its rules ideology and vision of society The Encyclopedia Britannica James
